

Figure S3. Periodic acid-Schiff (left panel) and thioflavin-S staining (right panel) of fixed coronal brain sections of mice infected with late brain.

Sections were stained at the level of the corpus callosum or the lateral ventricle (LV). Note the typical aspect of the plaques, arranged in peripheral radiating spicules. Scale bars = 100  $\mu$ m.