

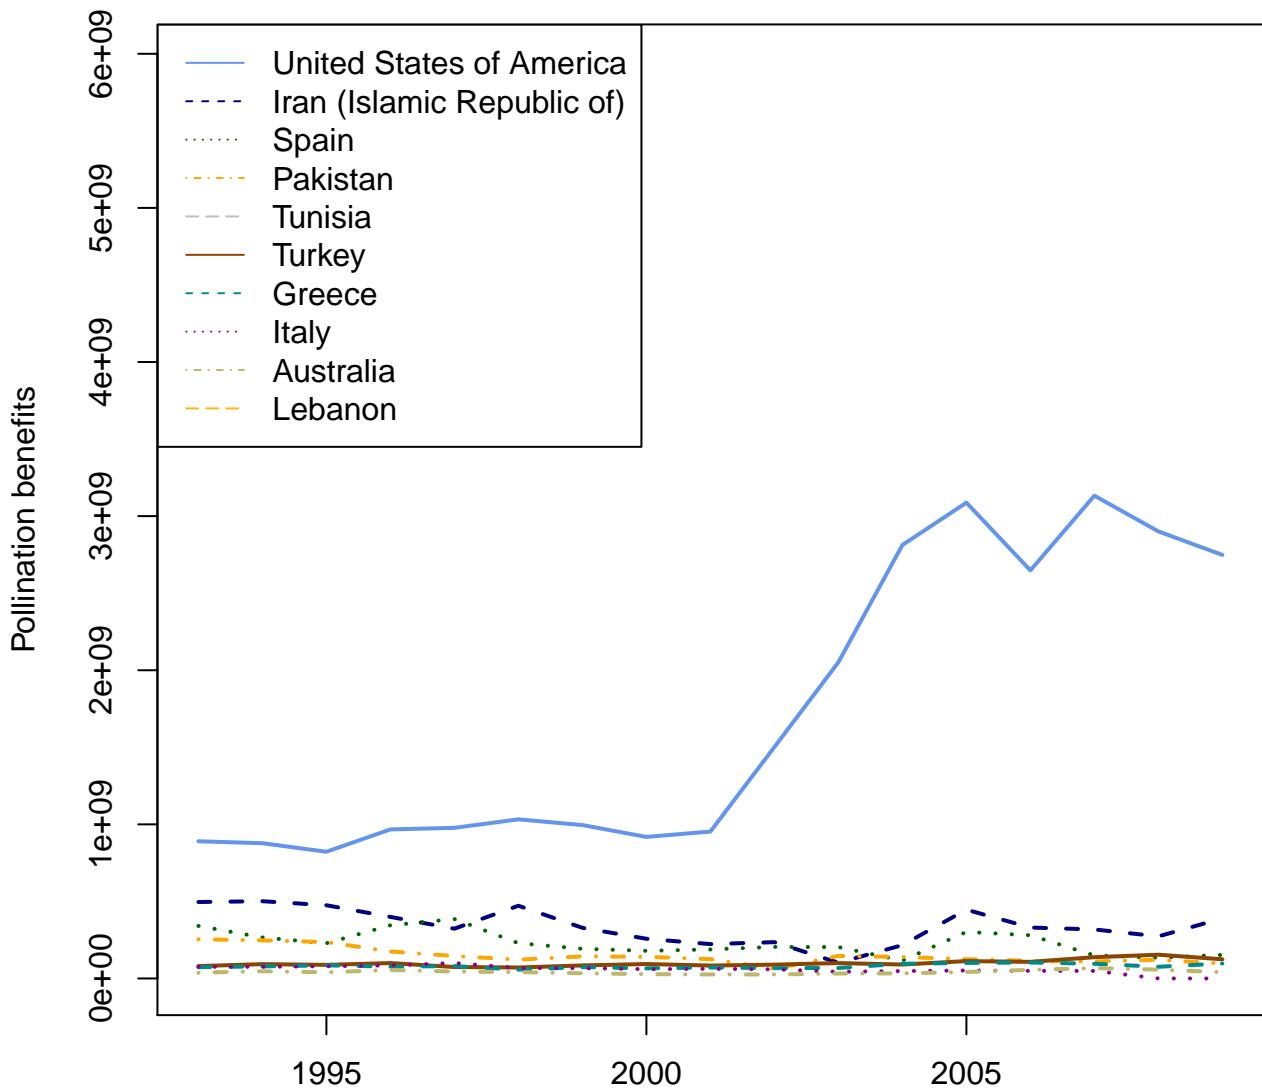

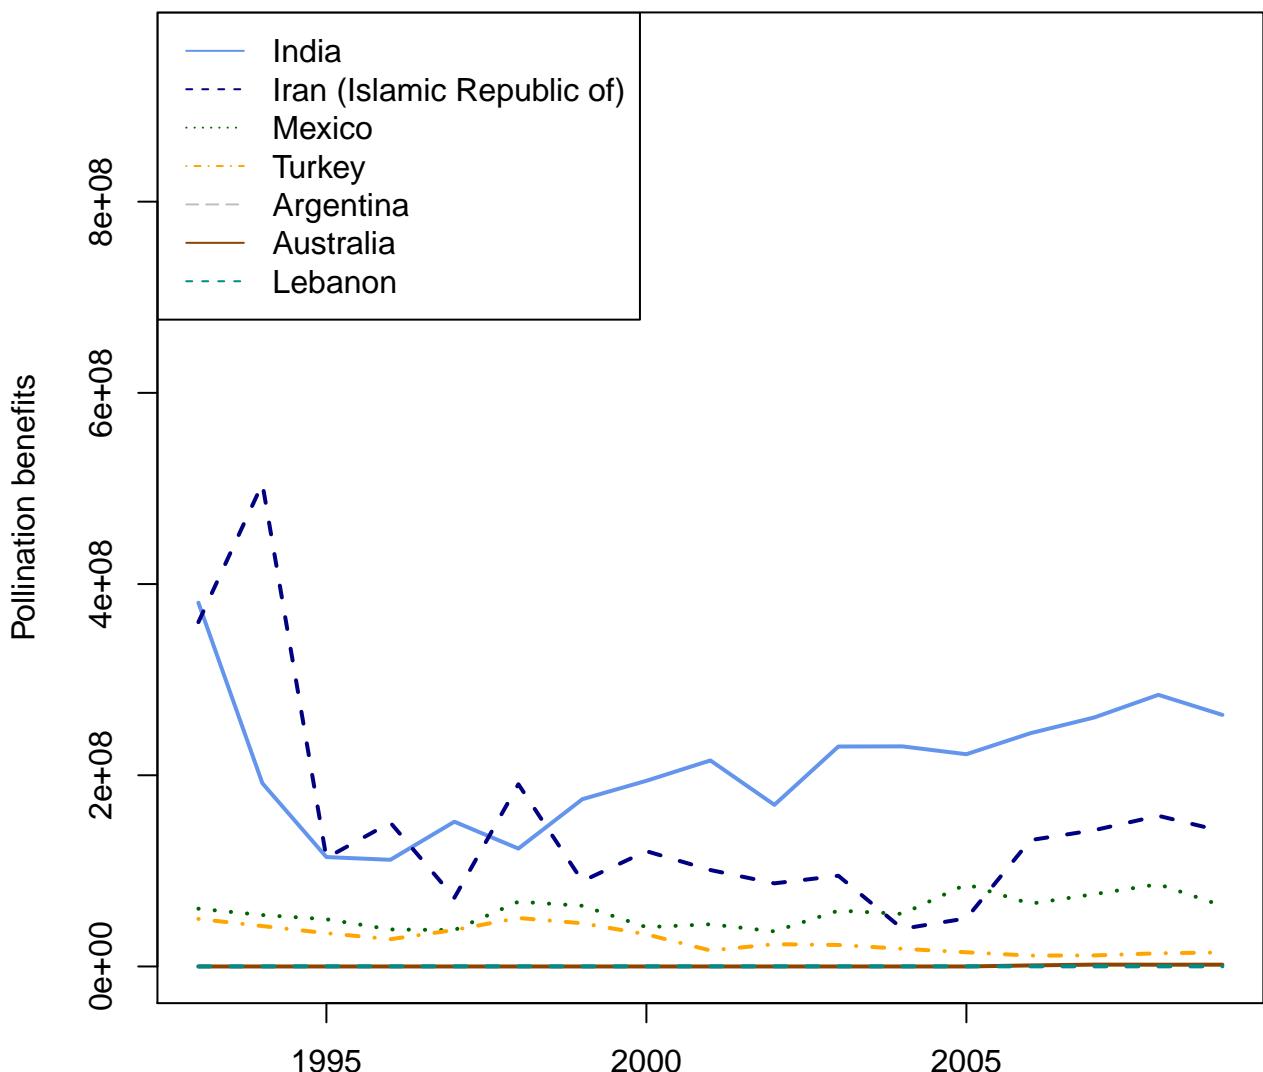

Figure S6. Trends for pollination benefits per crop for the 10 most important producing countries.

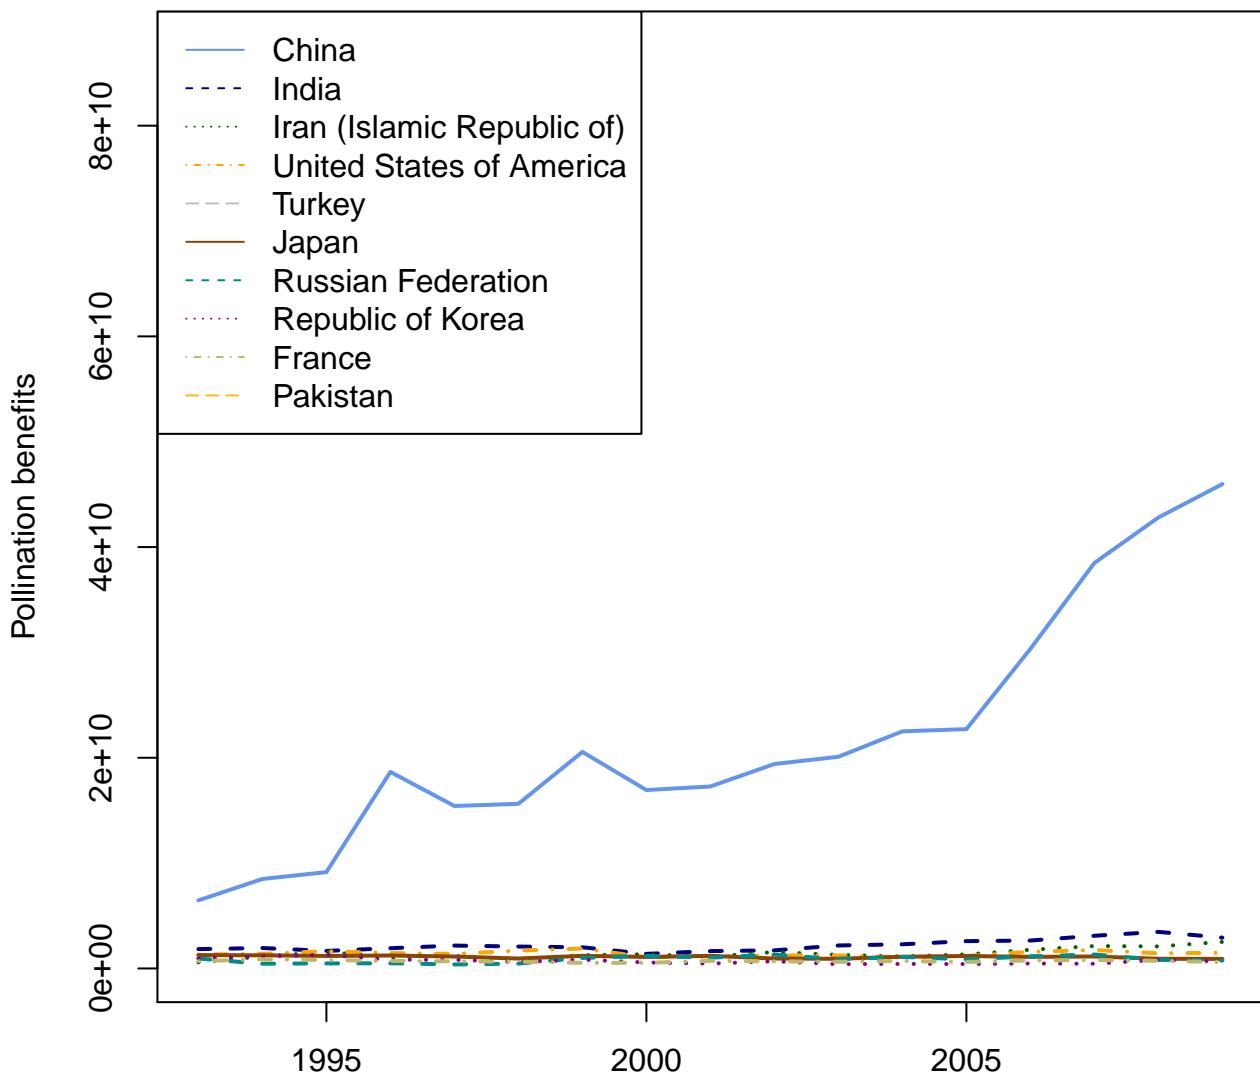

Almond

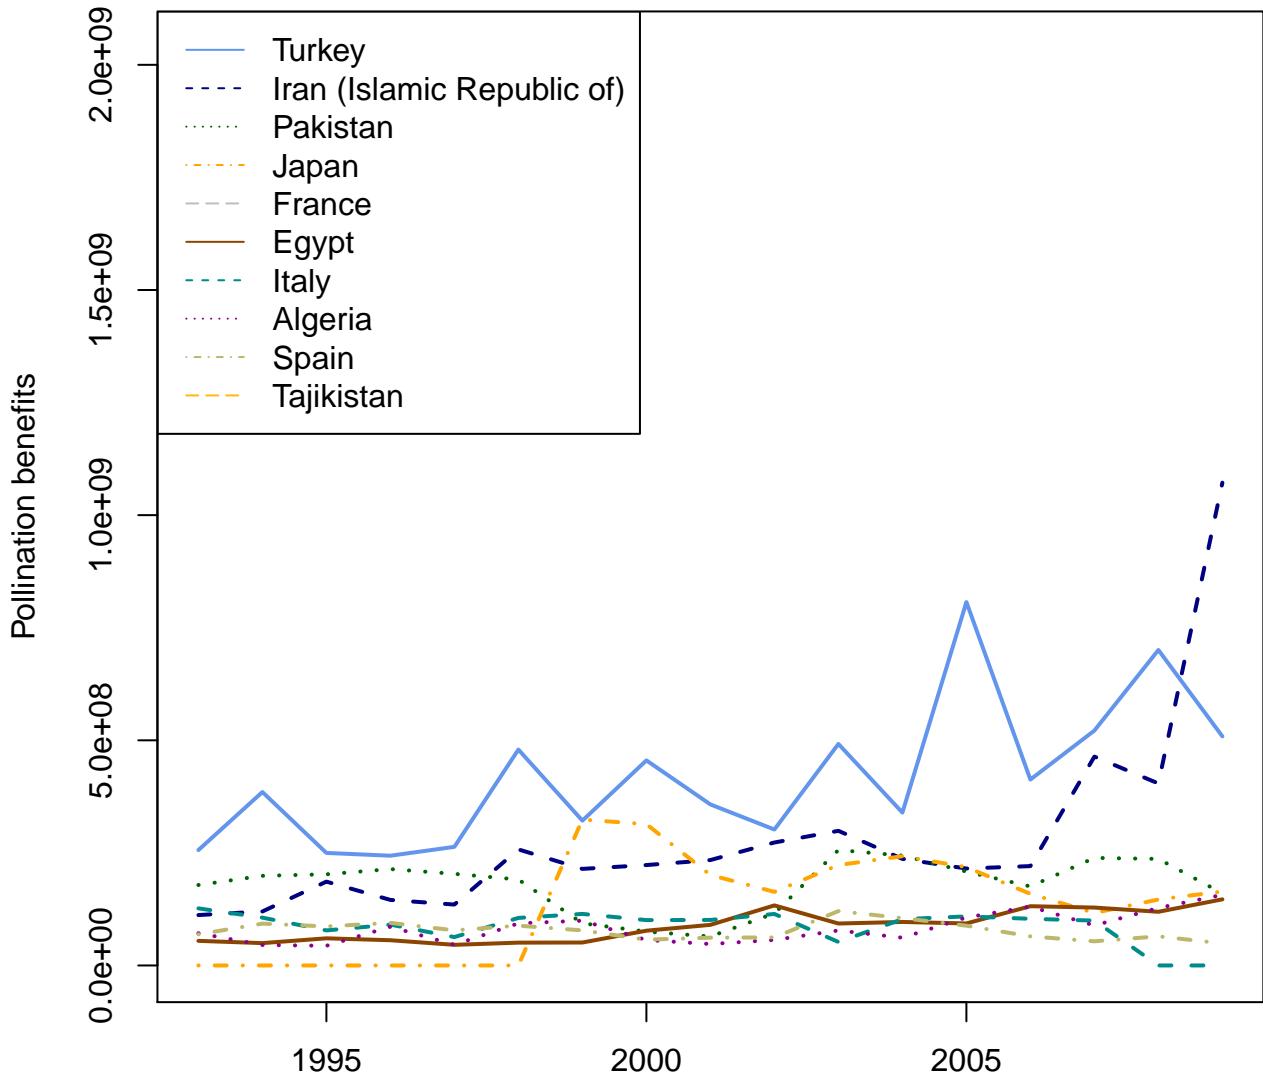

Anise, badian, fennel, coriander

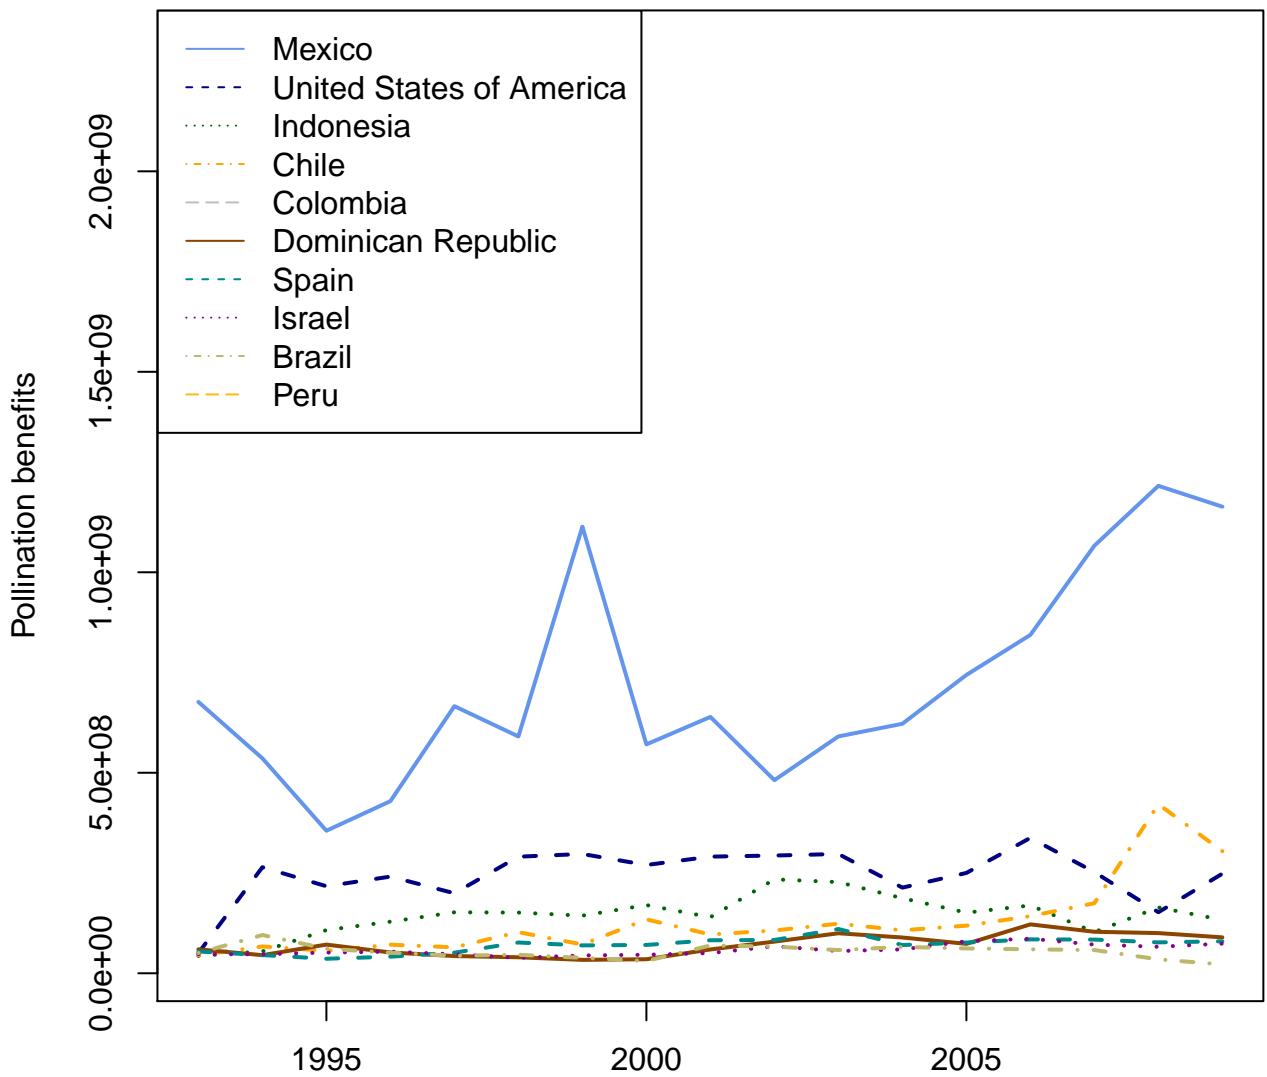

Apples

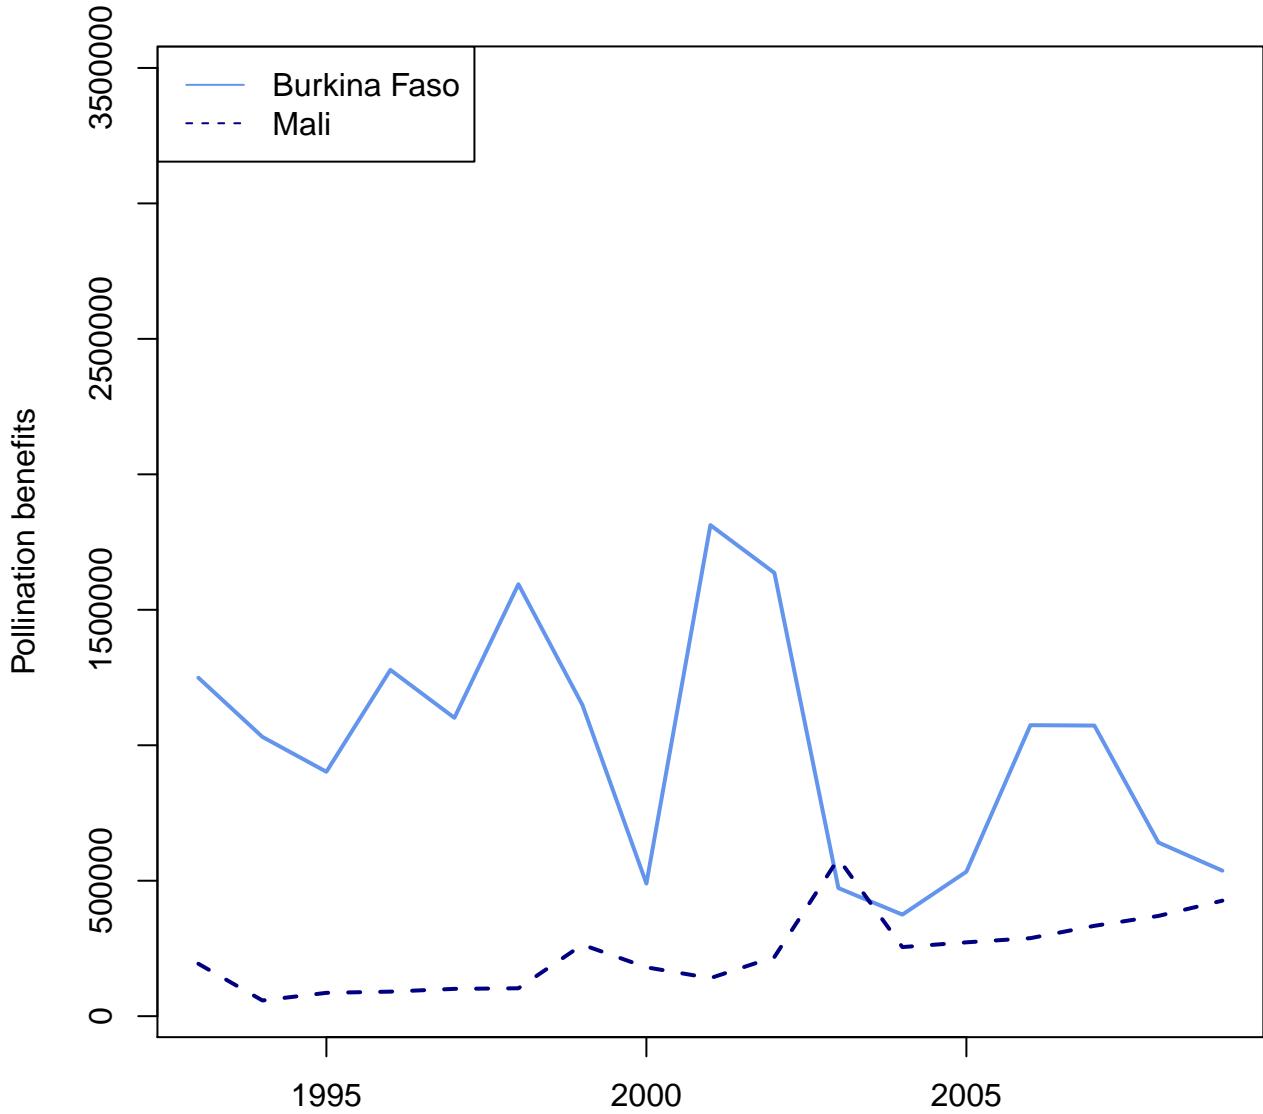

Apricots

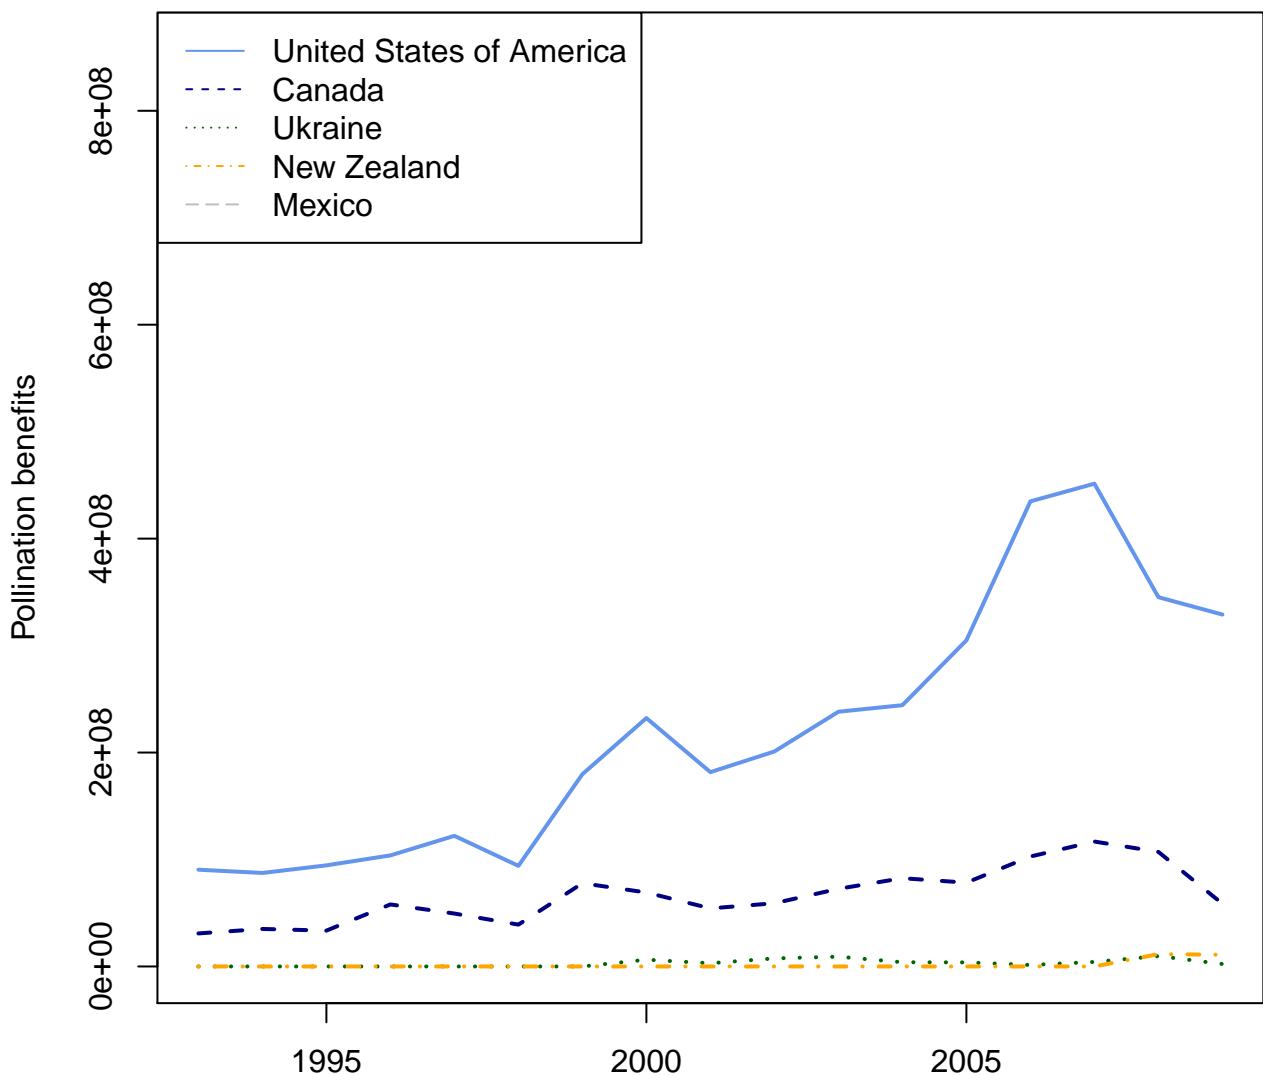

Avocados

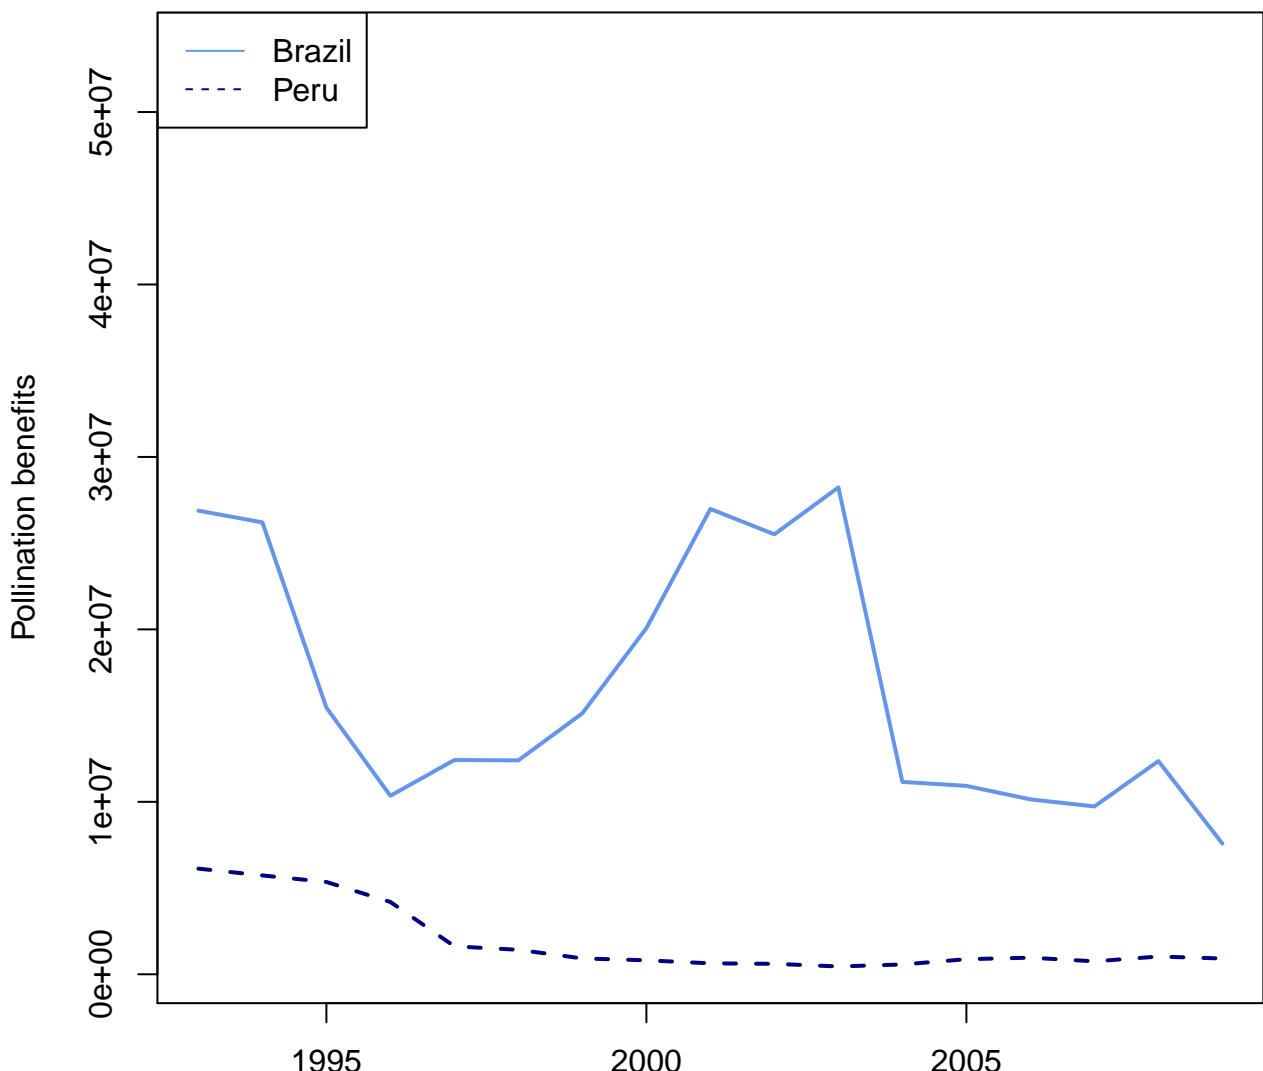

Bambara beans

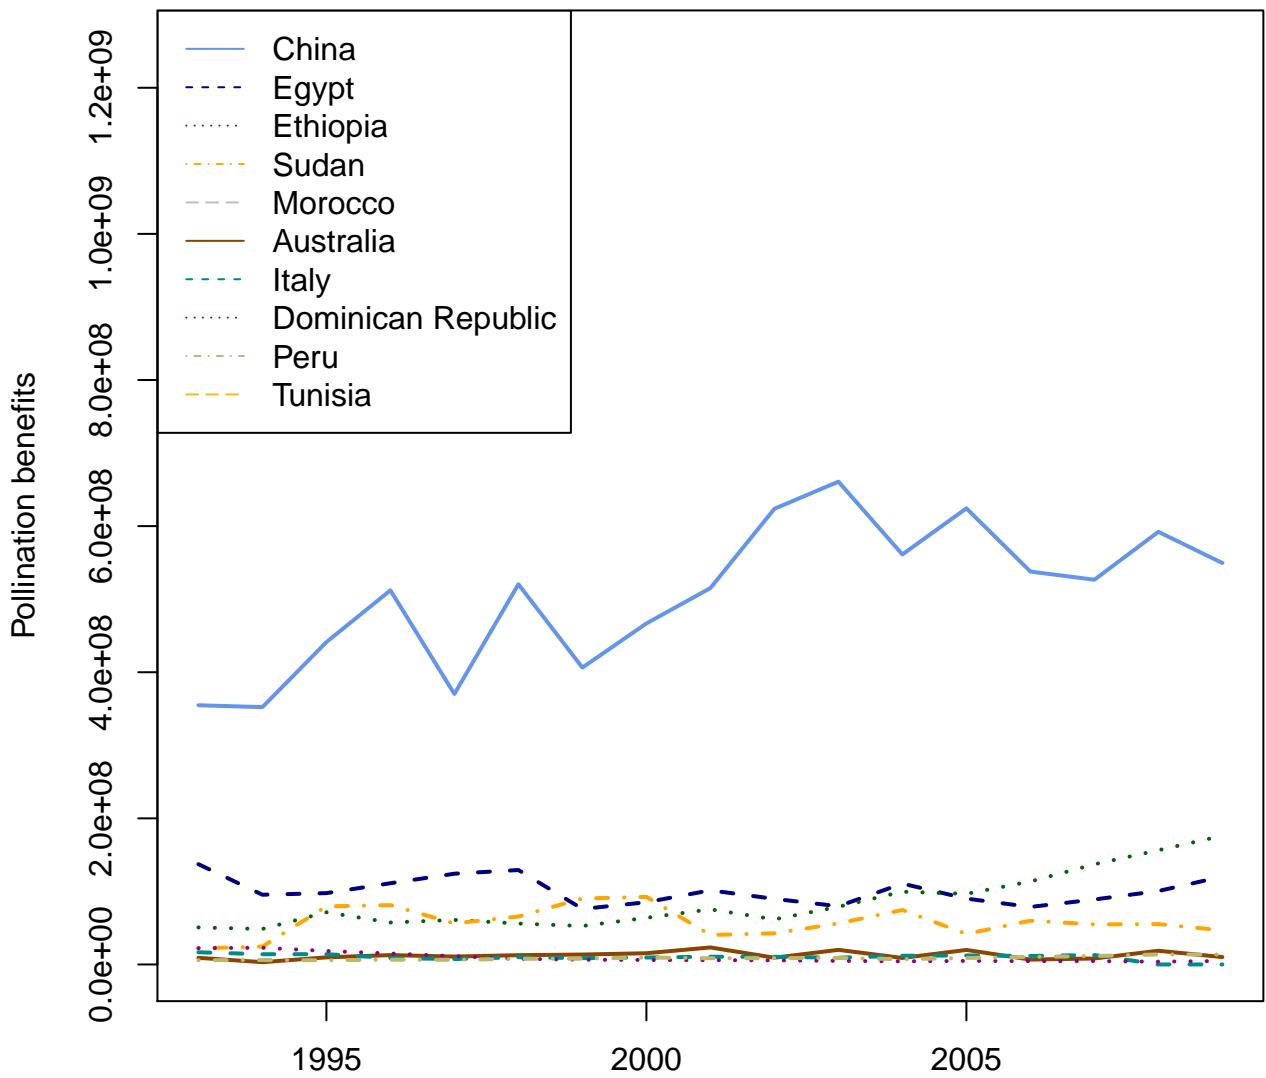

Blueberries

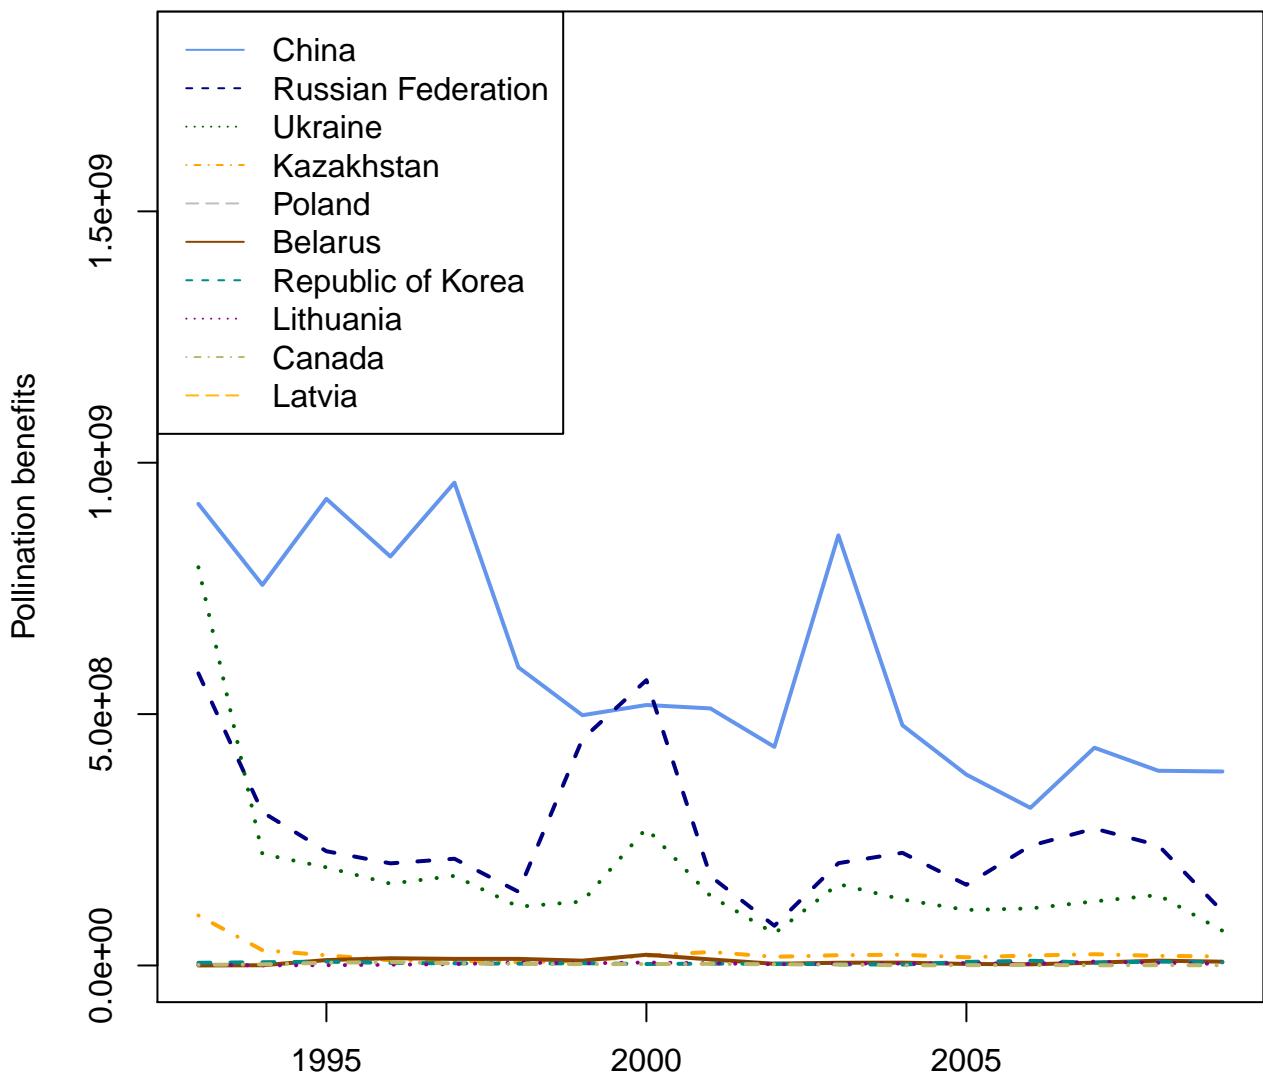

Brazil nut

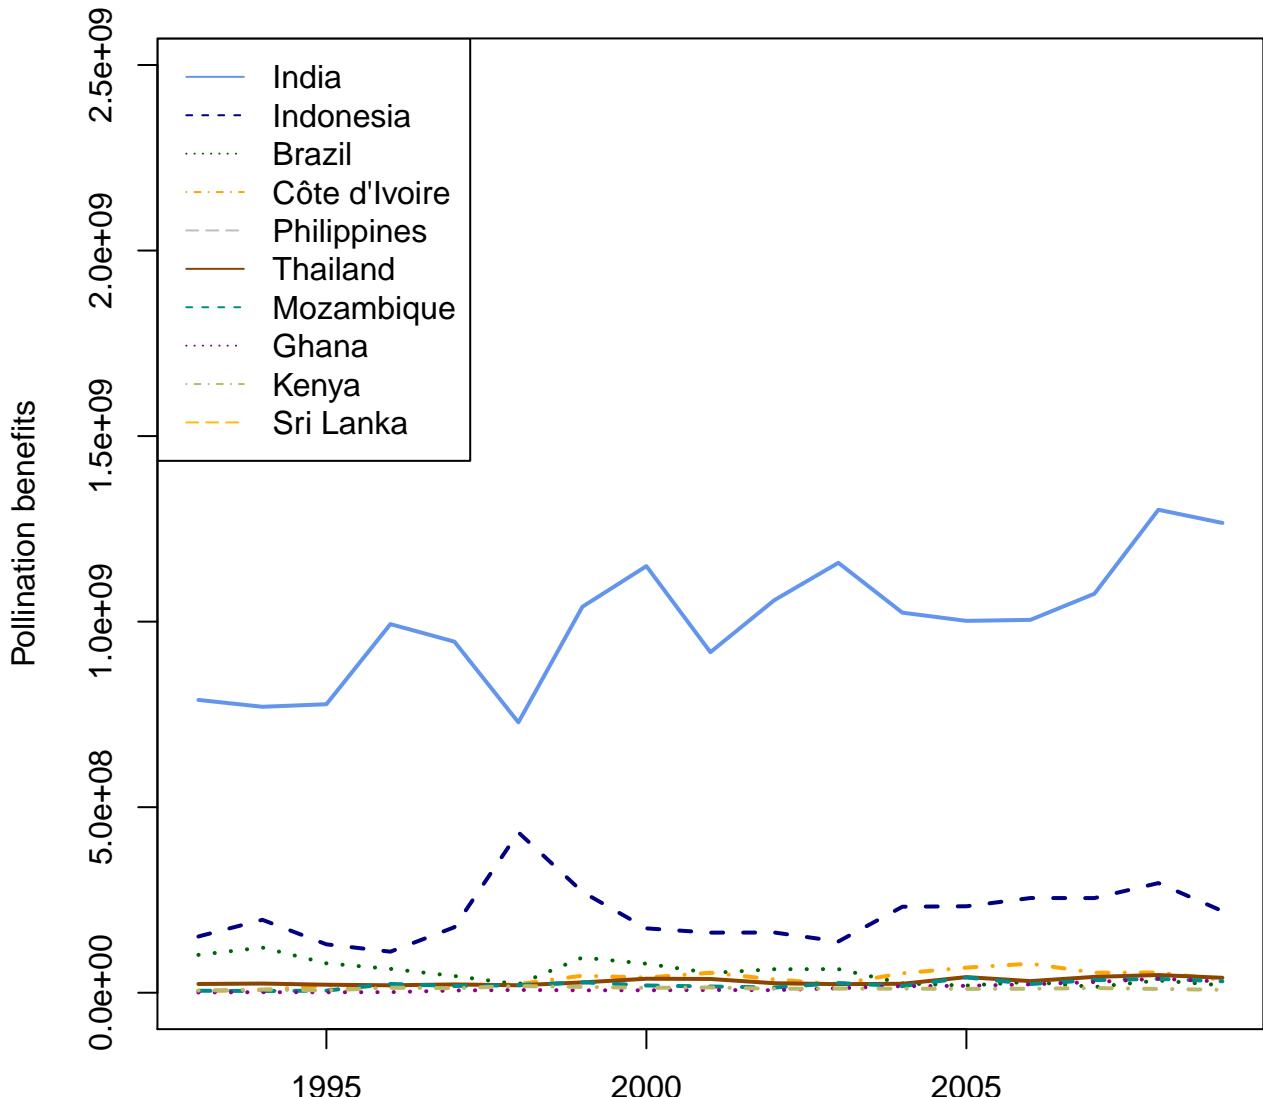

Broad bean, Horse bean

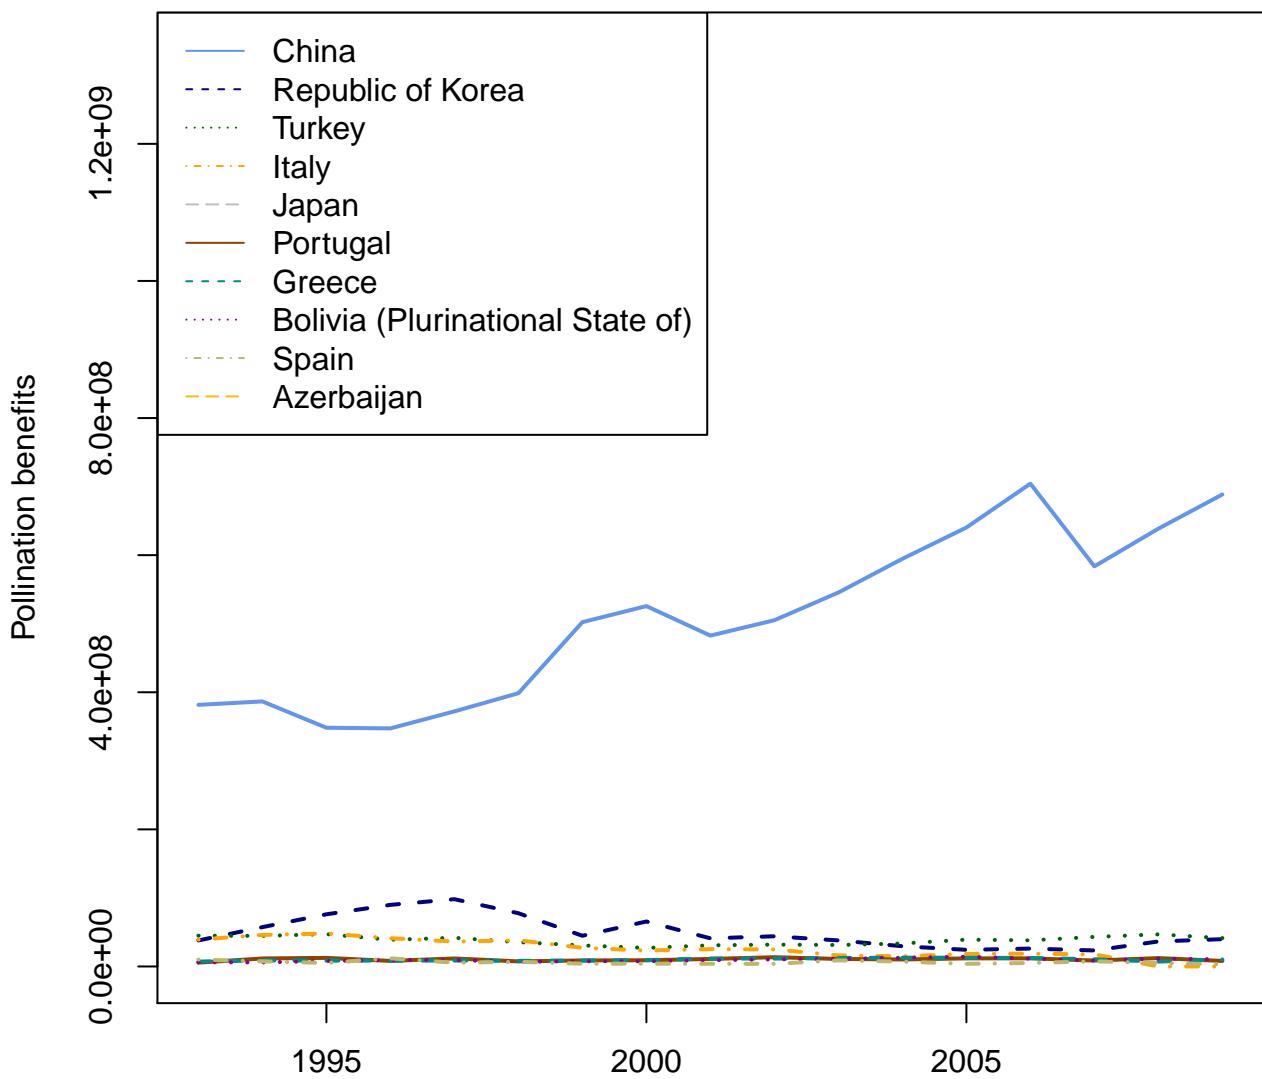

Buckwheat

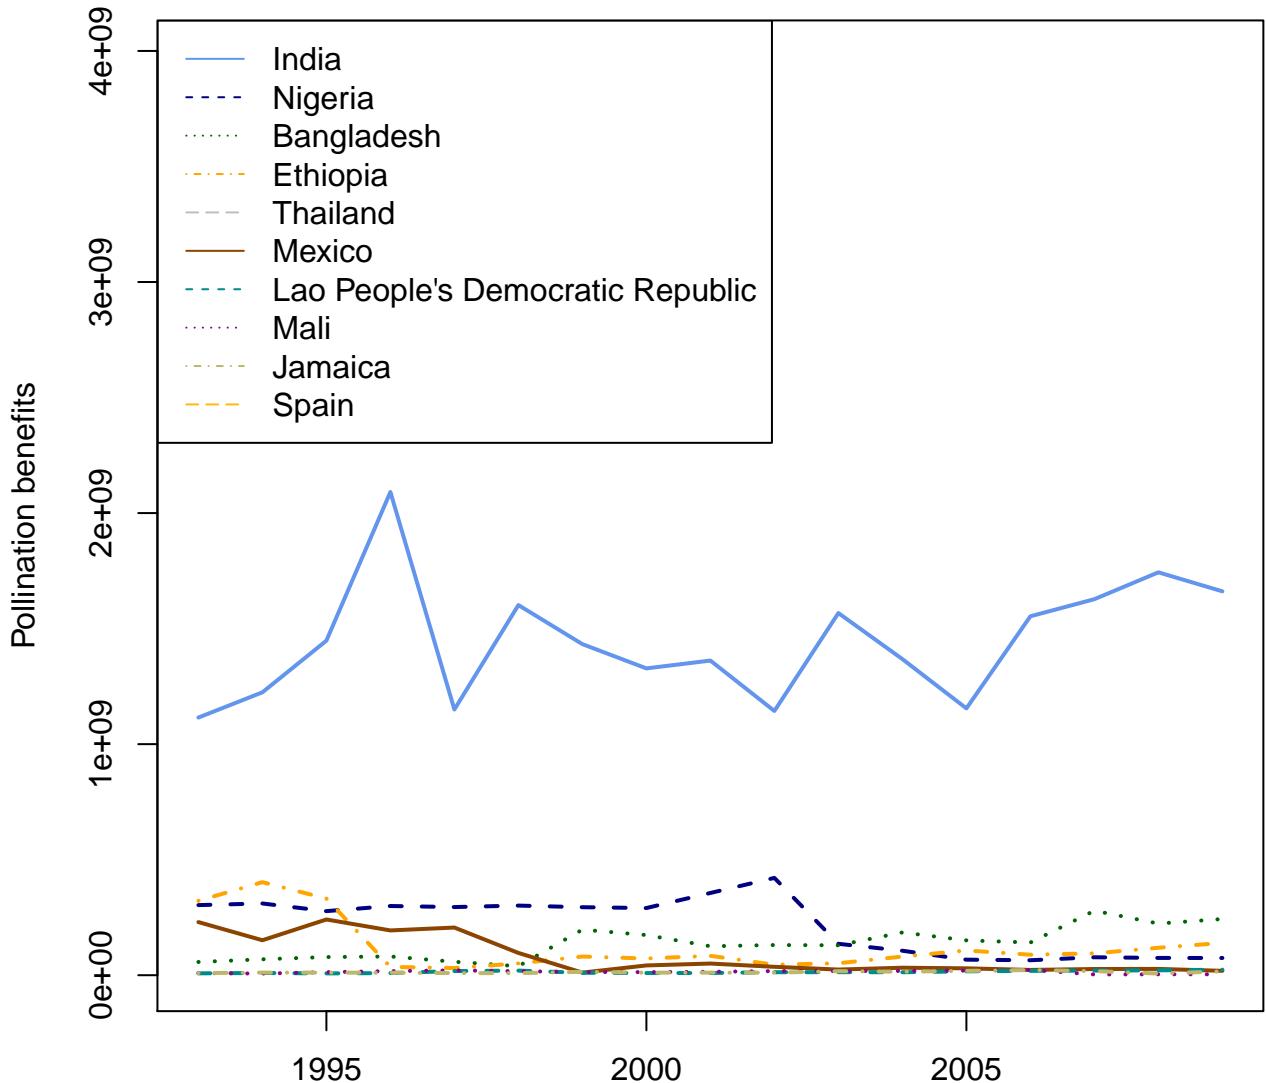

Cashew nut

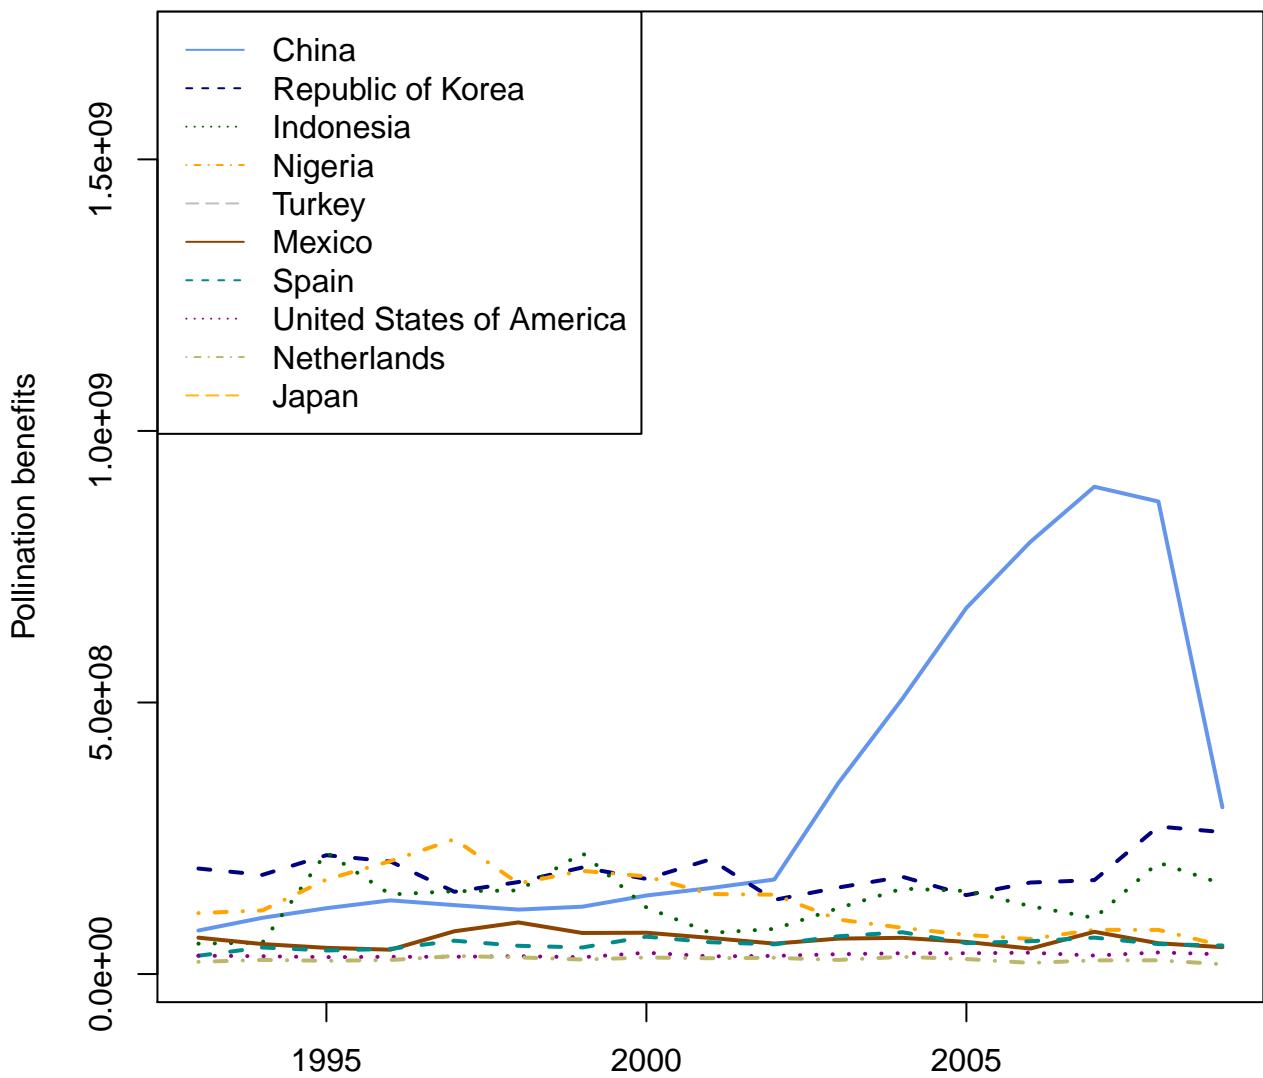

Chestnut

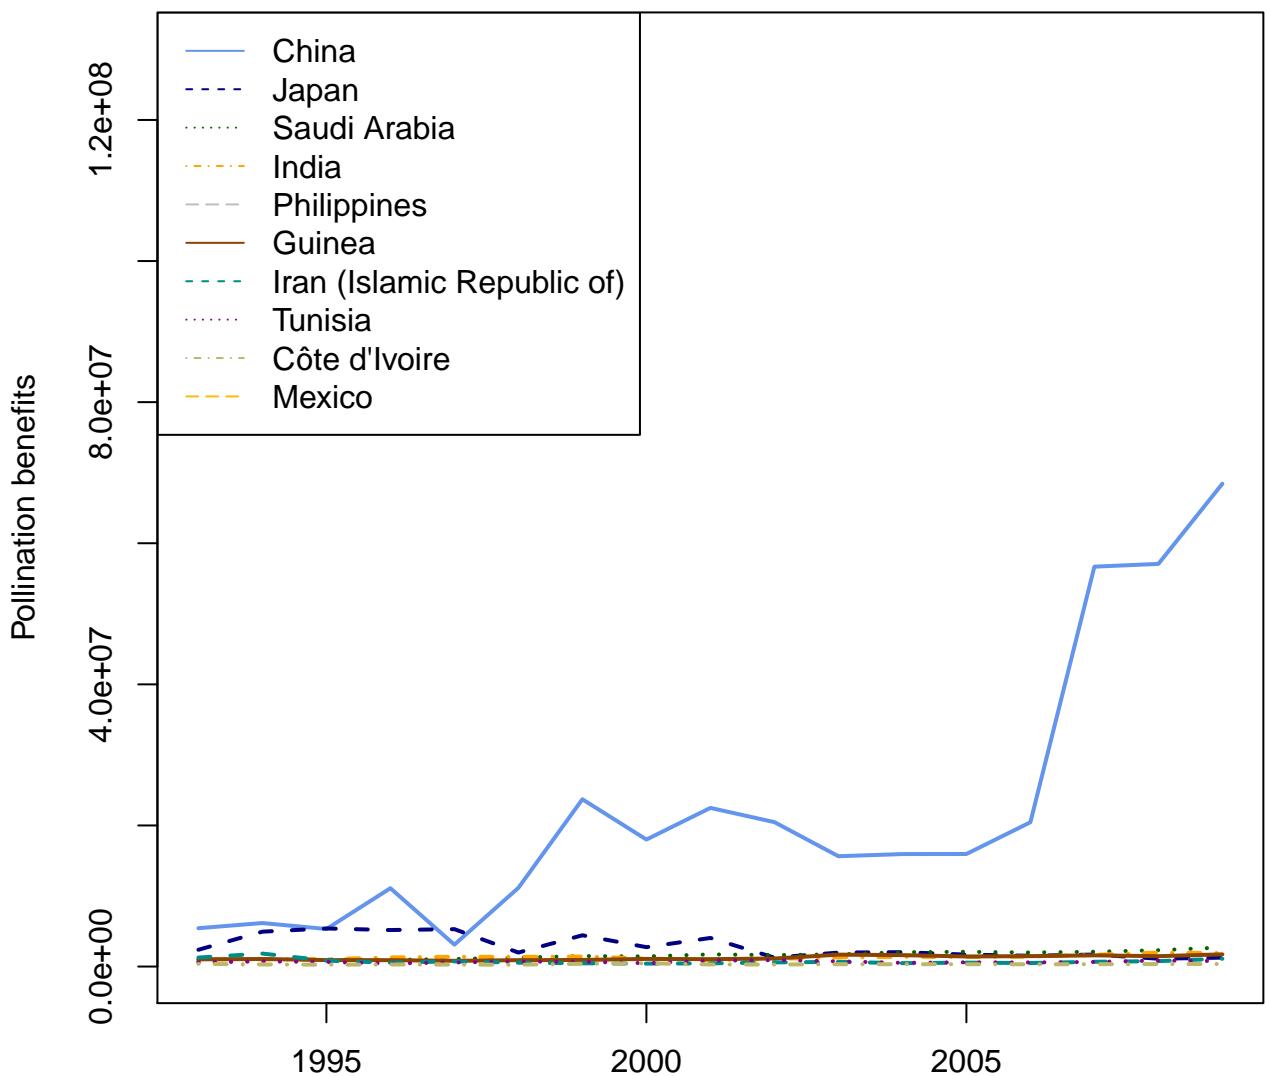

Chillies and peppers, dry

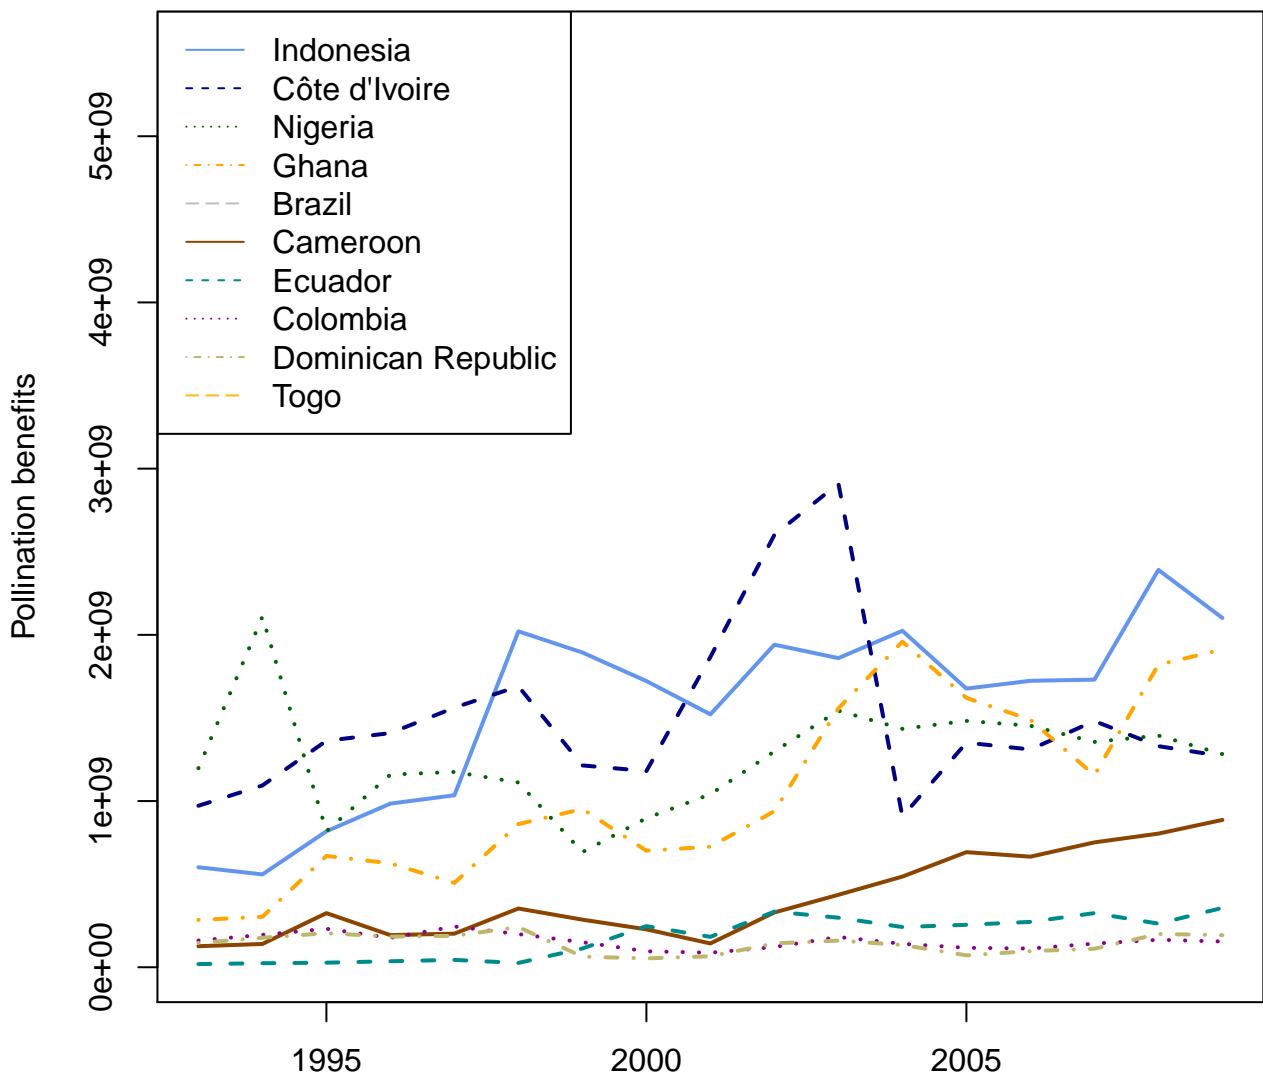

Chillies and peppers, green

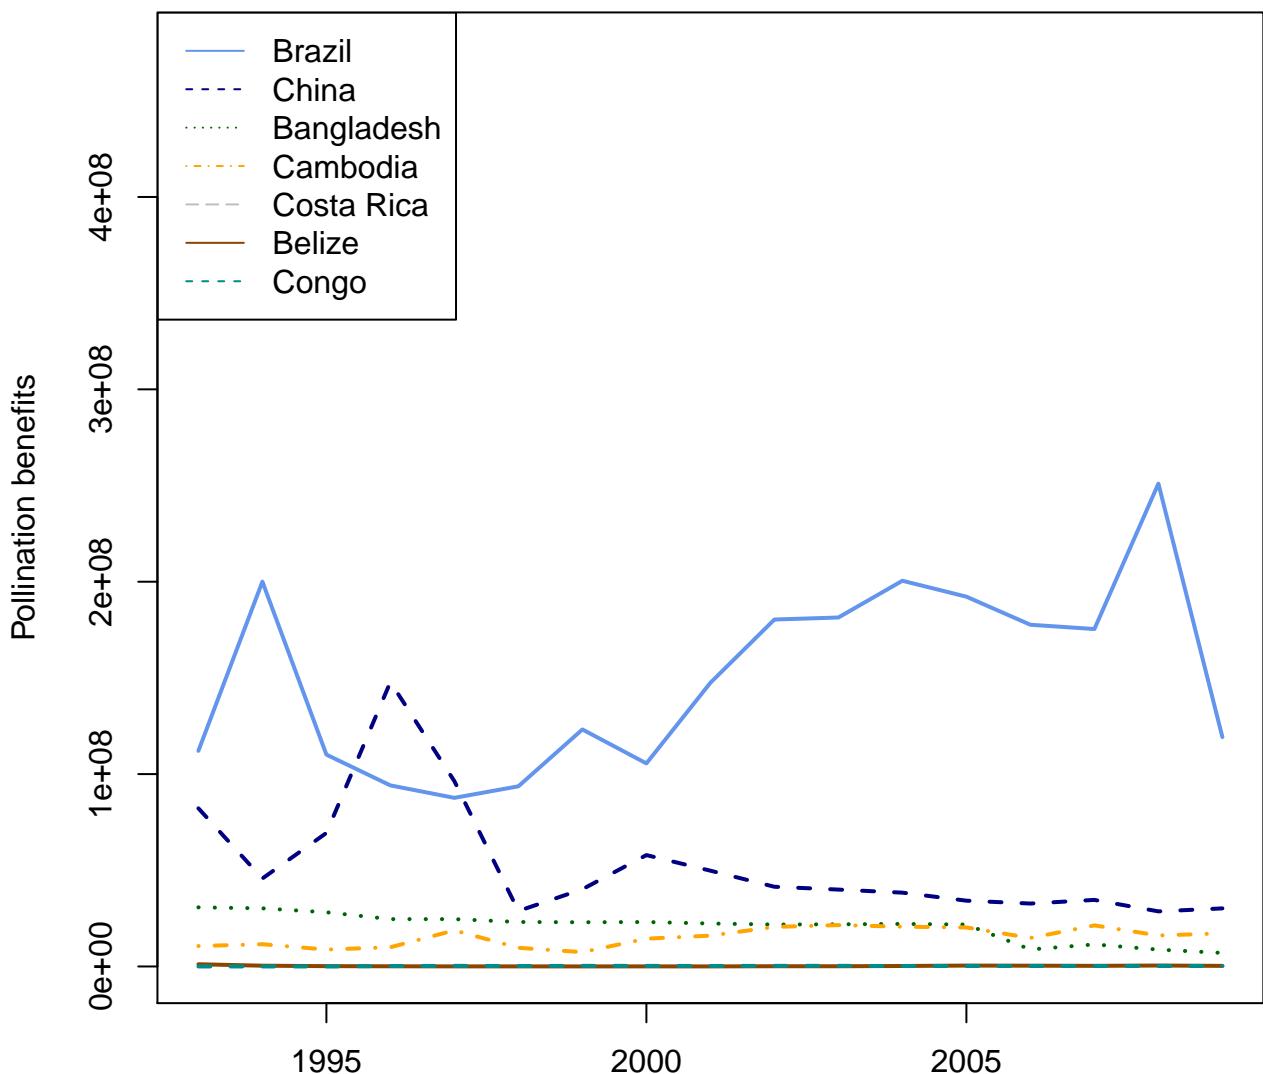

Citrus Fruit NES*

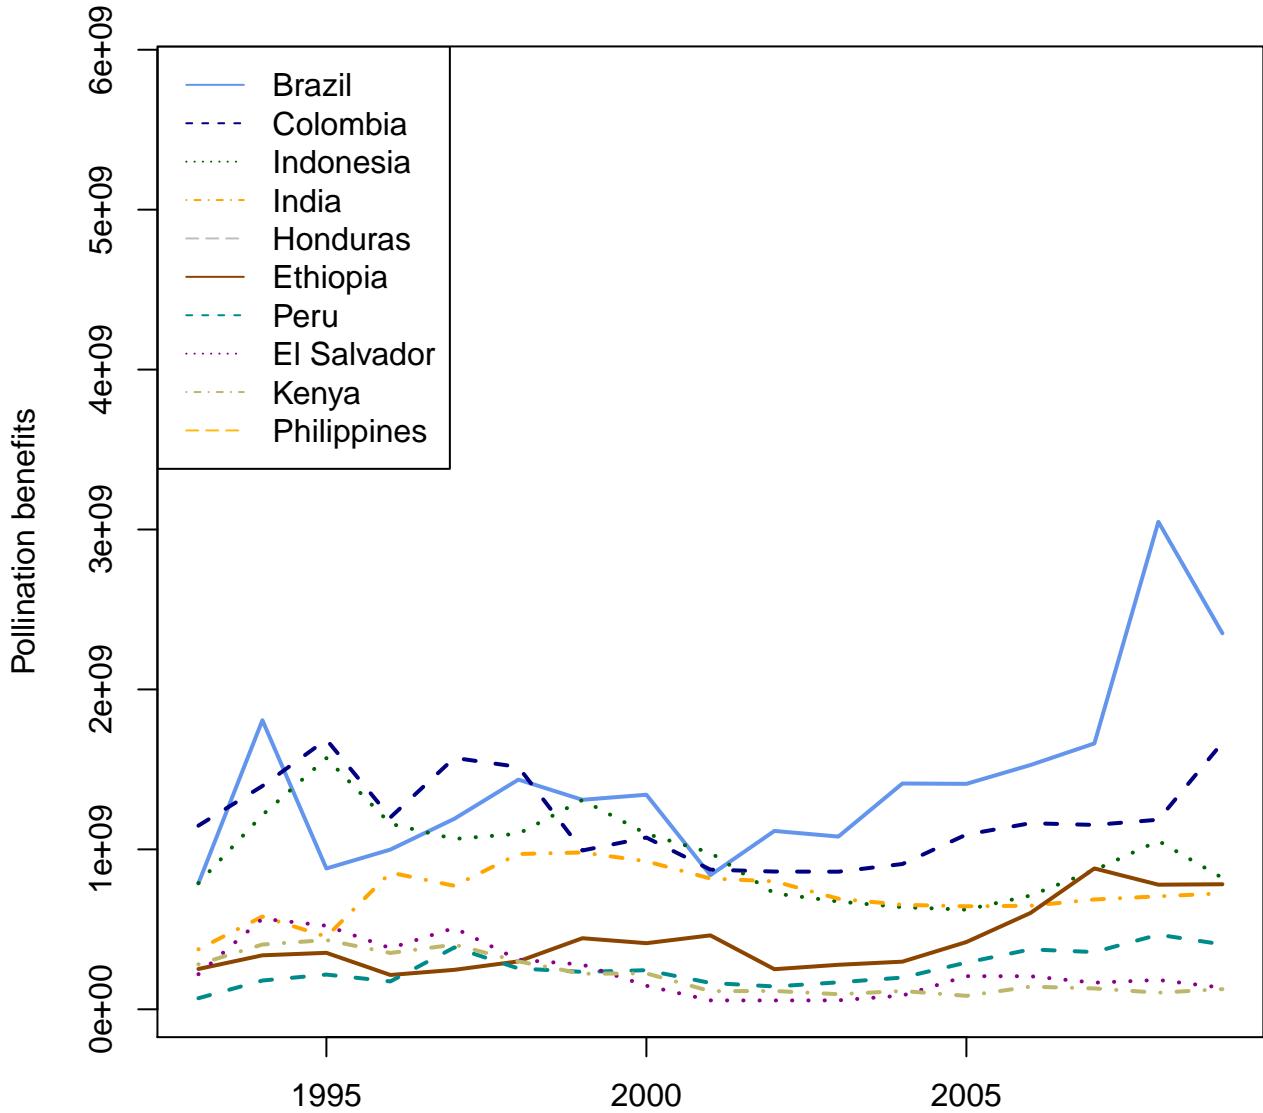

Cocoa beans

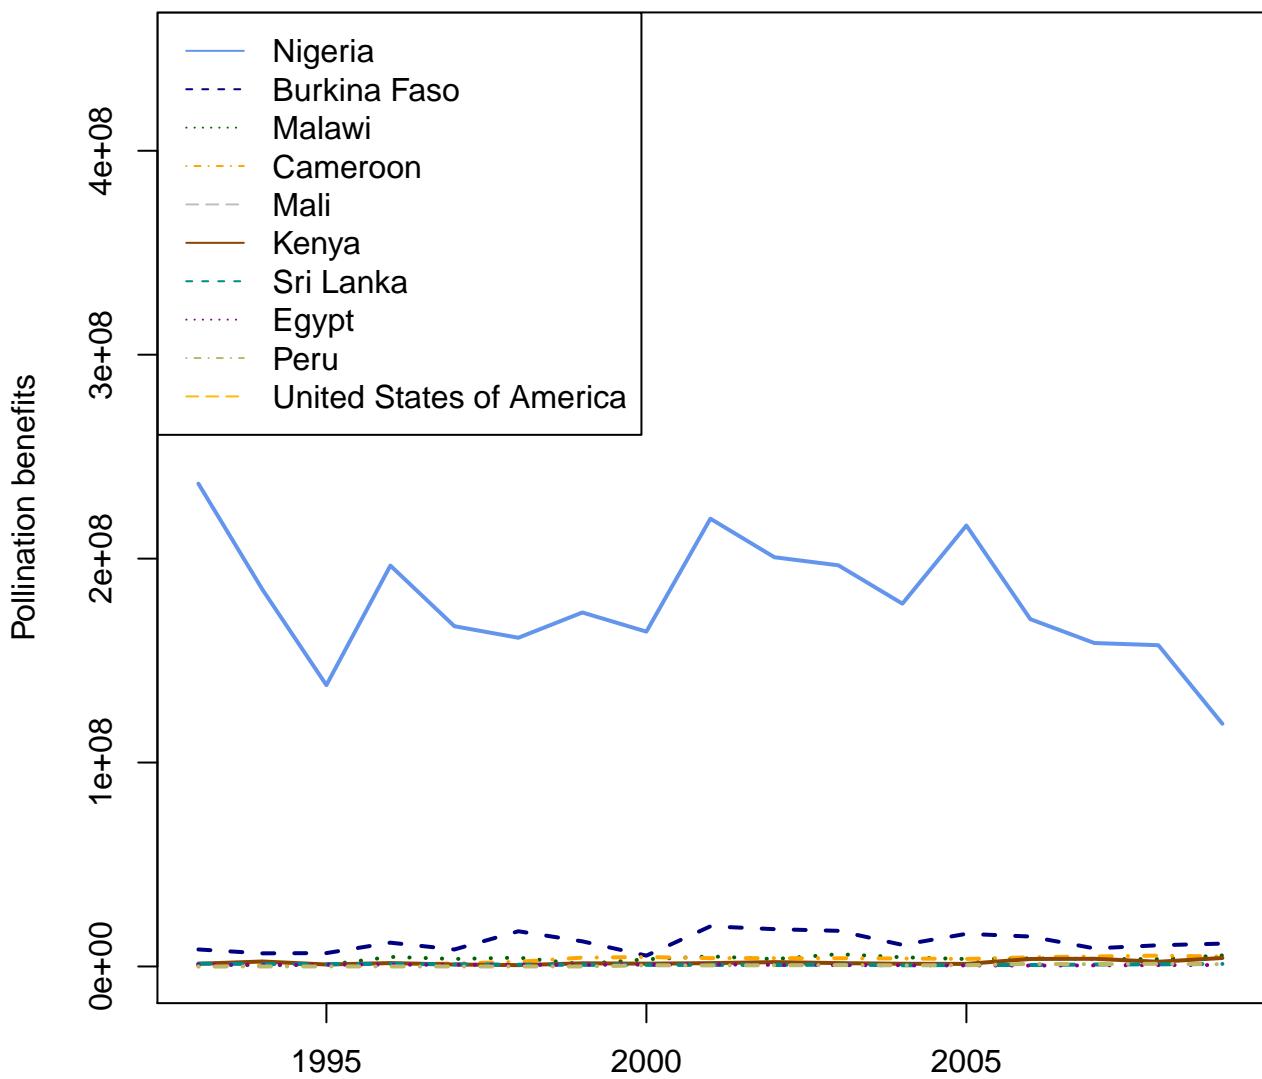

Coconuts

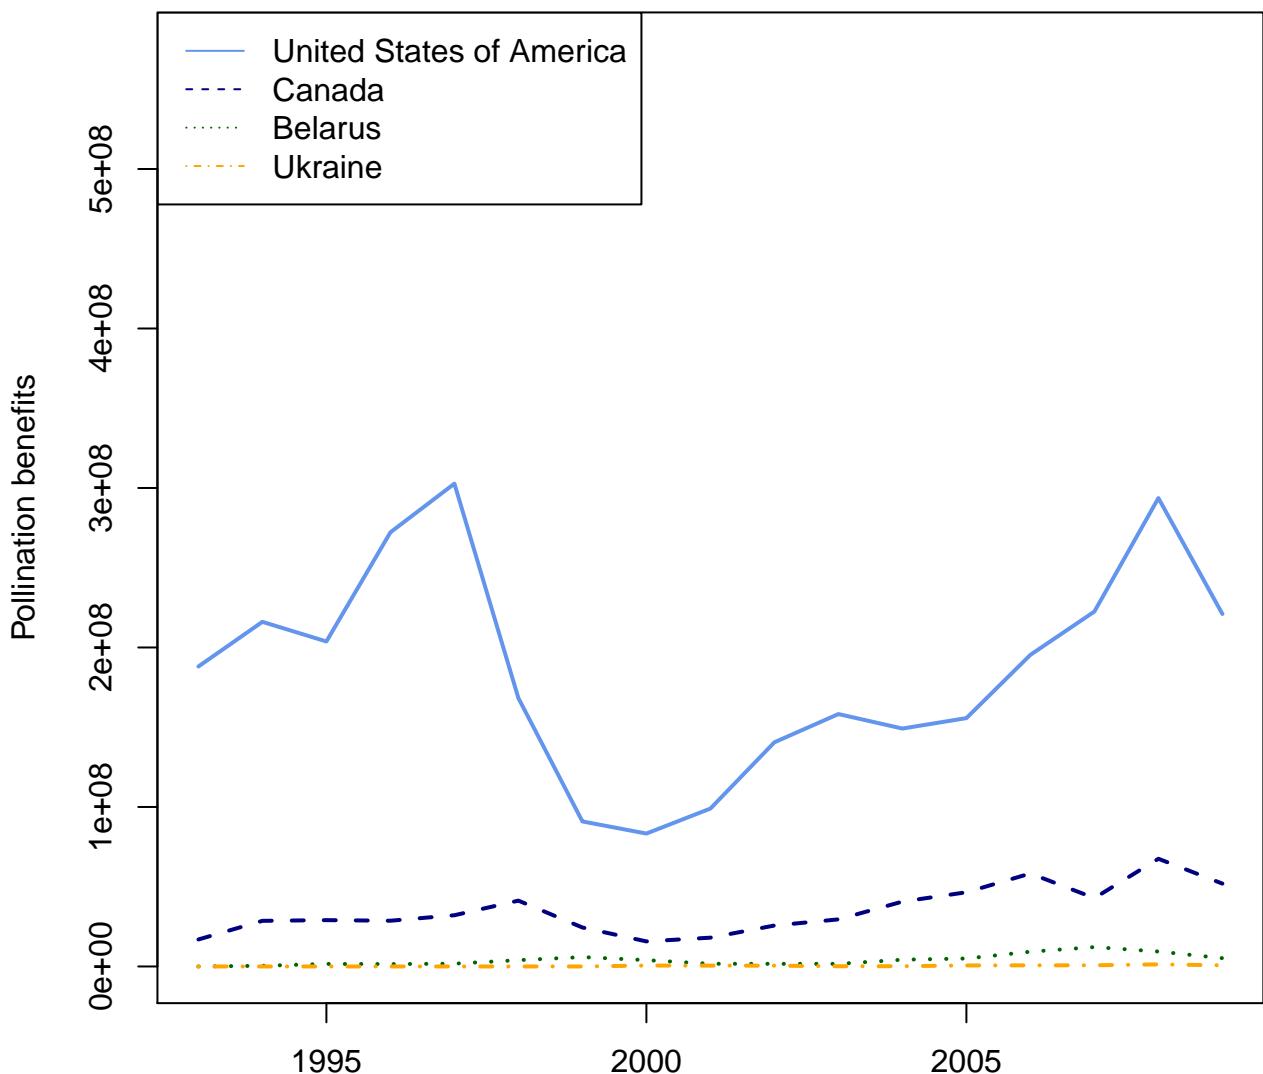

Coffee, green

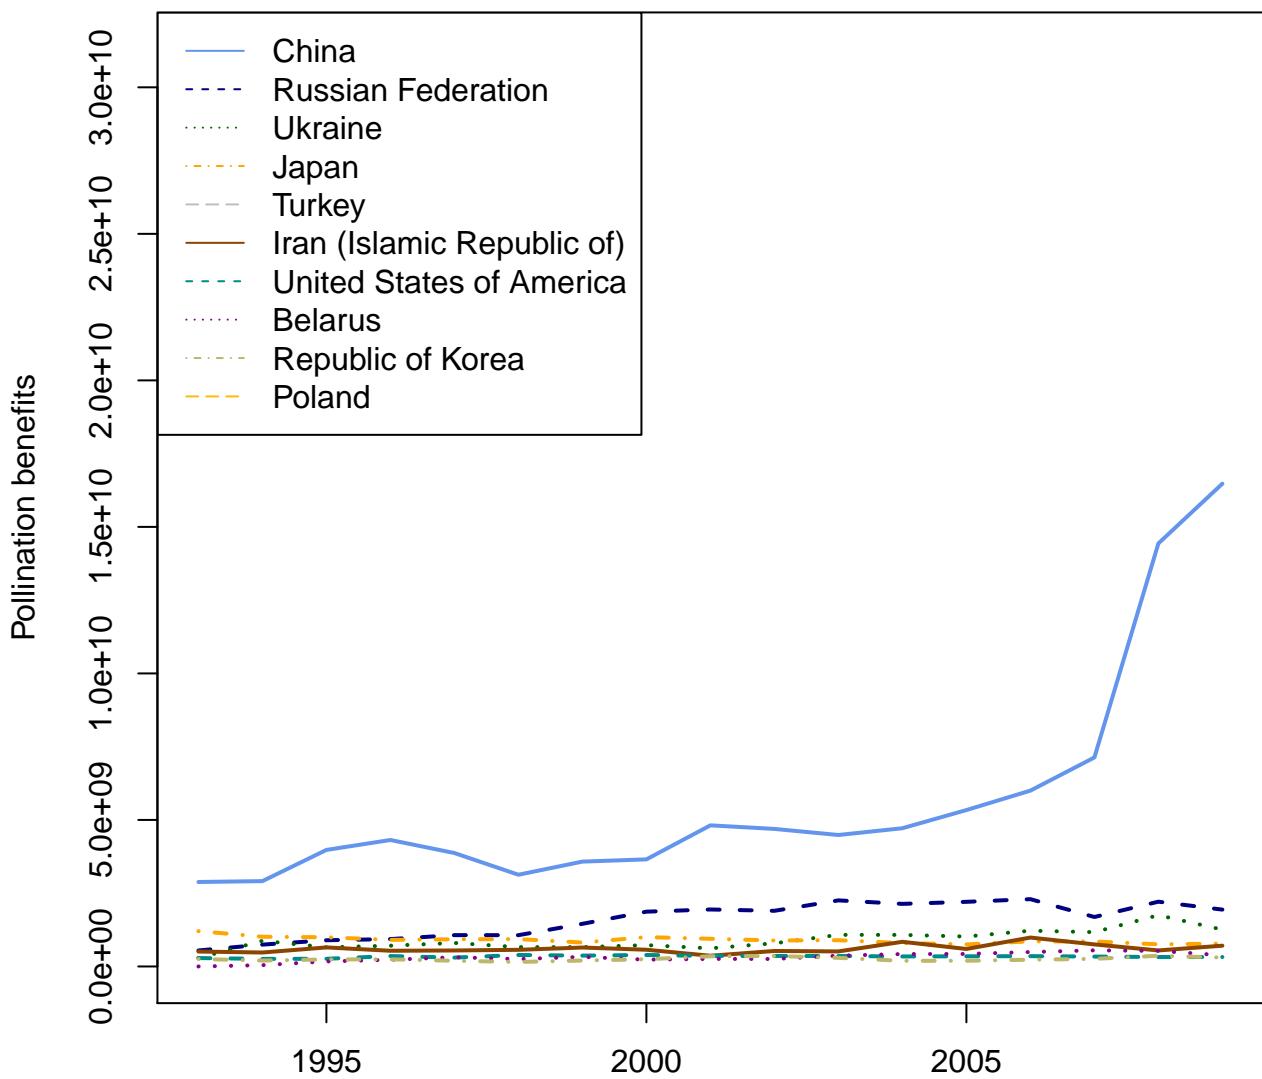

Cow peas, dry

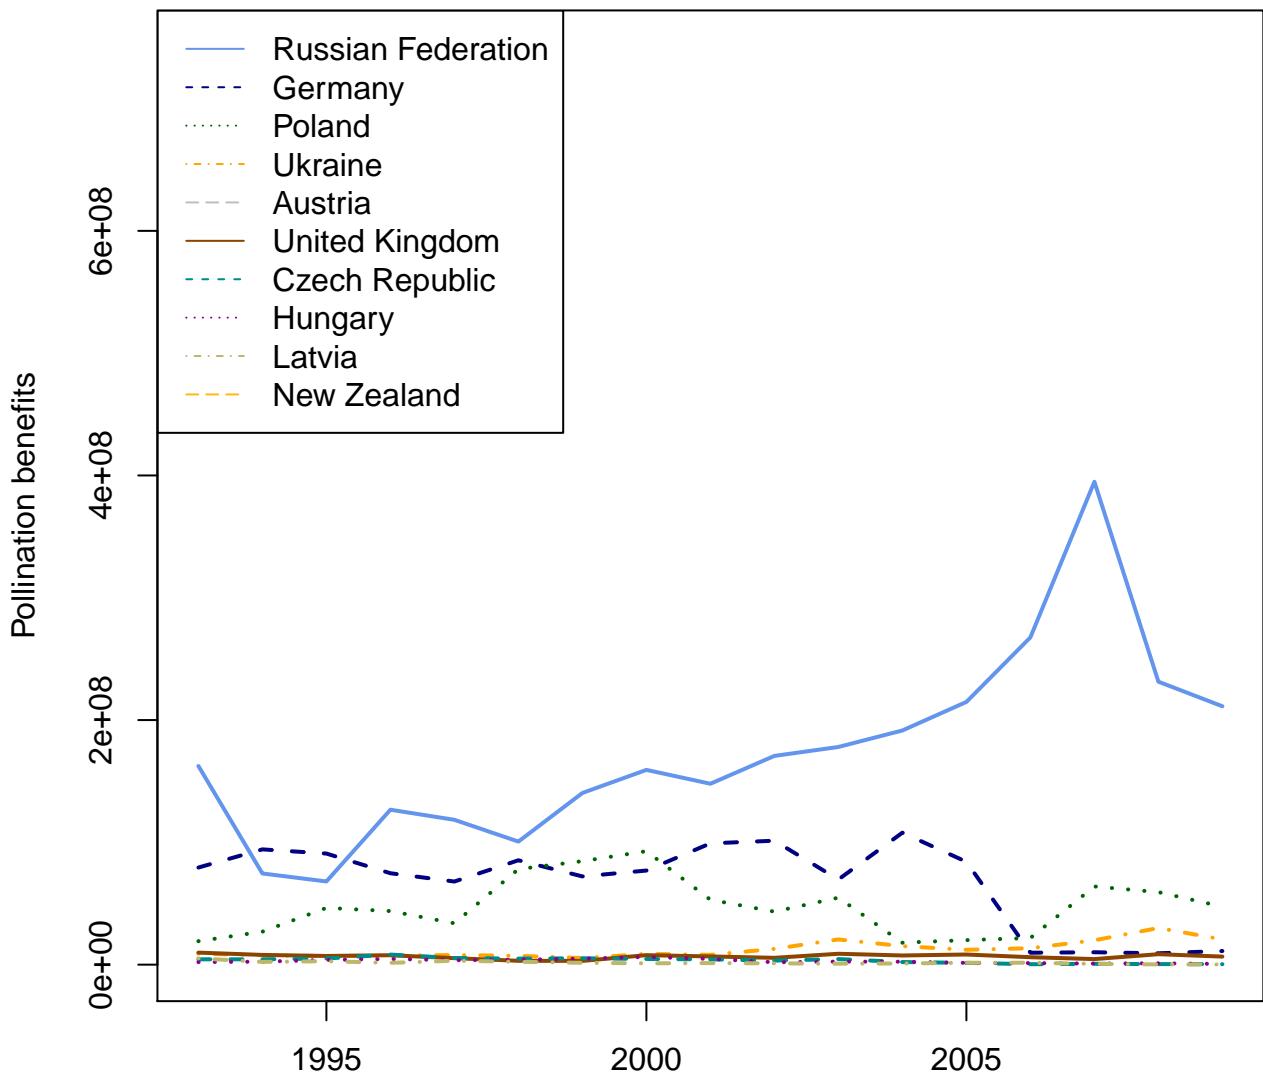

Cranberries

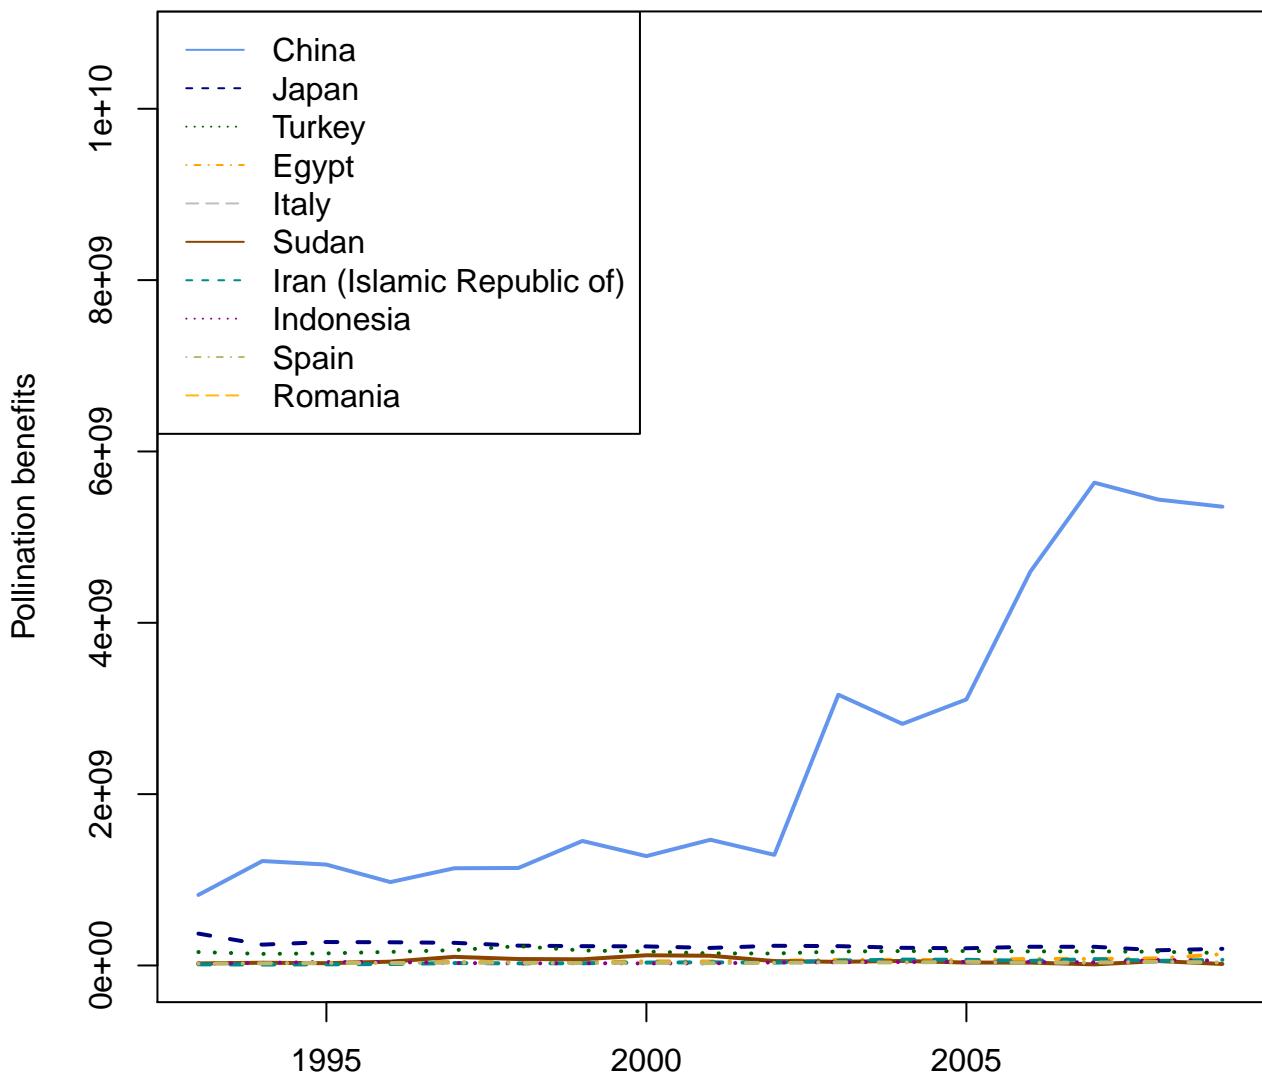

Cucumbers and Gherkins

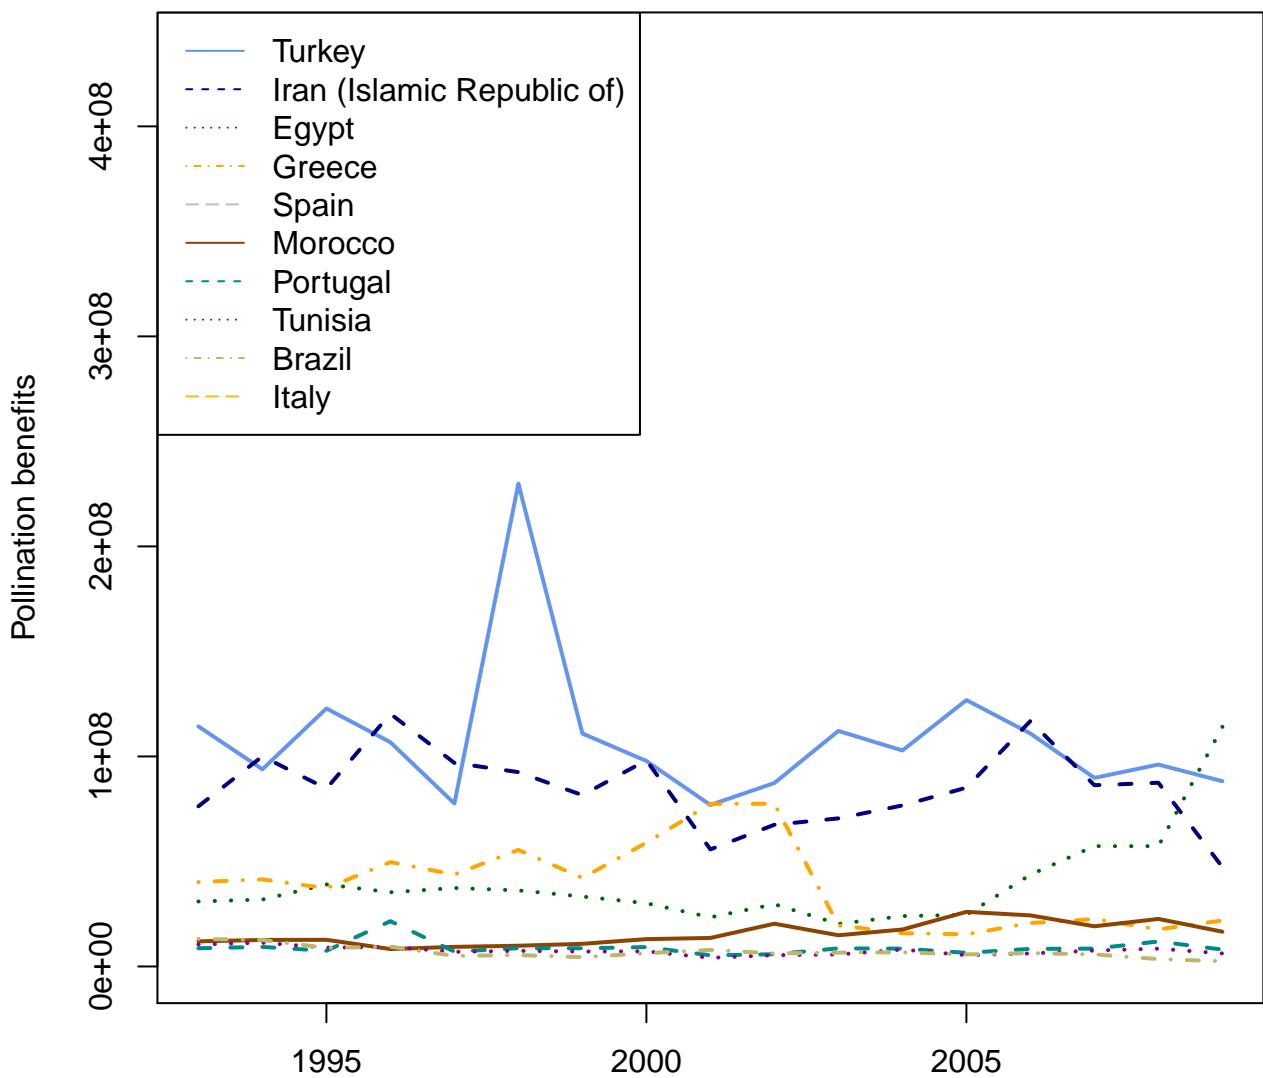

Currants

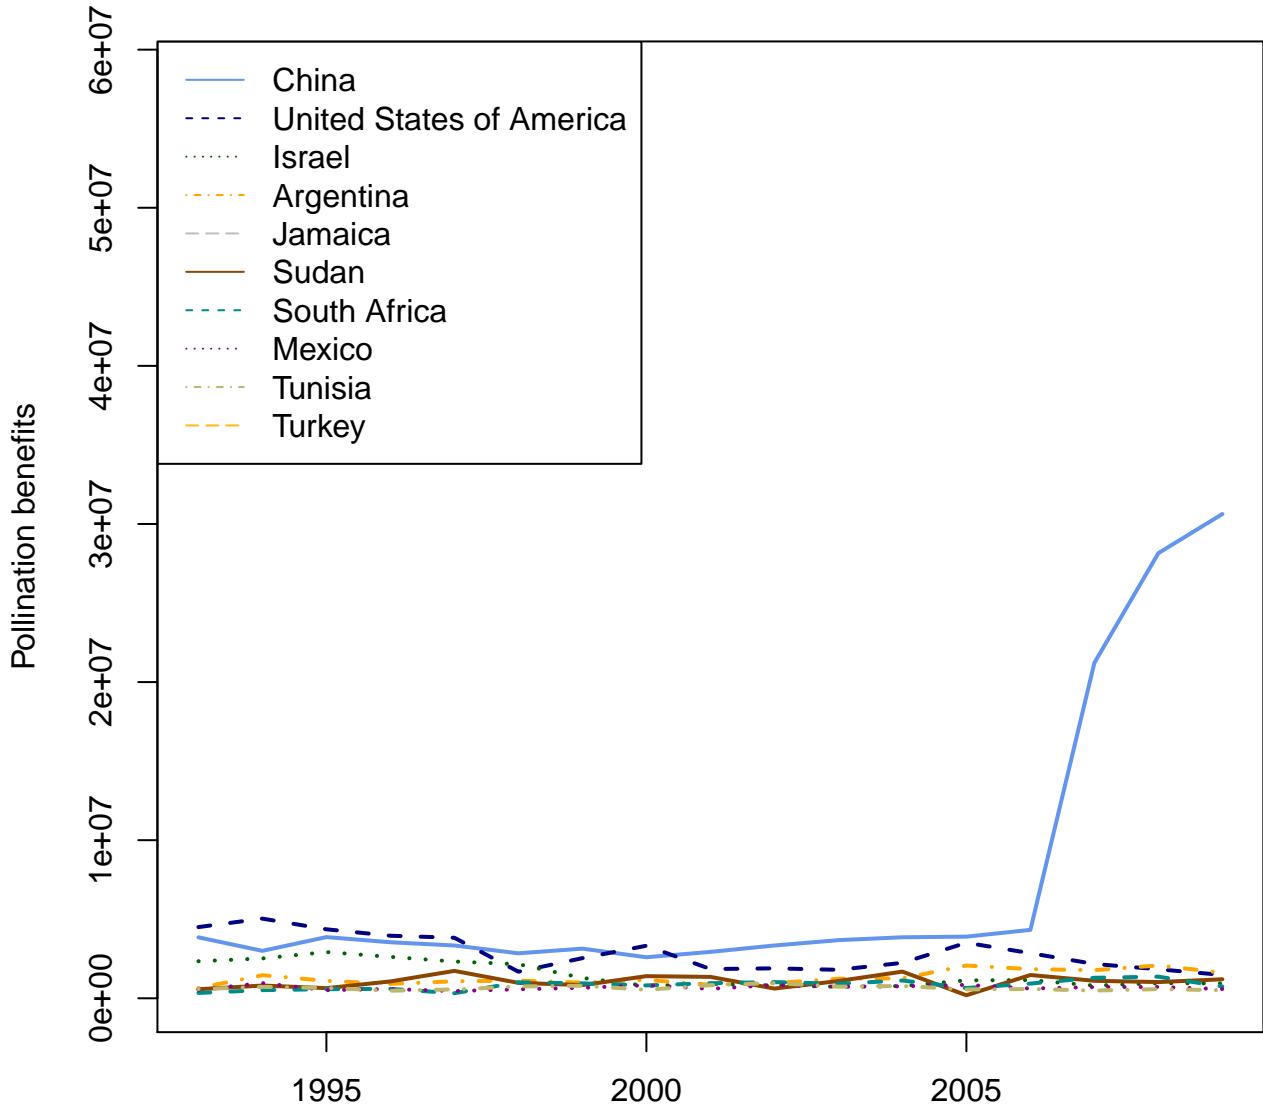

Eggplants (aubergines)

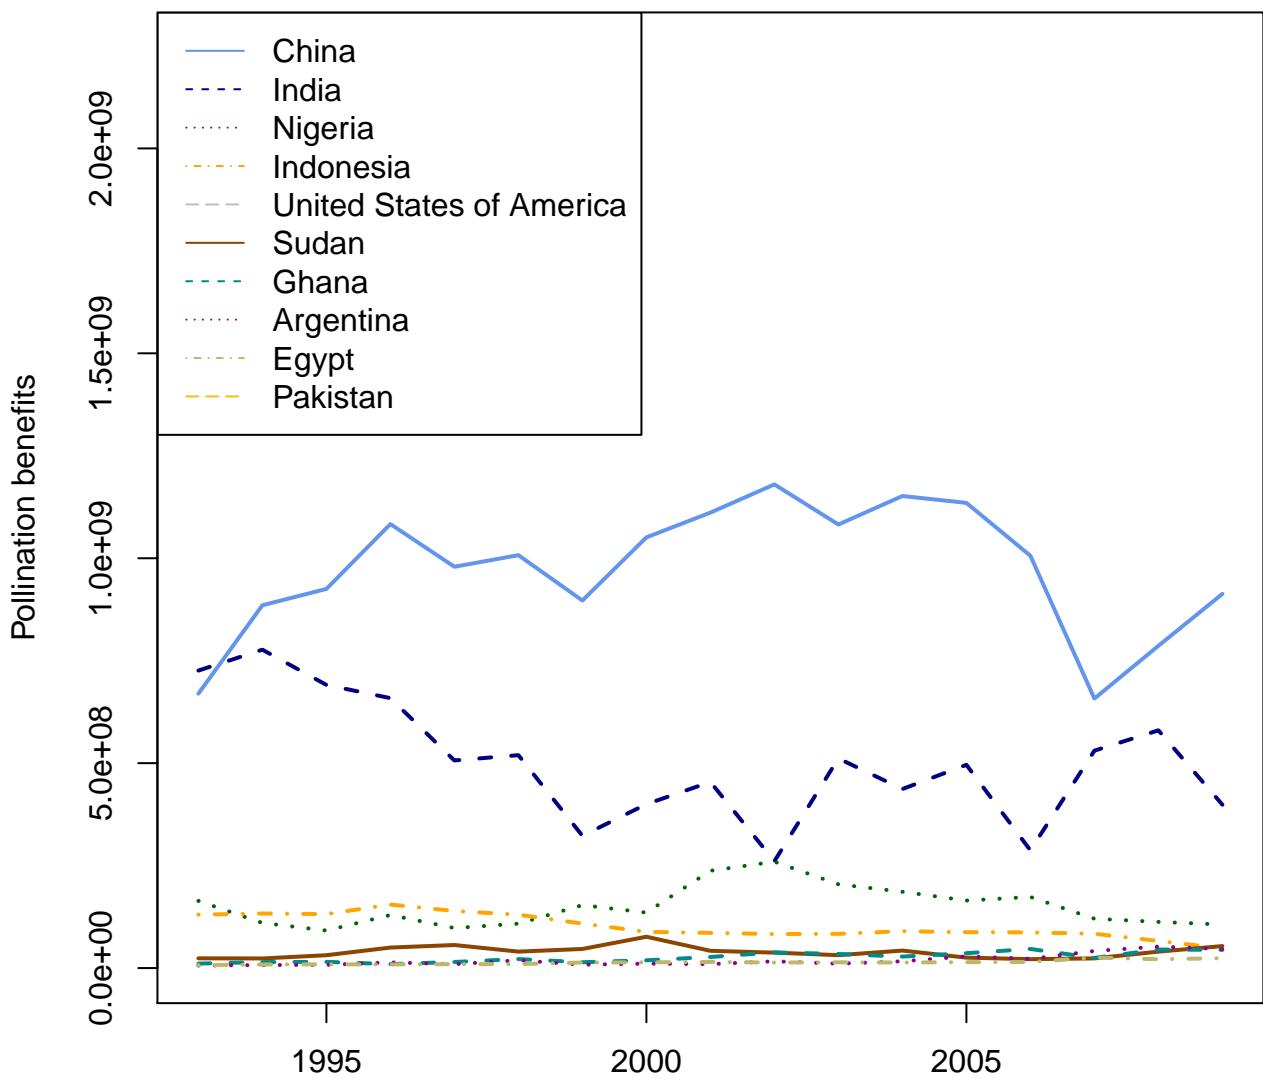

Figs

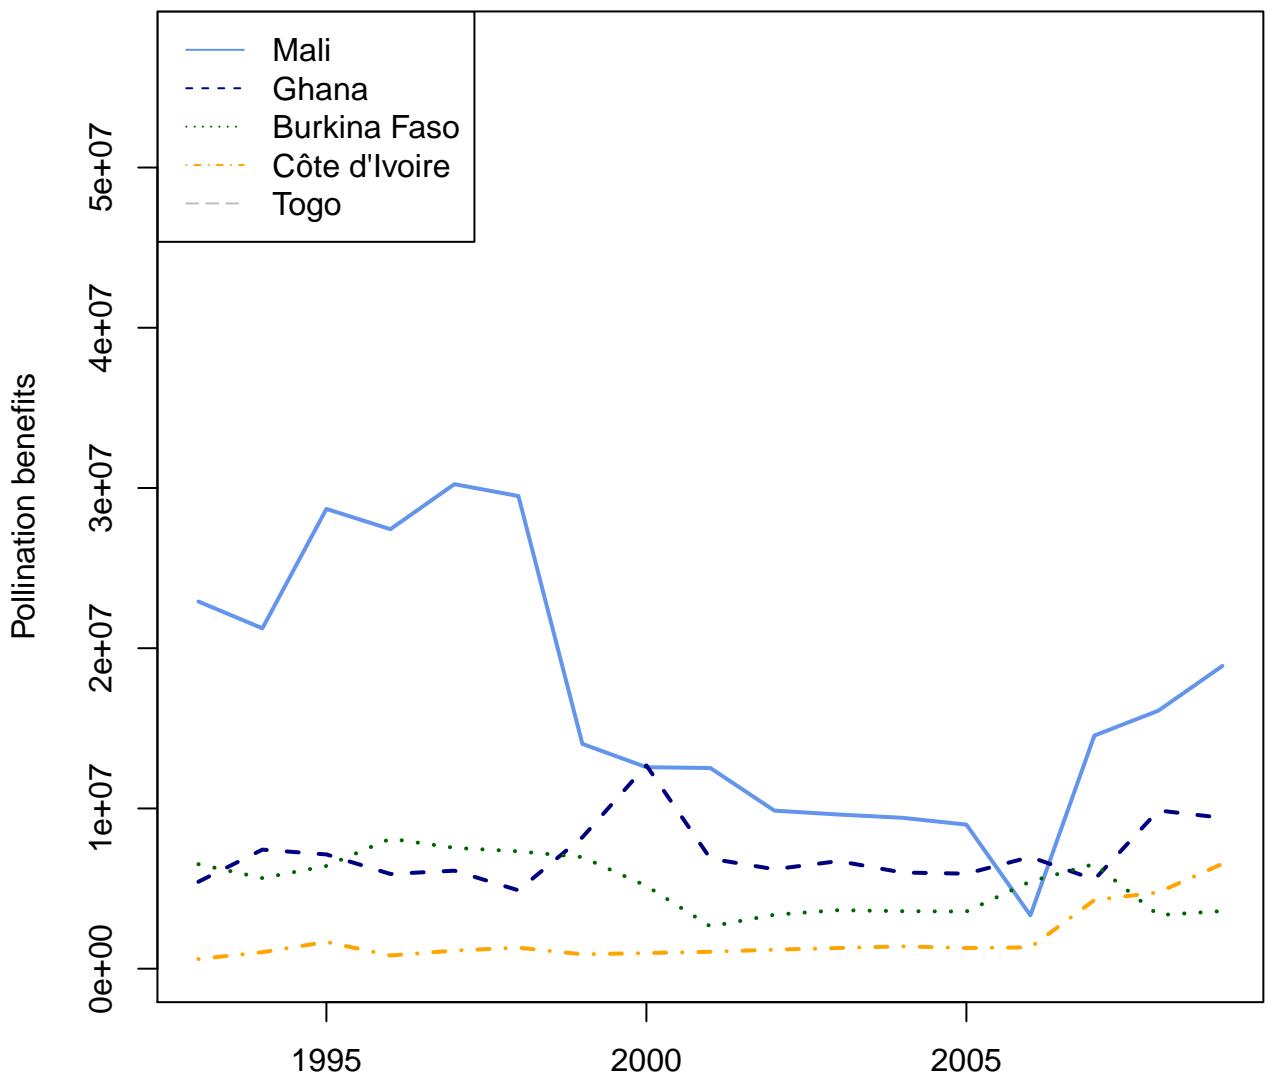

Grapefruit and Pomelo*

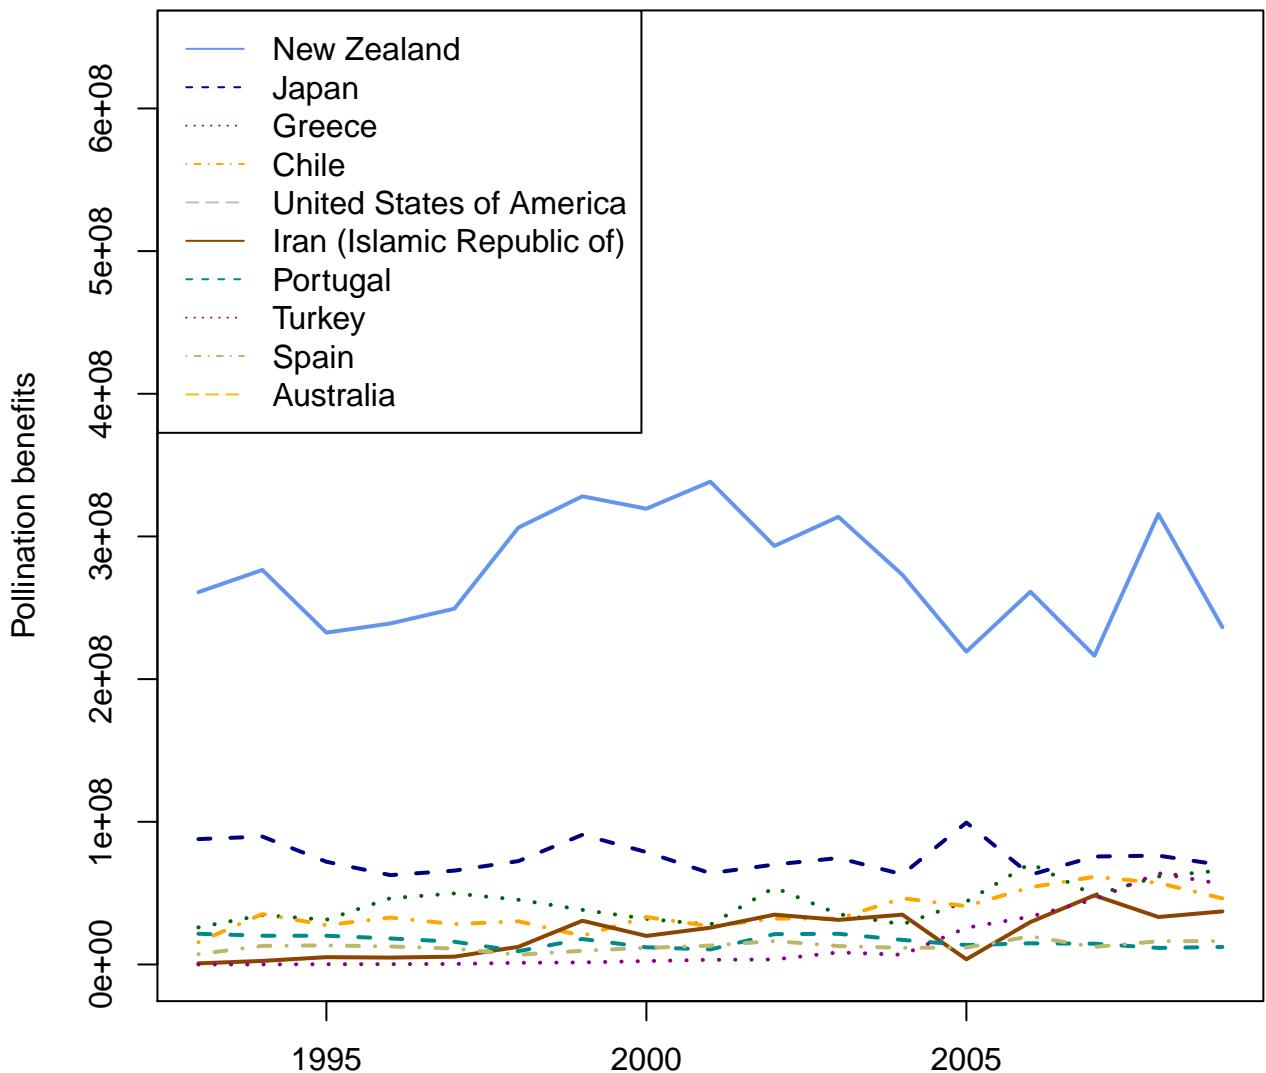

Groundnut

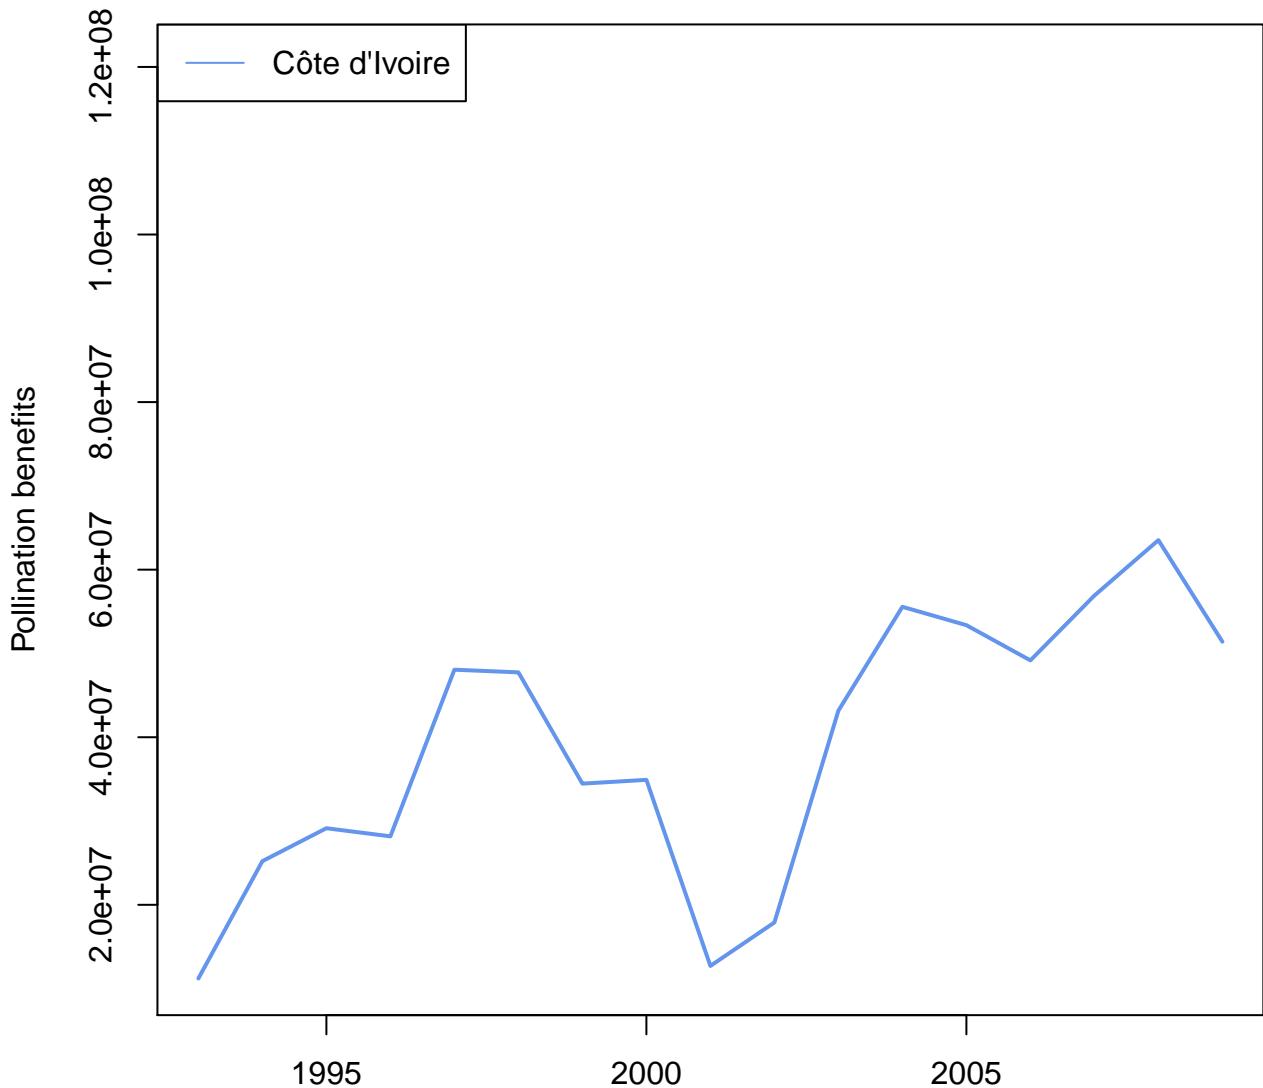

Karite nuts (Sheanuts)

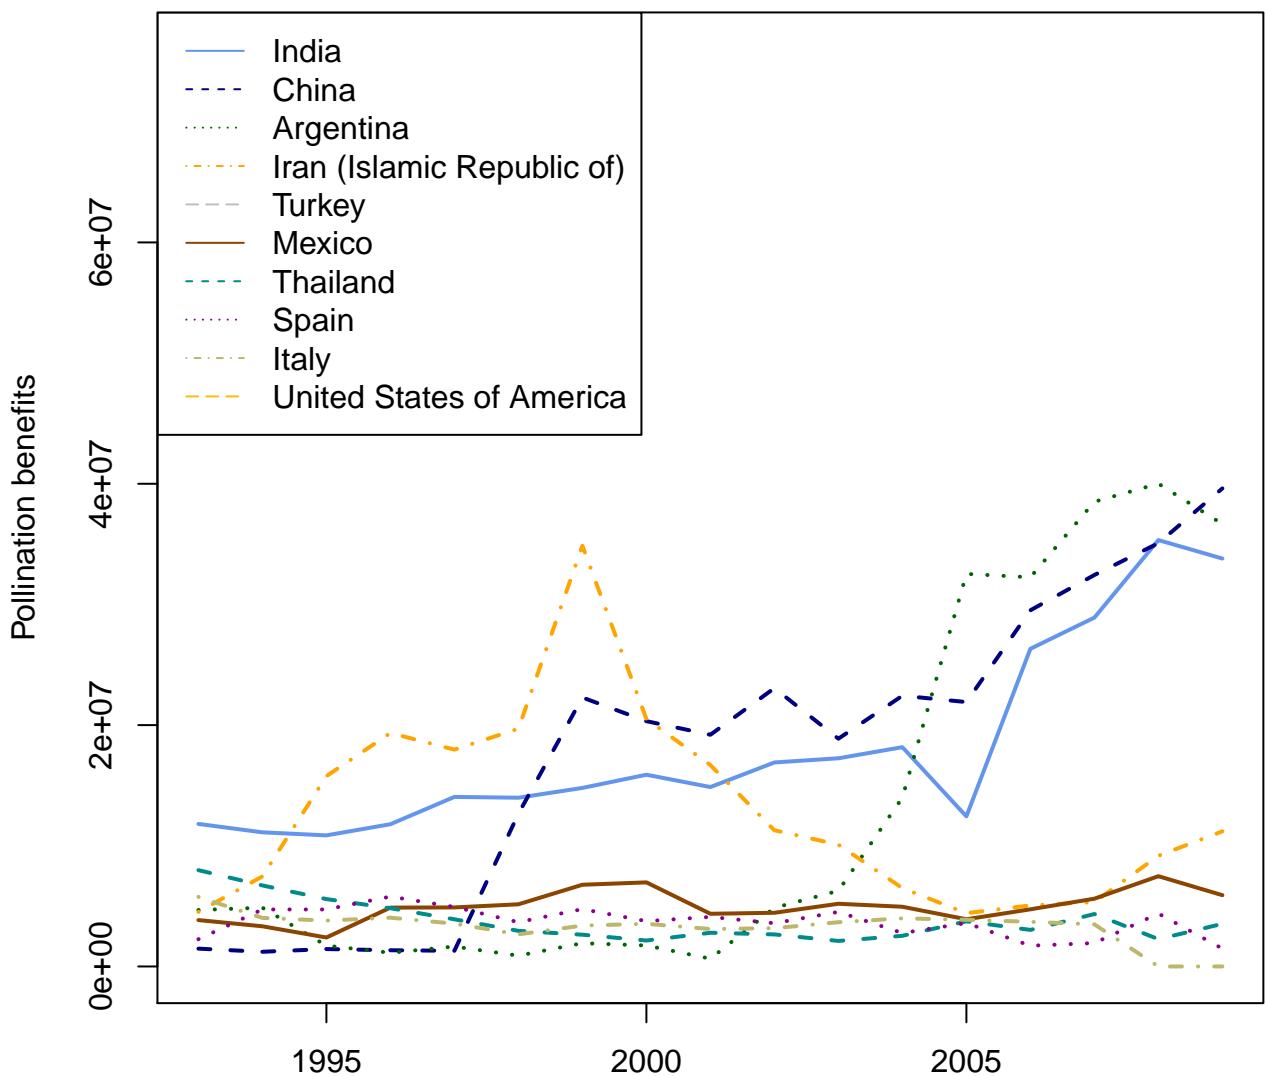

Kiwi

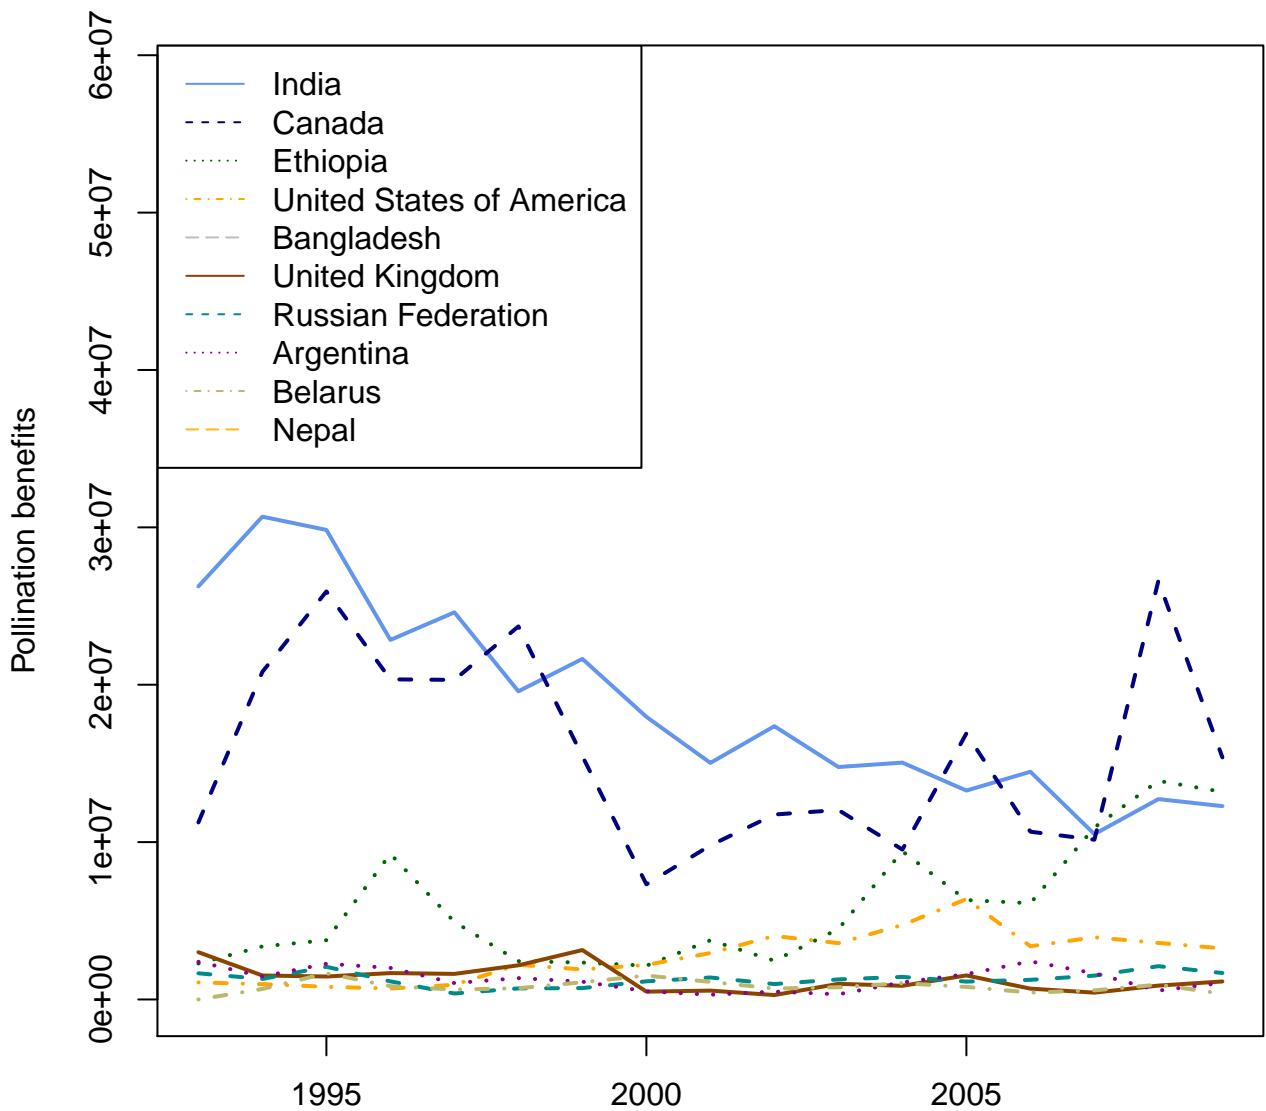

Kolanut

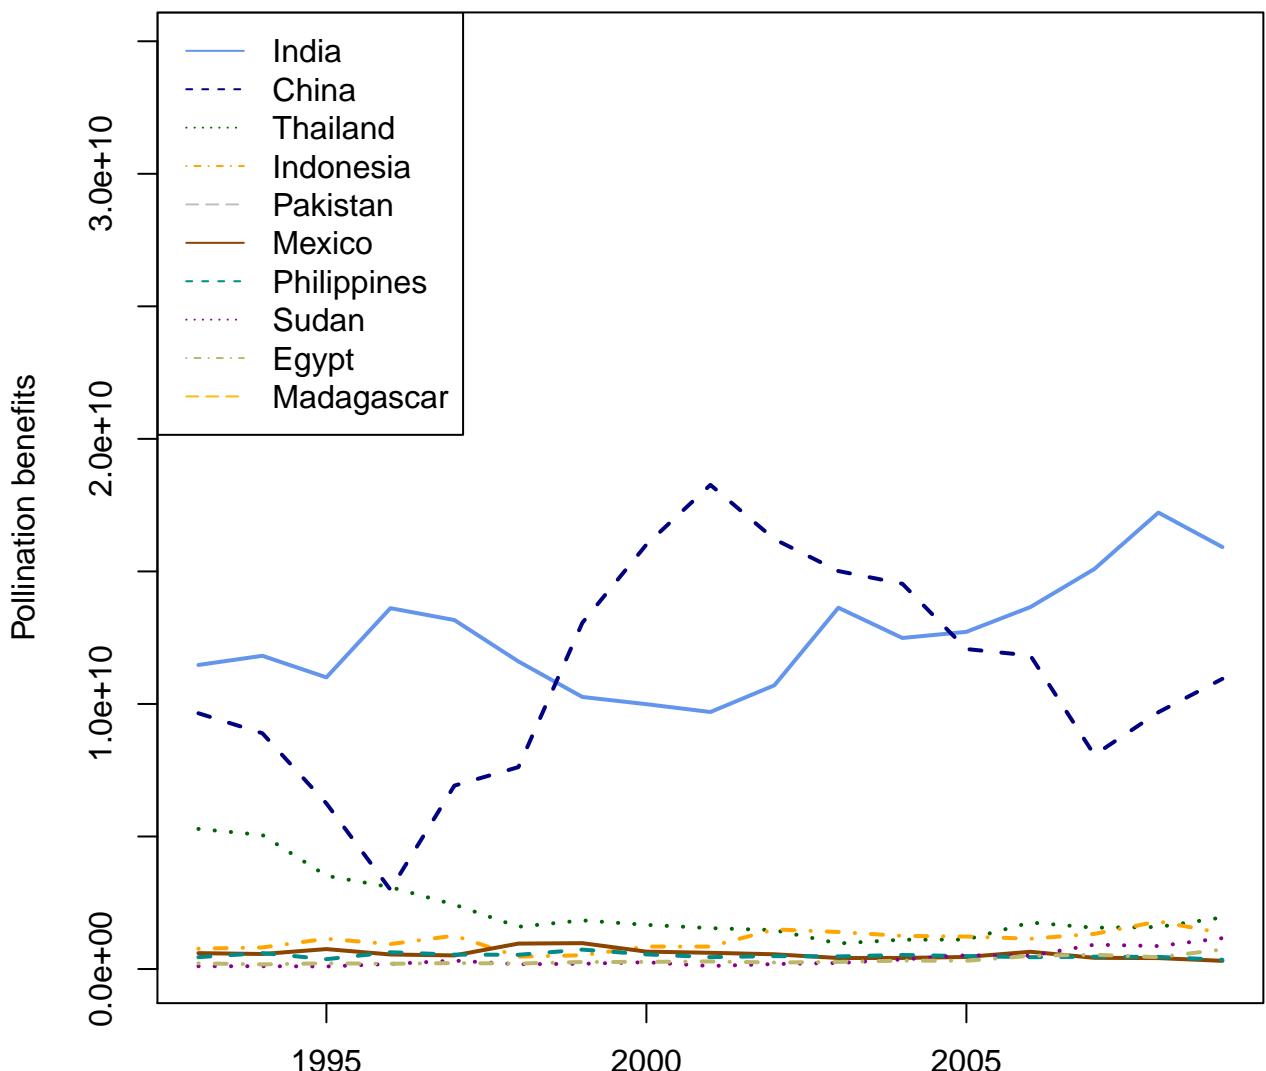

Lemons and Limes*

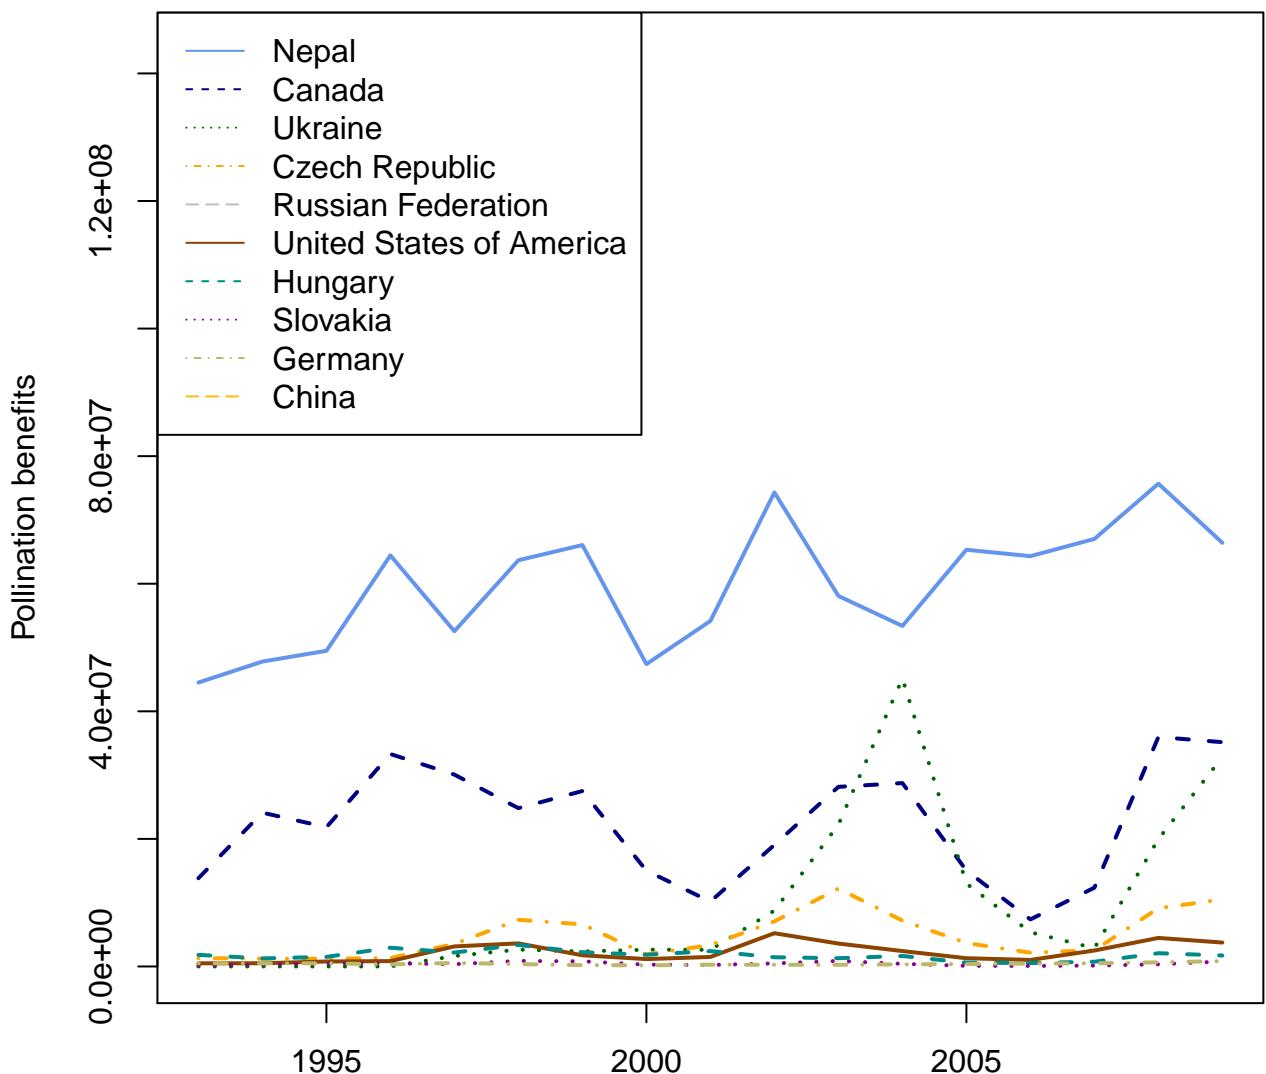

Linseed (Flaxseed)

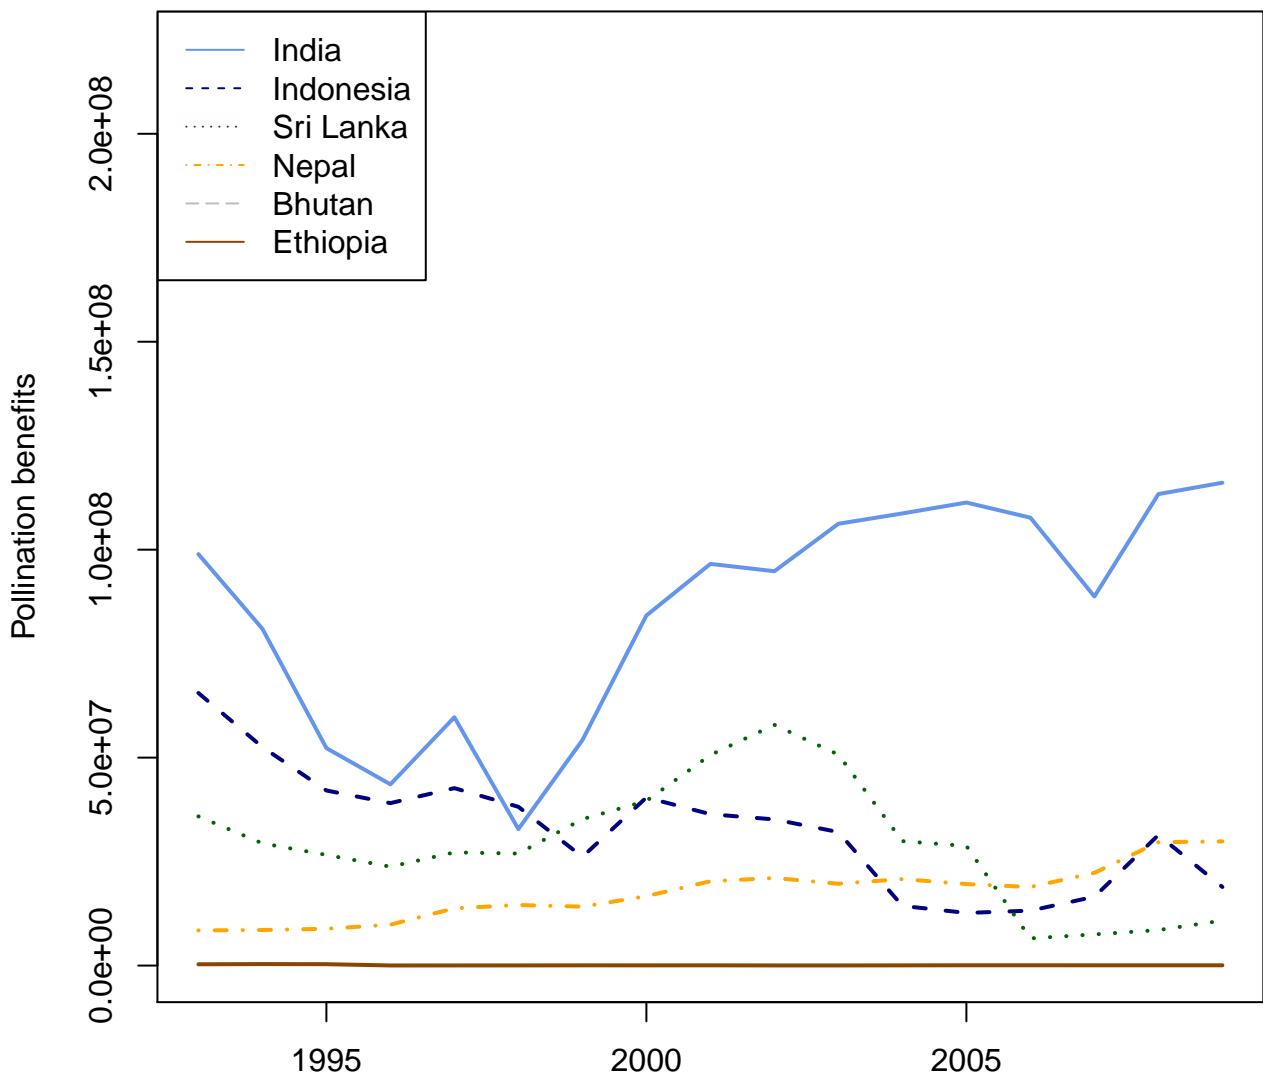

Mangoes

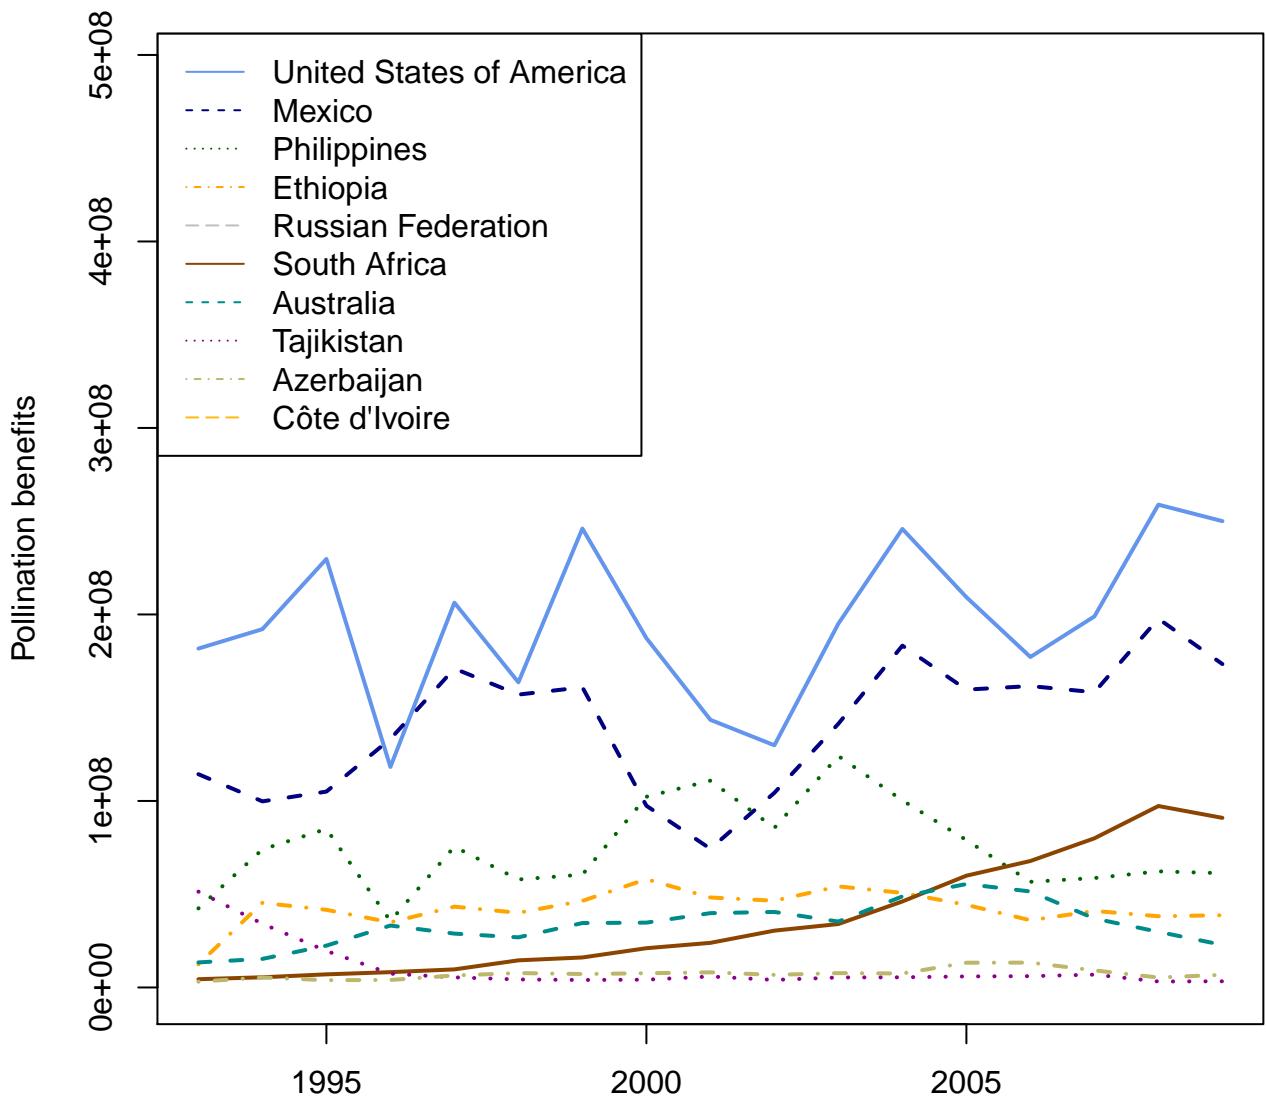

Mustard seeds

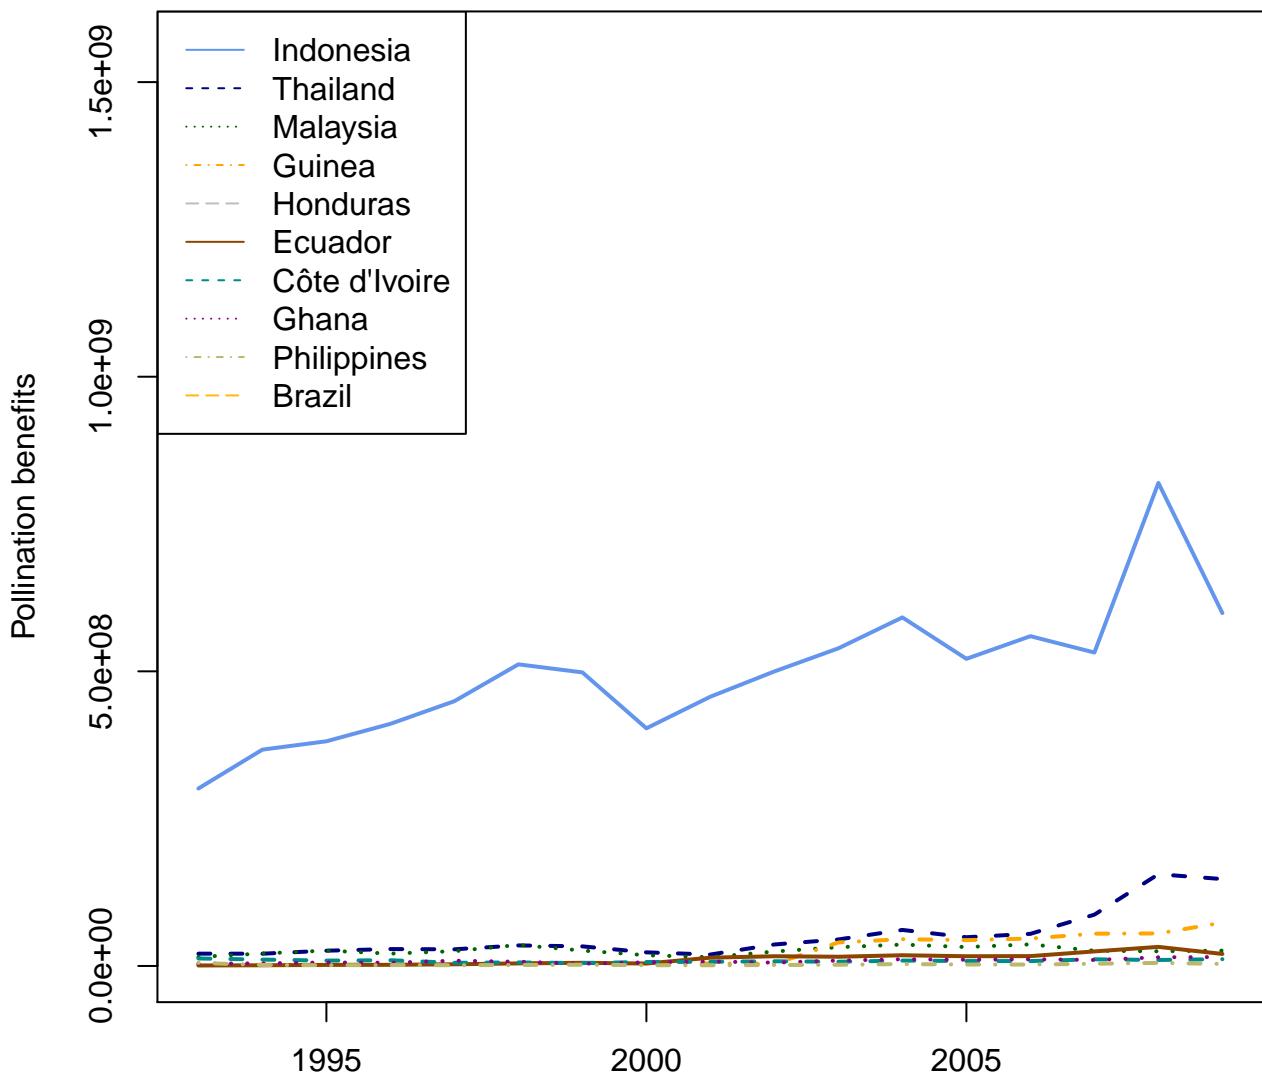

Nutmeg, mace and cardamoms

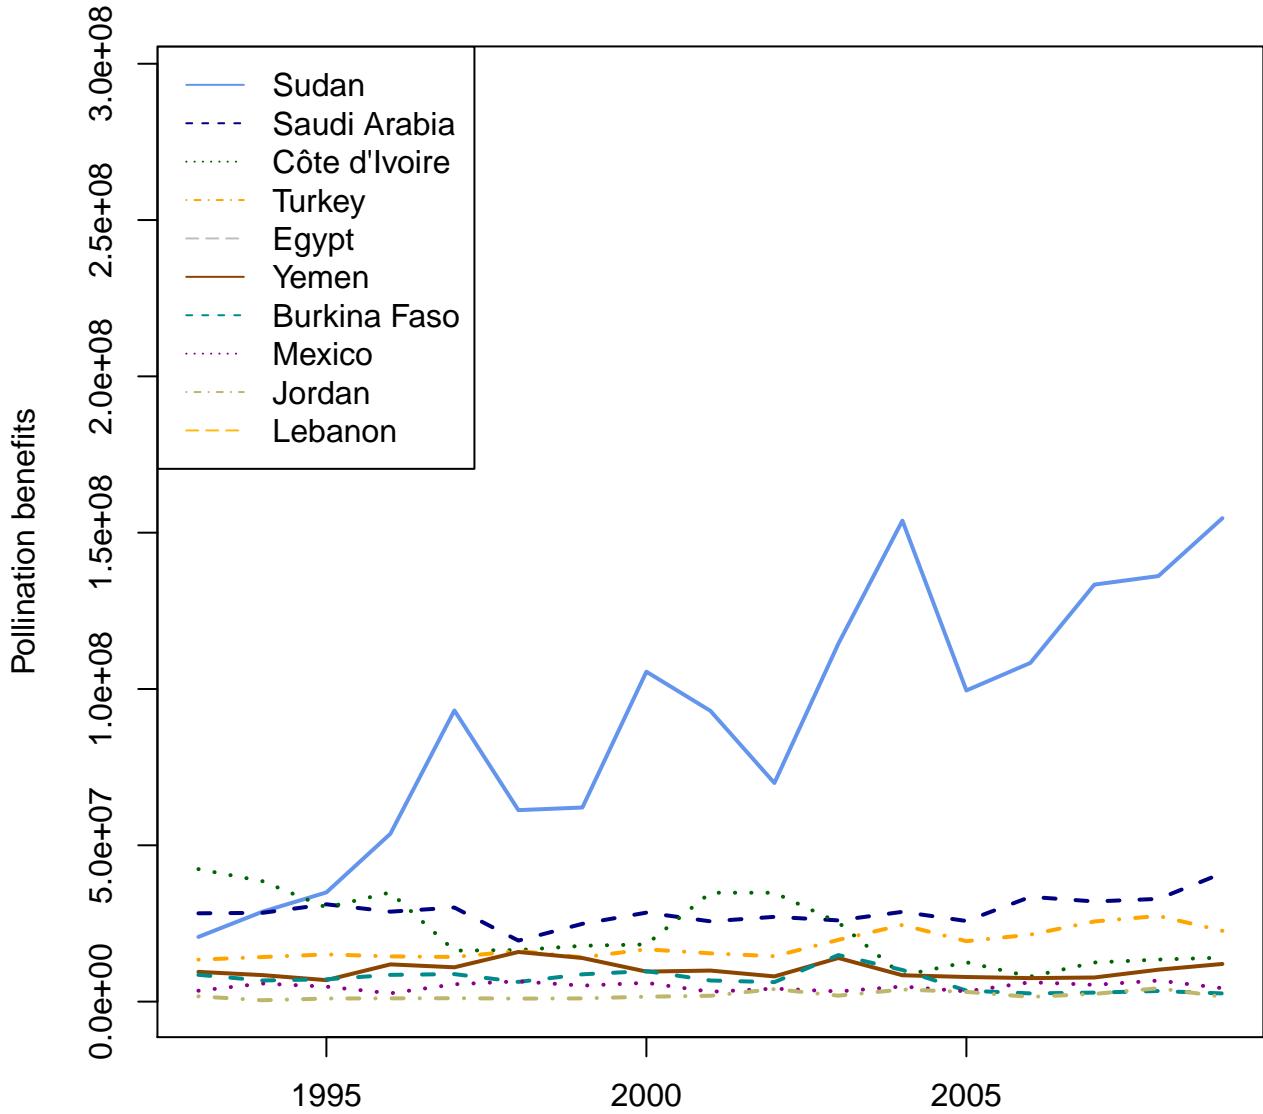

Nuts NES

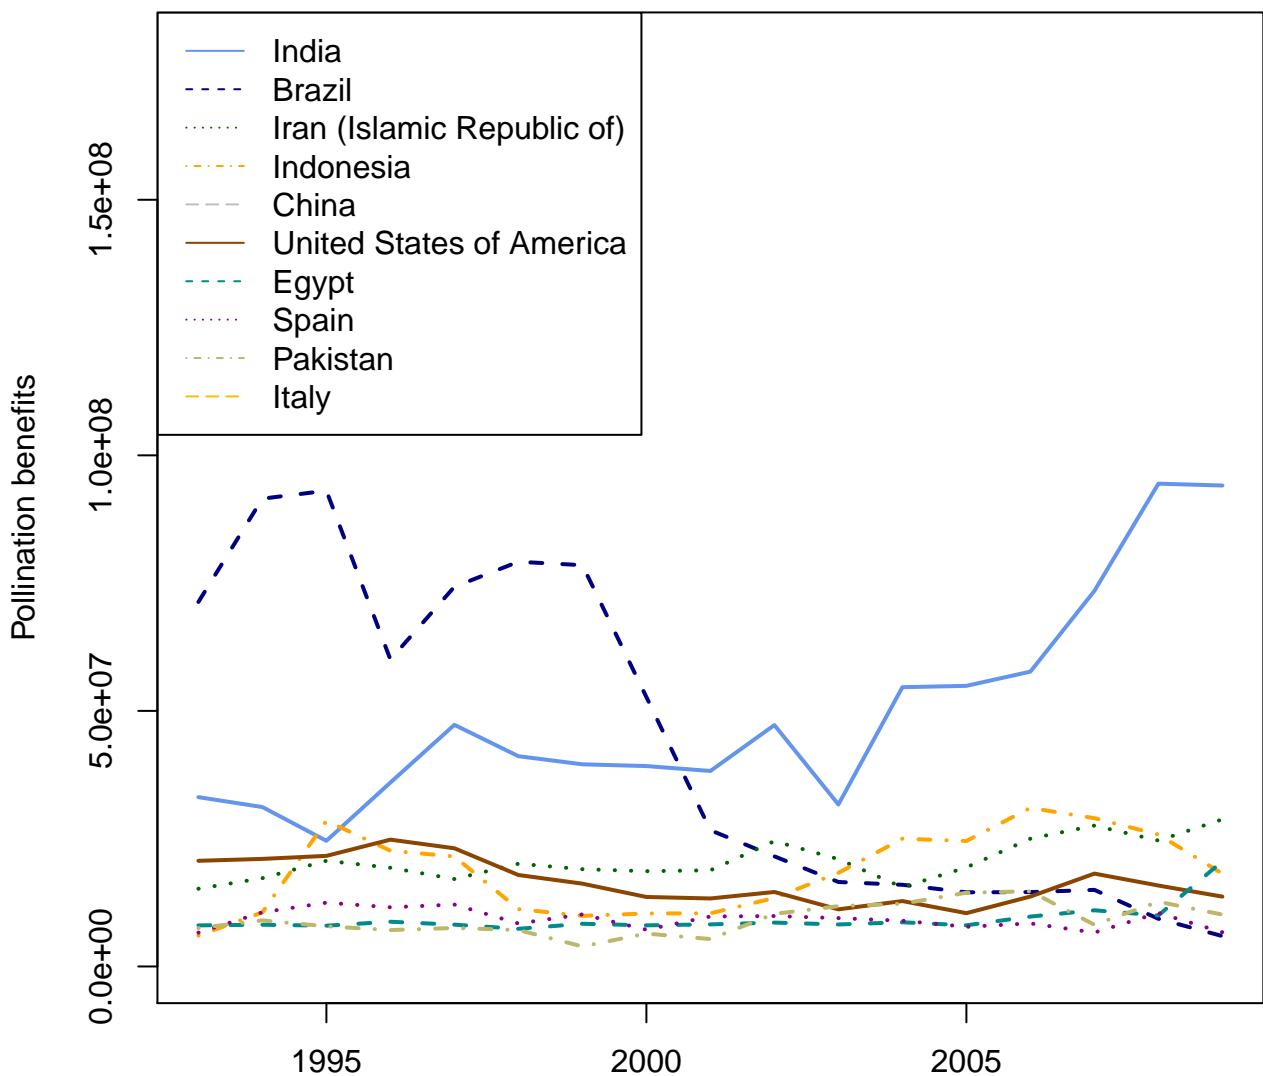

Oil palm

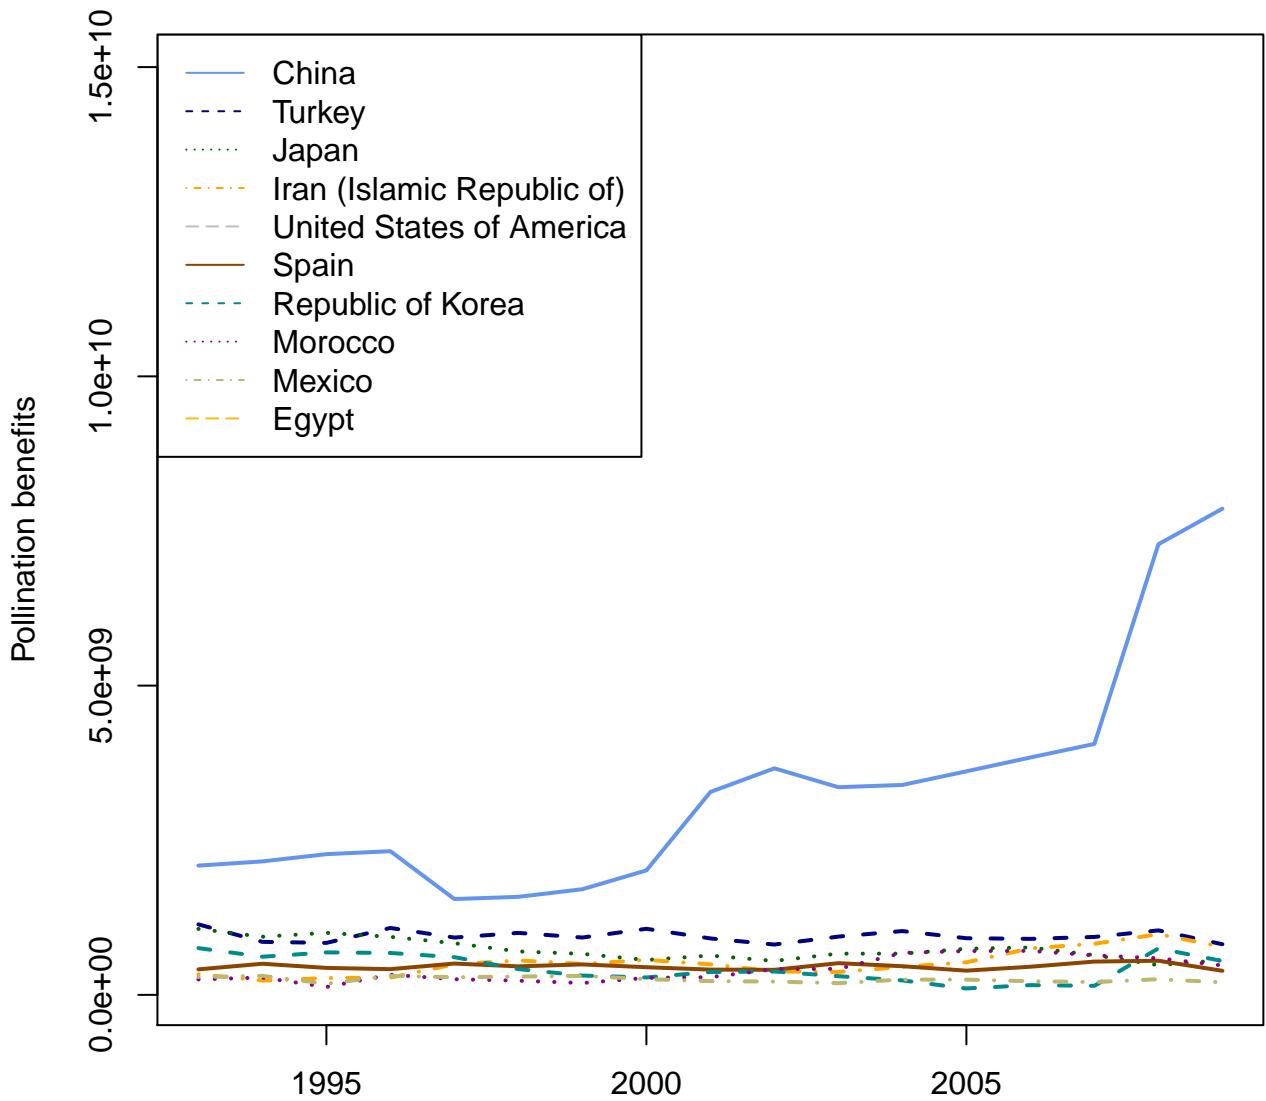

Okra

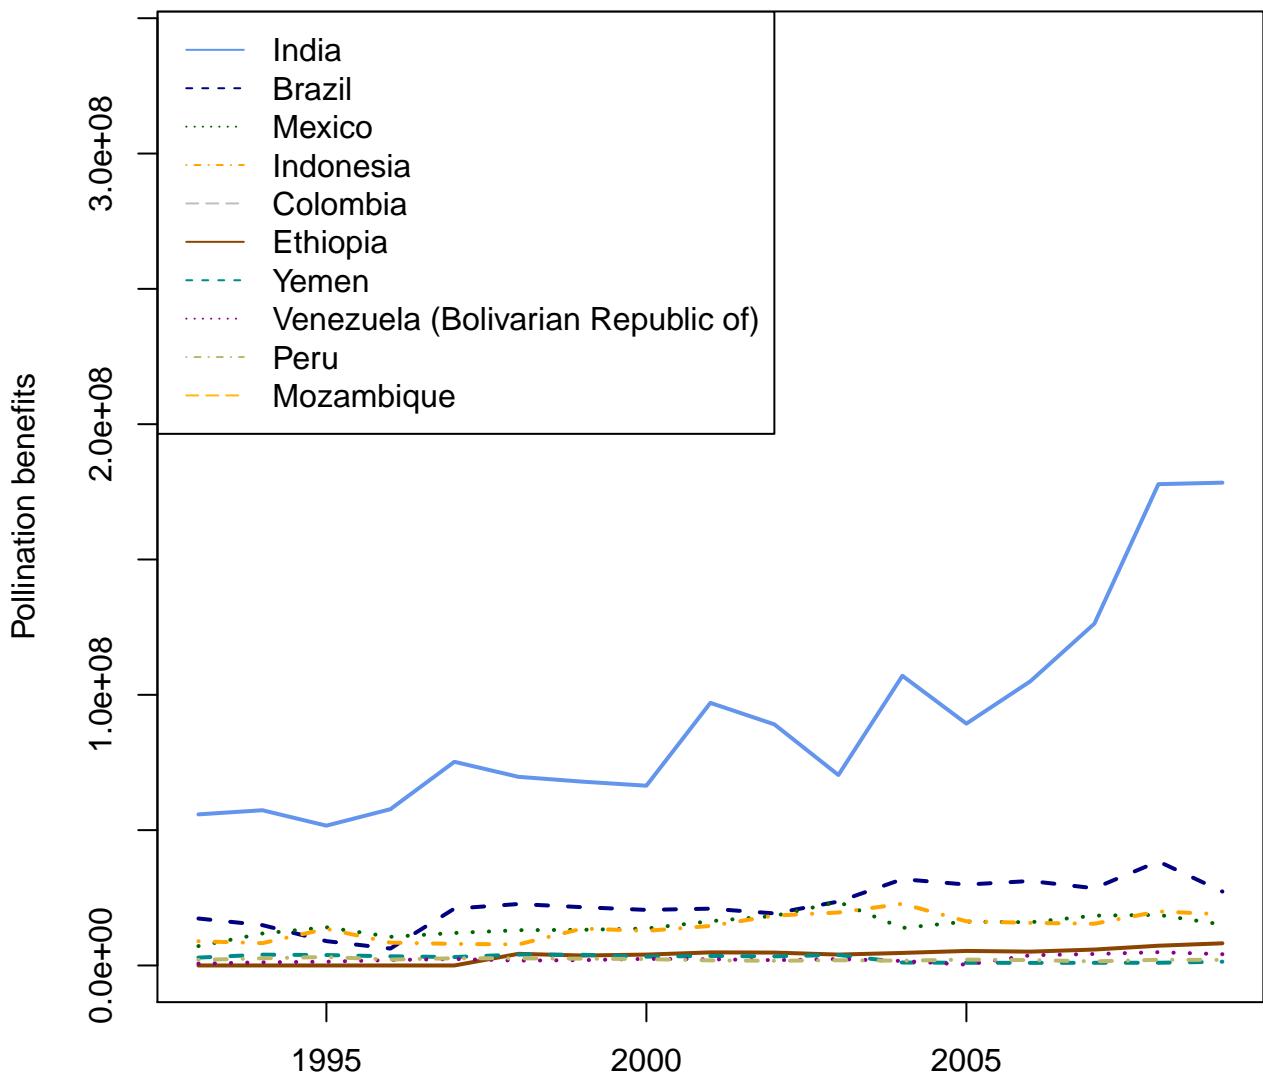

Oranges*

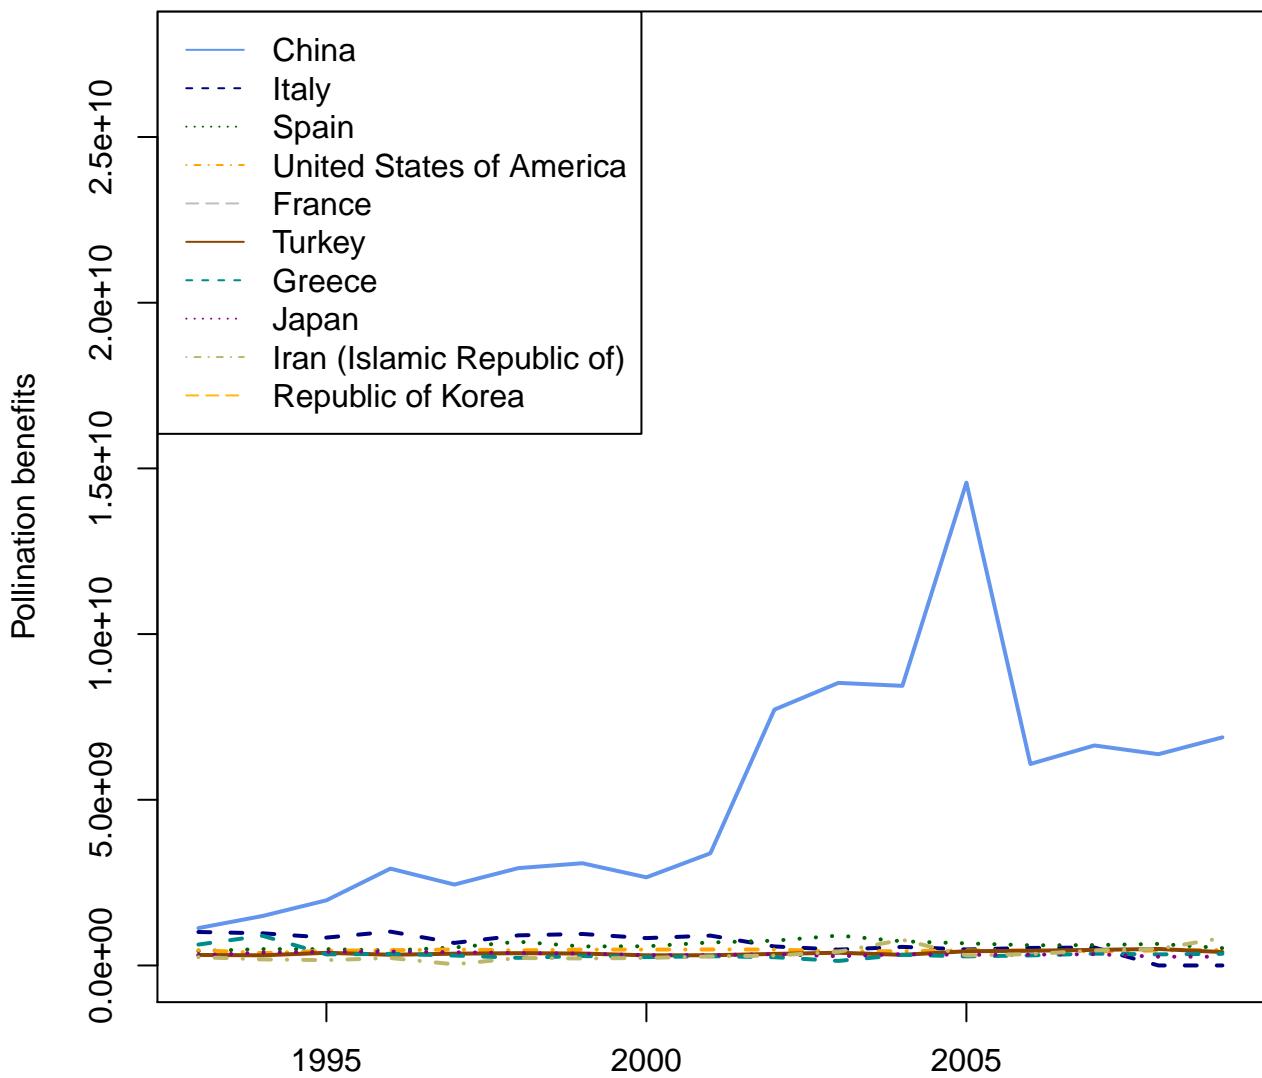

Other melons (inc.cantaloupes)

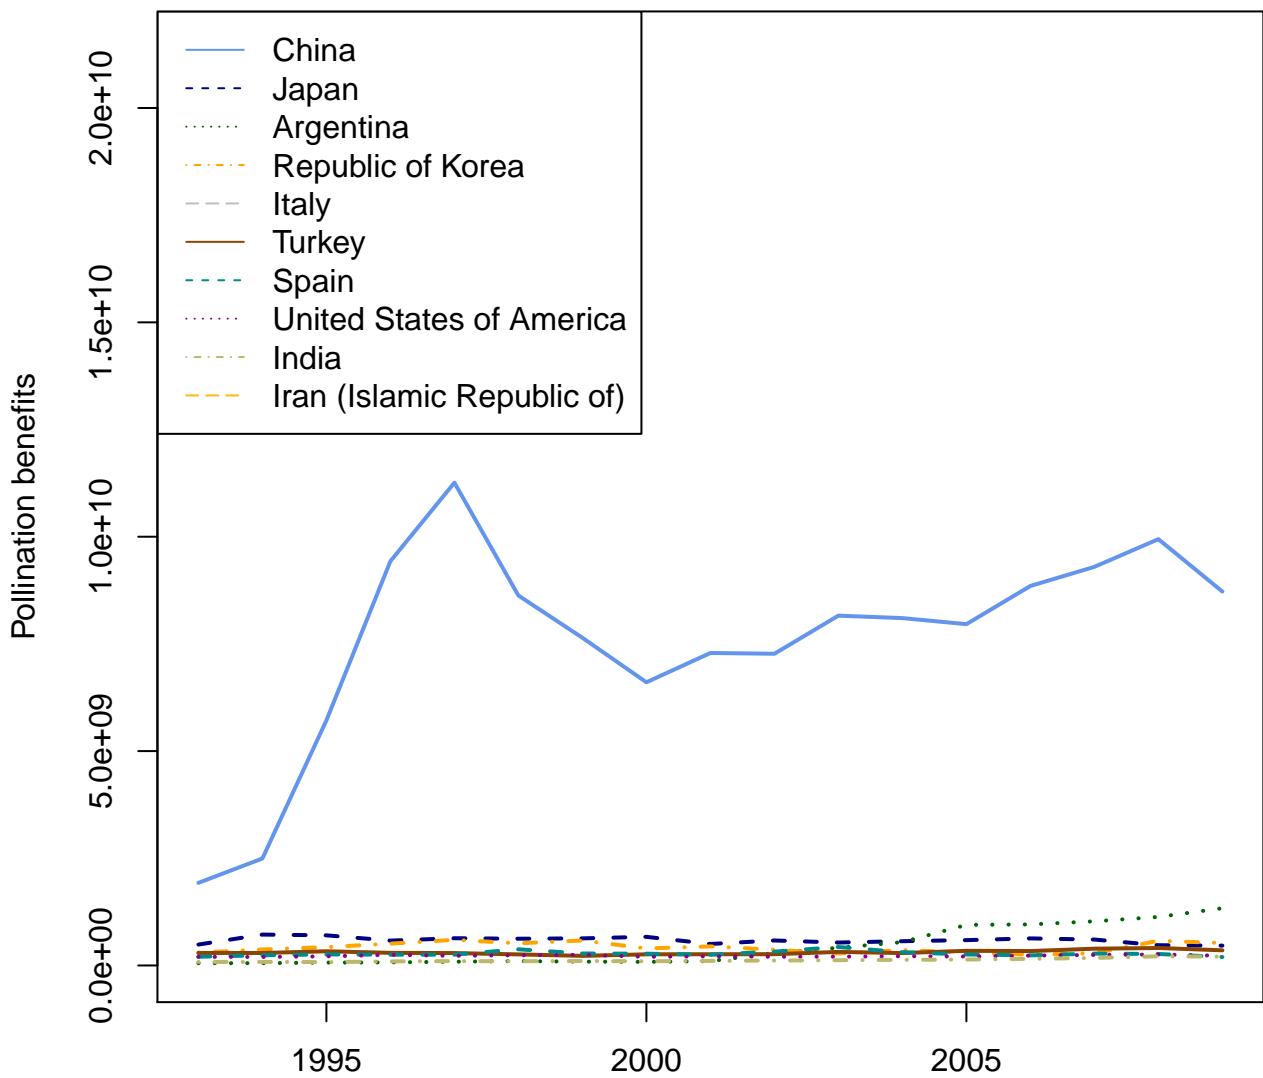

Papayas

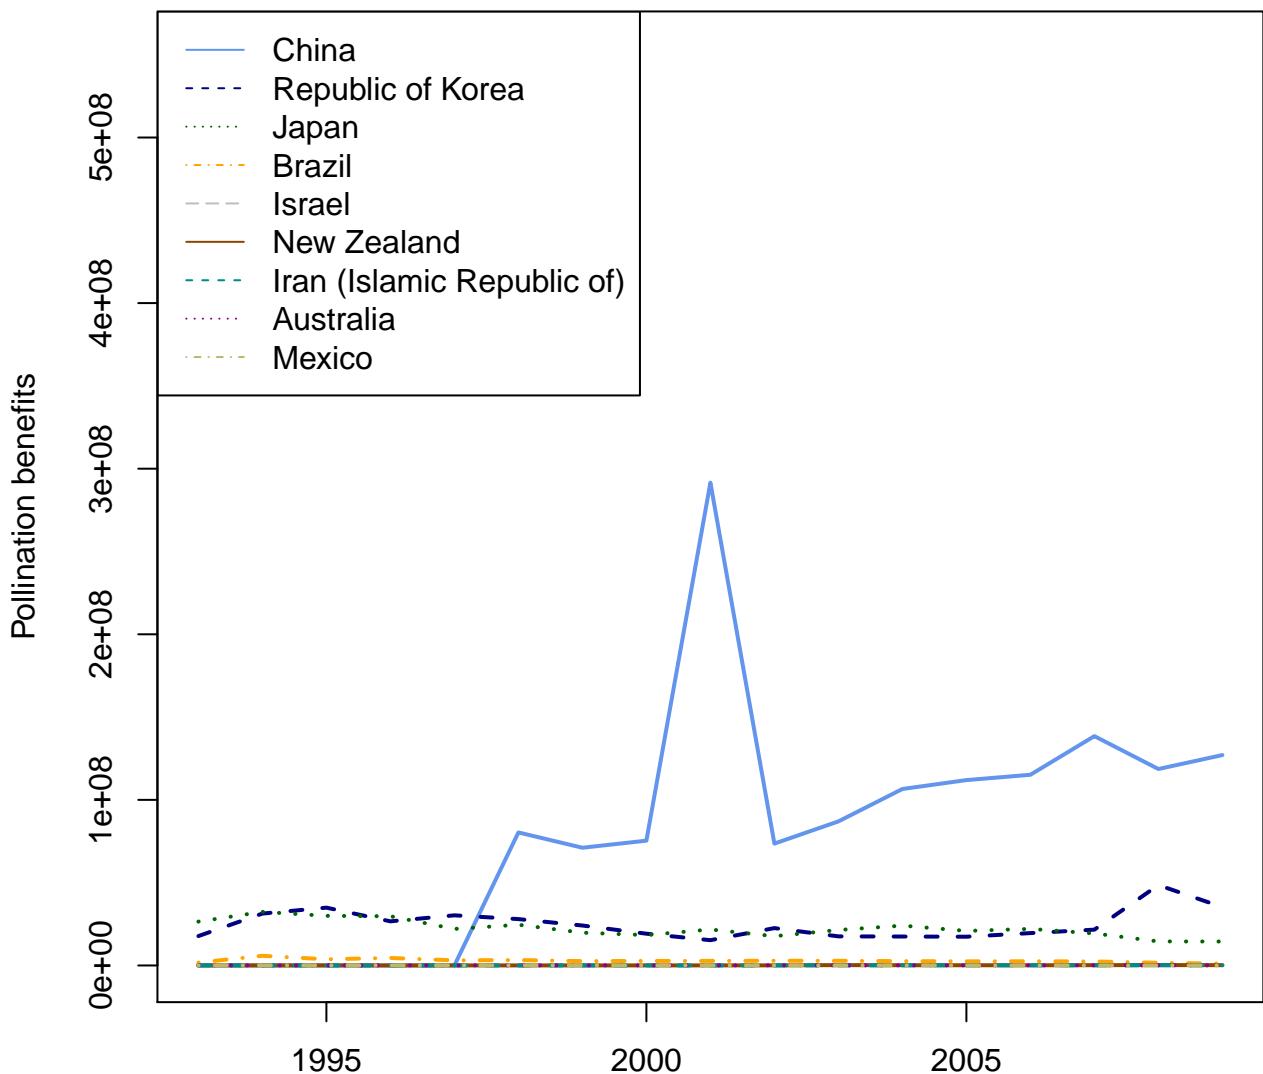

Peaches and Nectarines

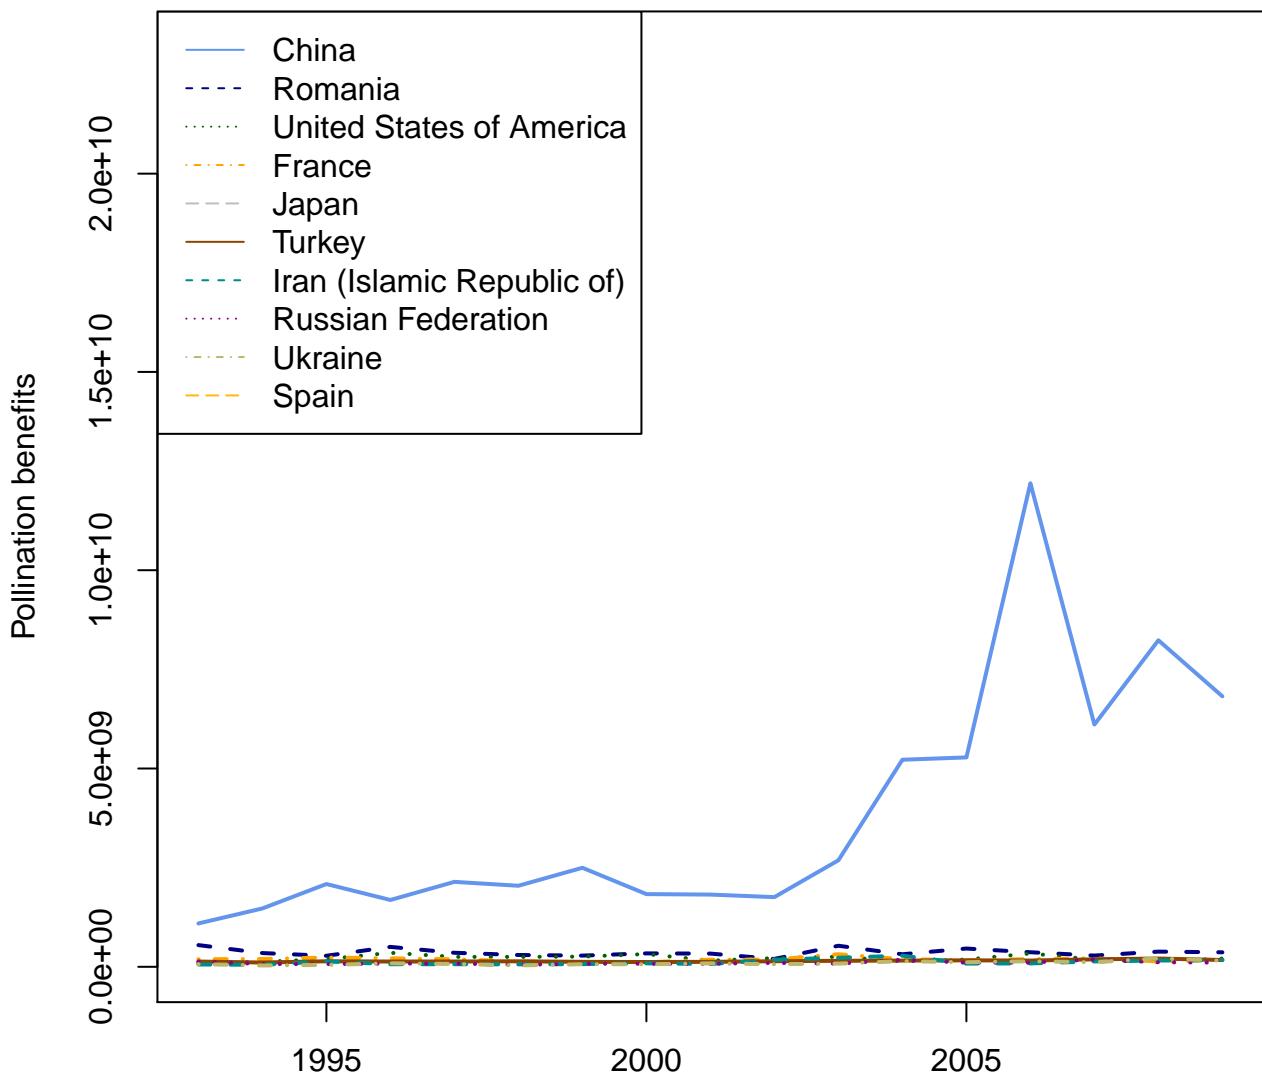

Pears

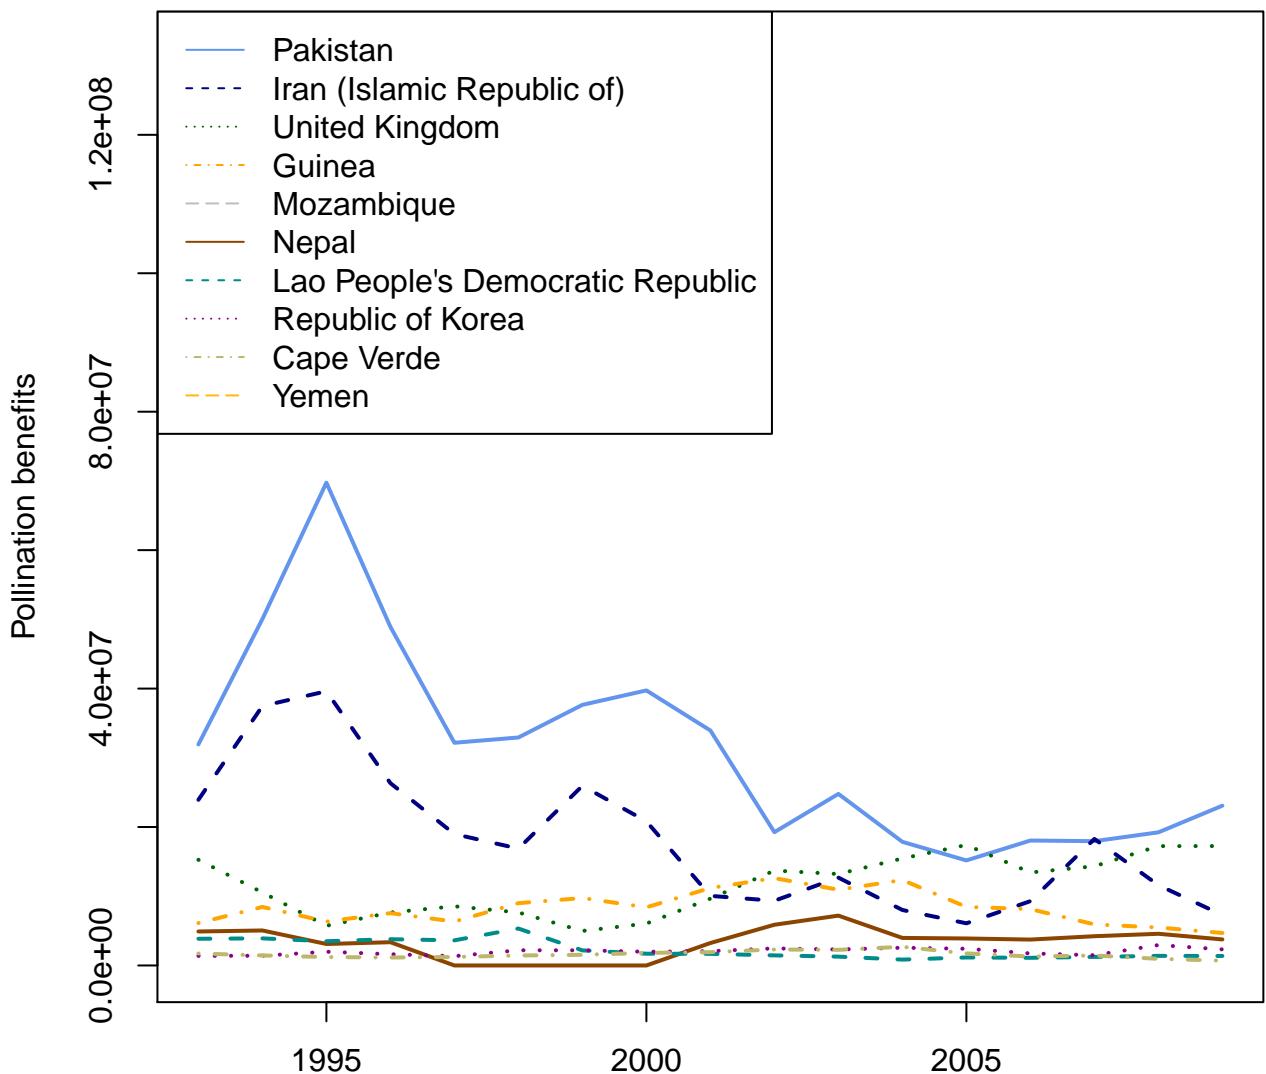

Persimmons

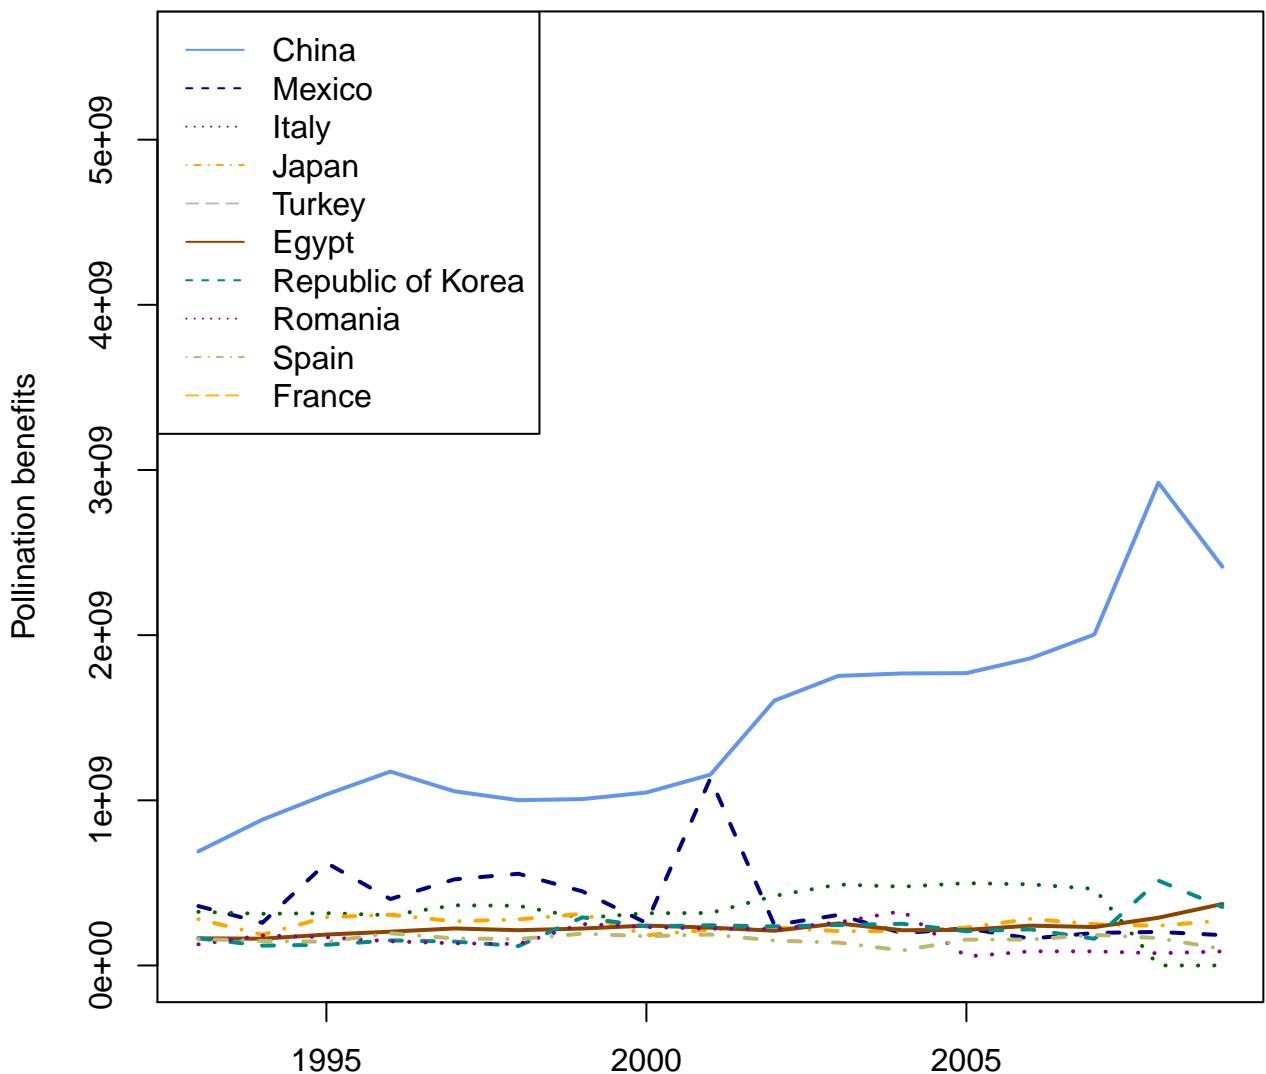

Plums

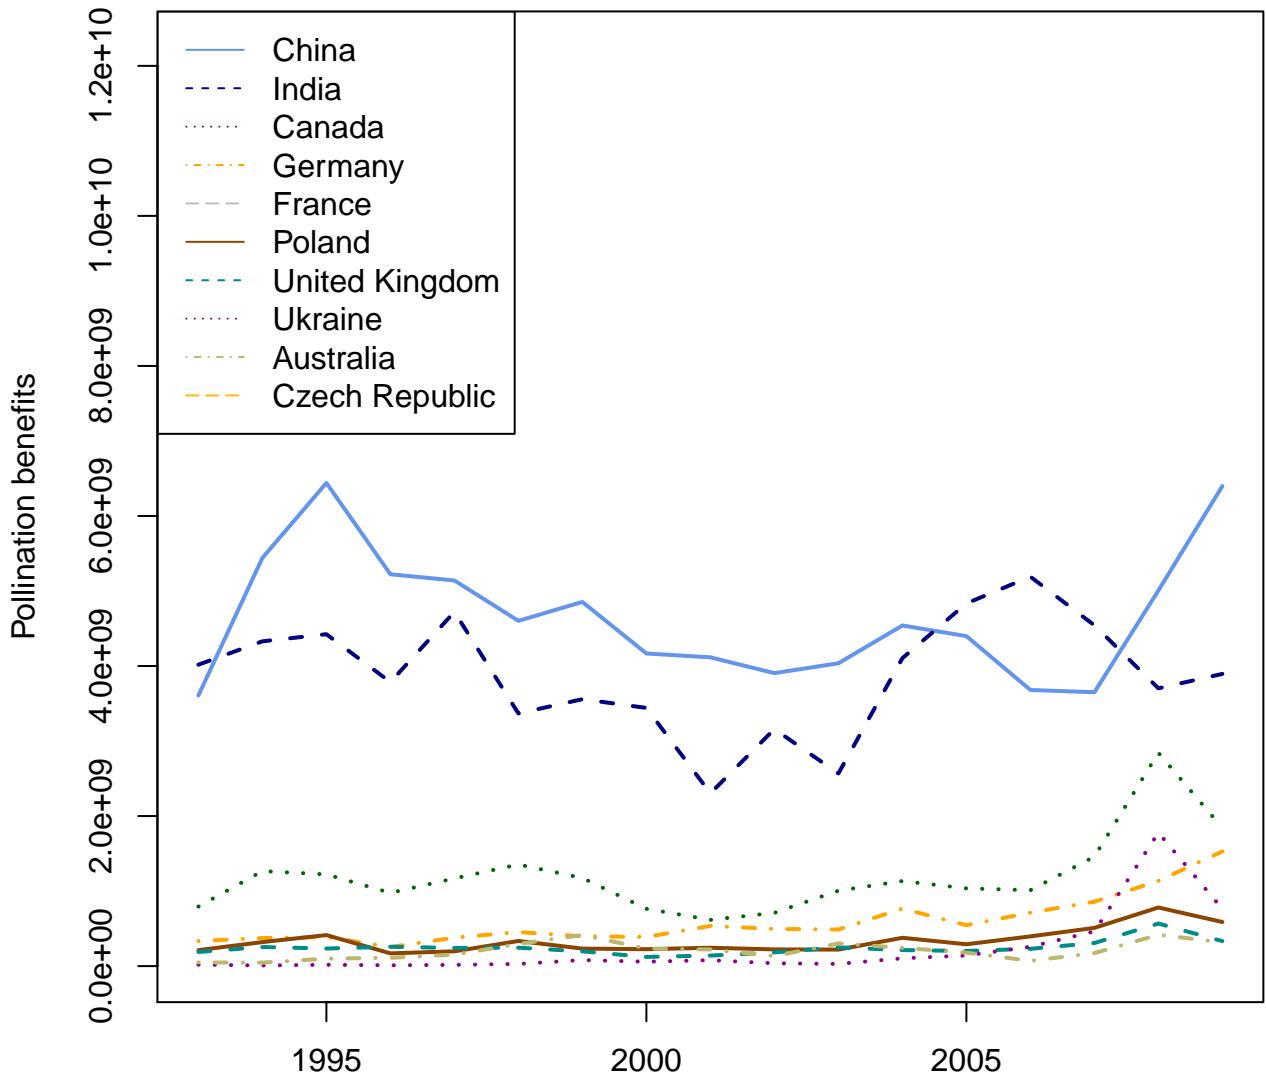

Pulses NES

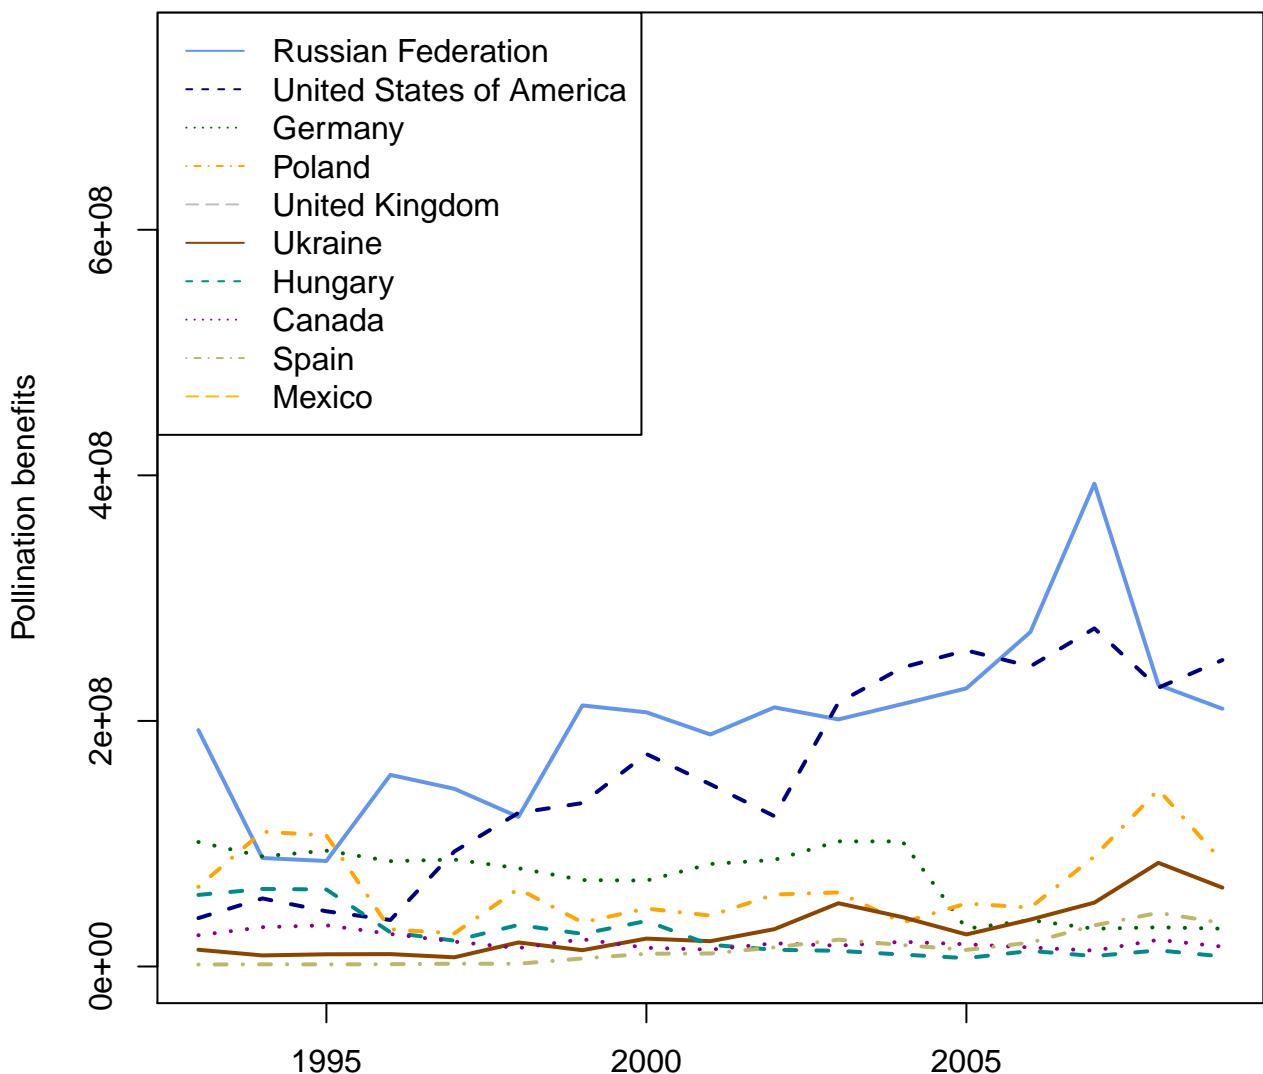

Pumpkins, squash and gourds

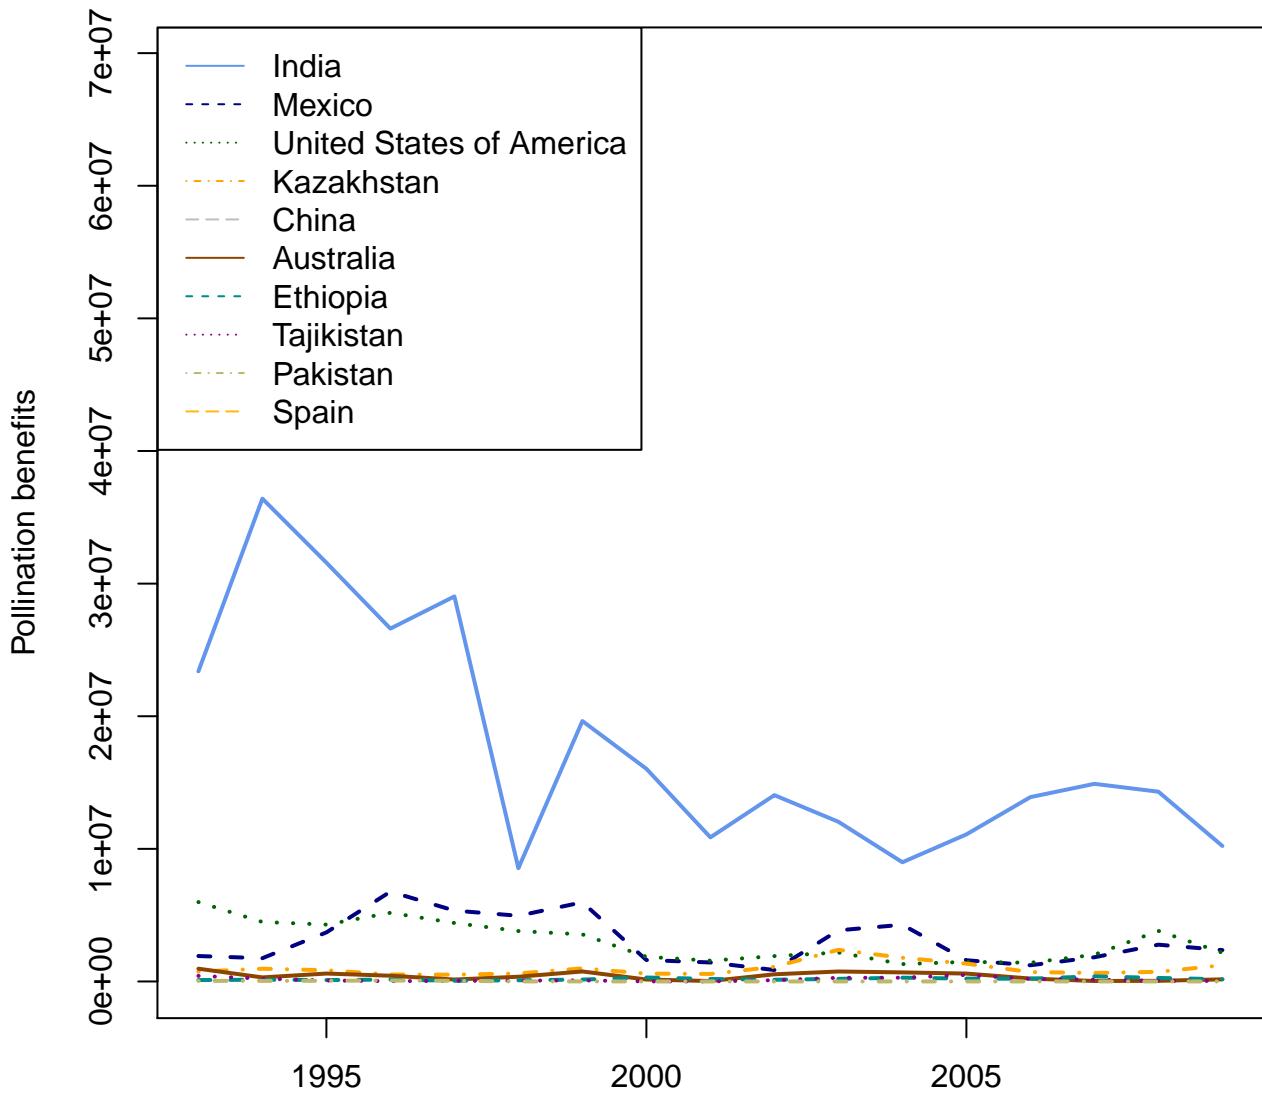

Rapeseed and Canola (Canadian oil, low acid)

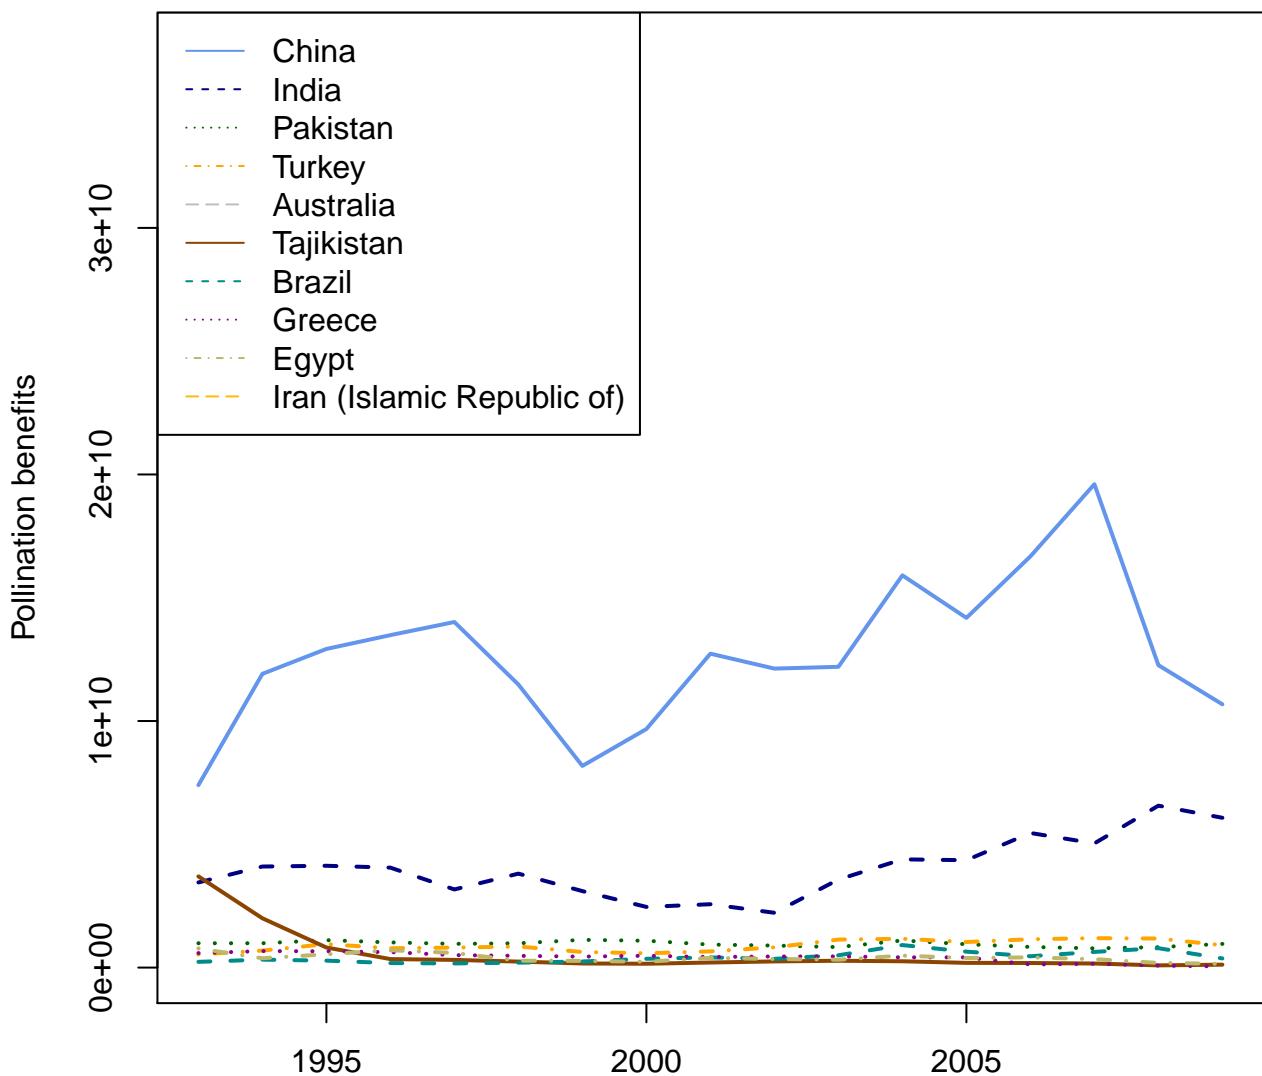

Raspberries

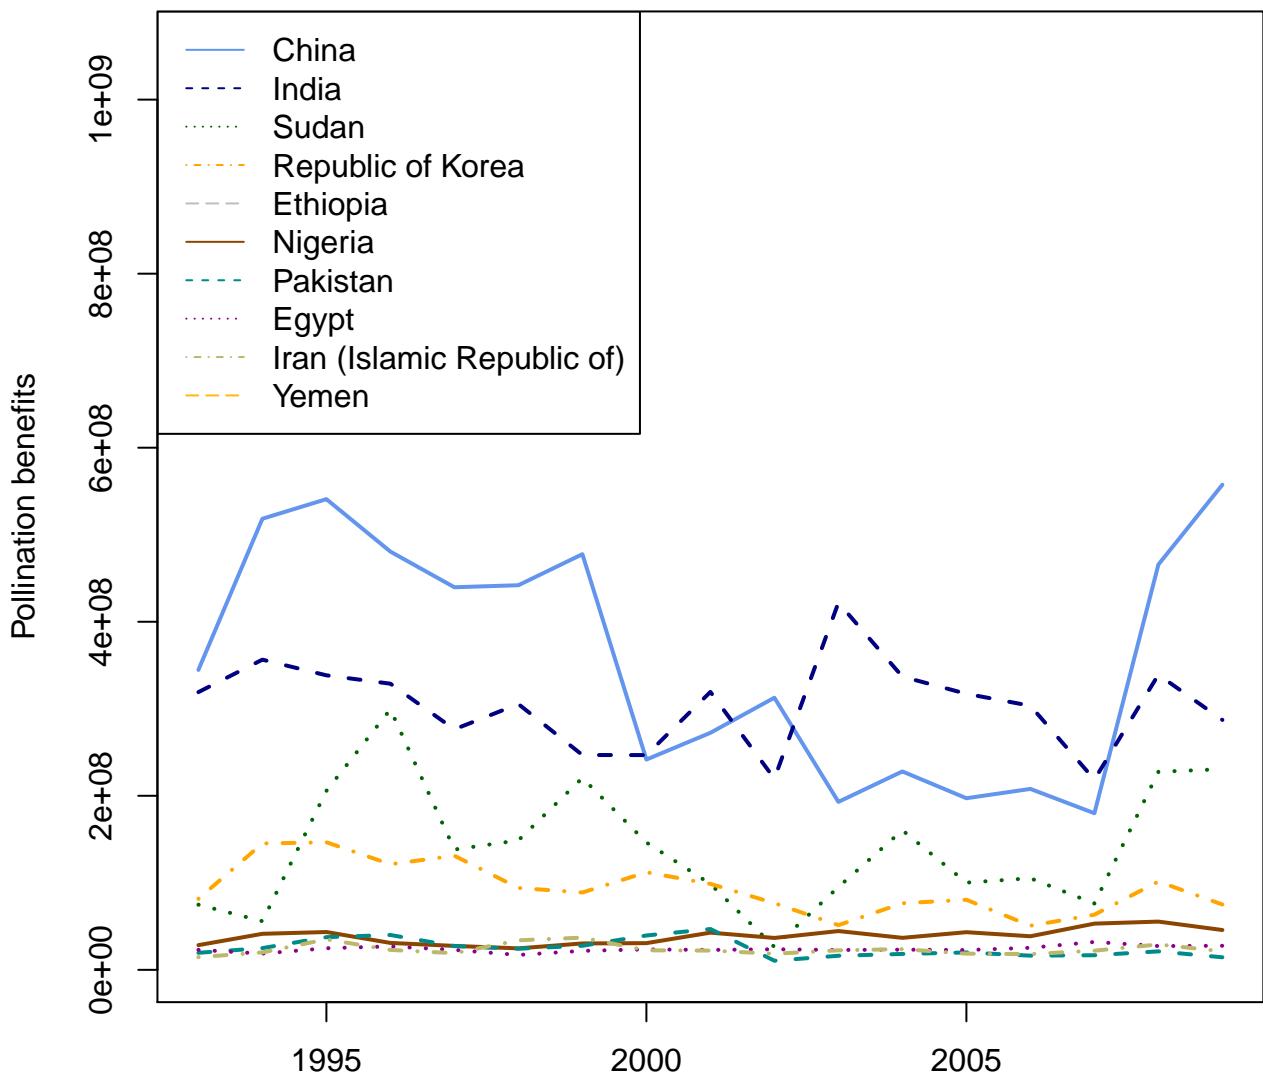

Safflower seed

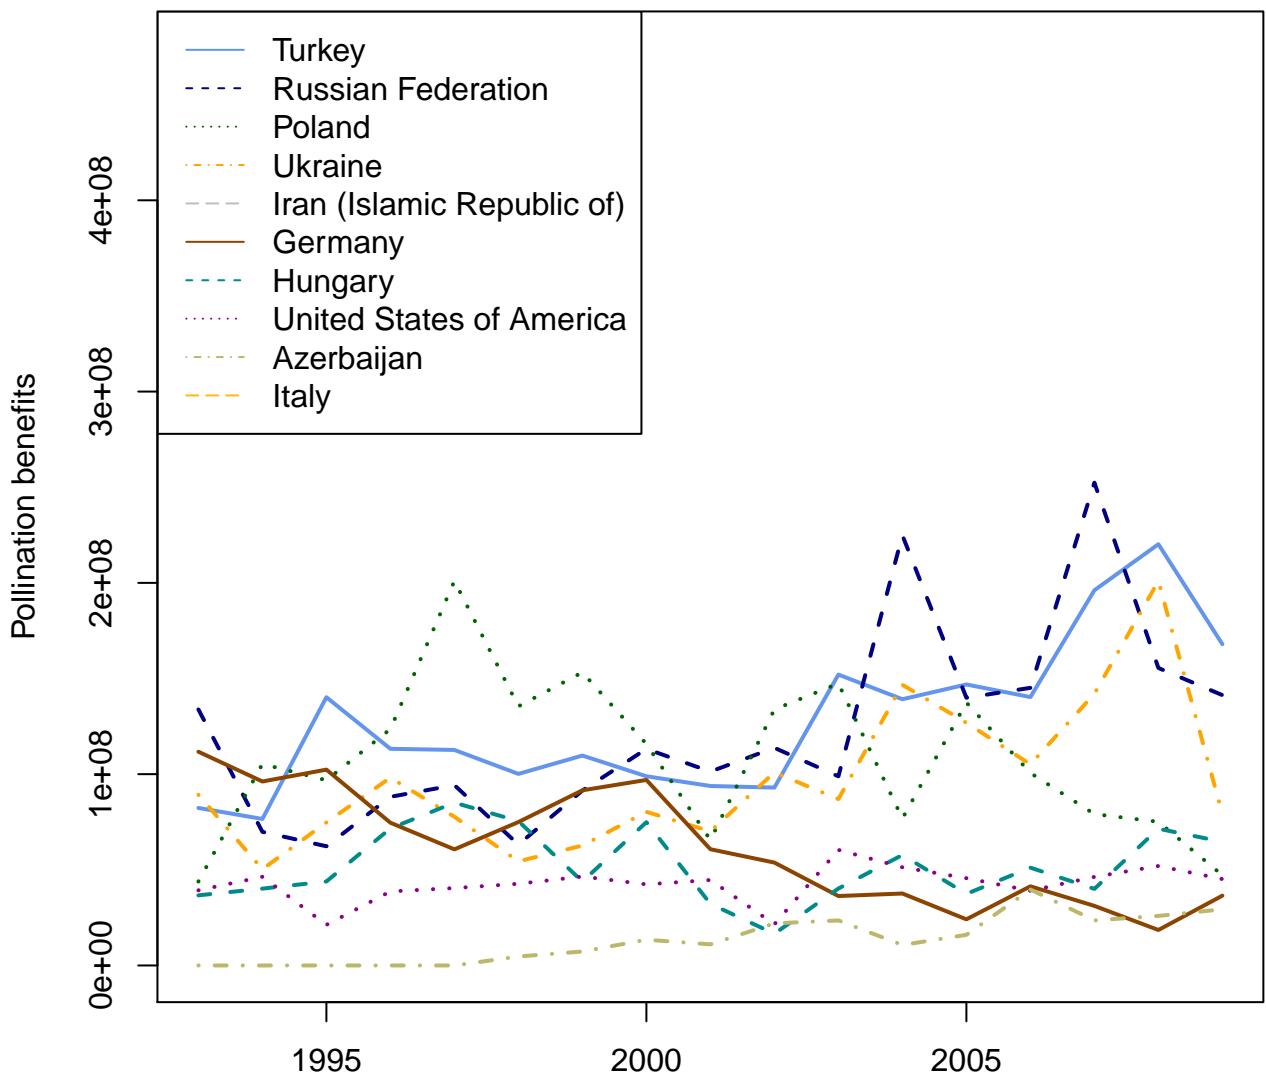

Seed cotton

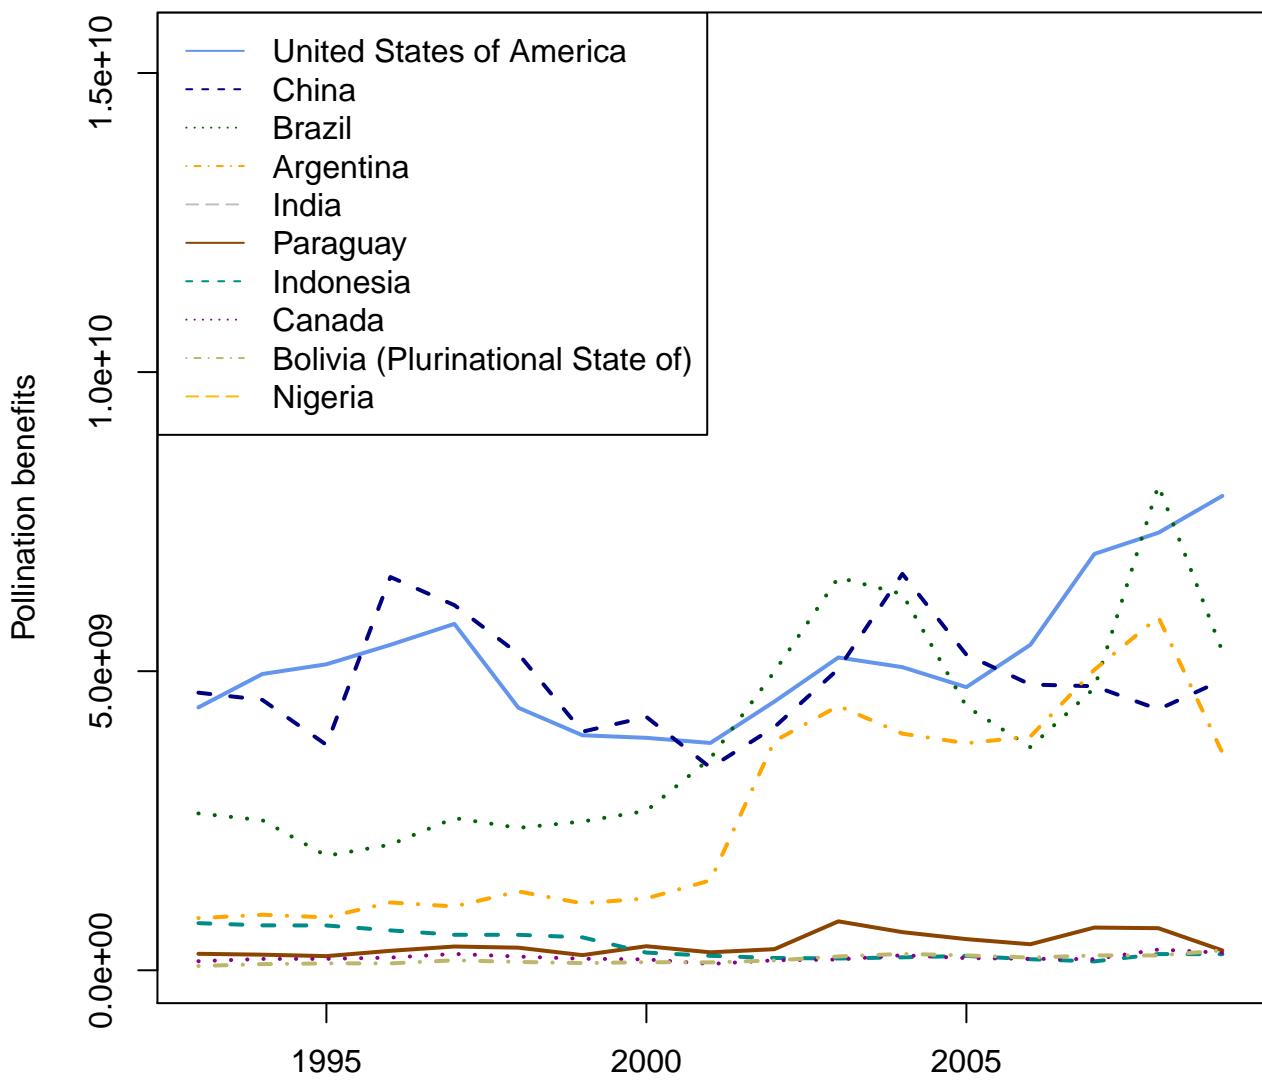

Sesame

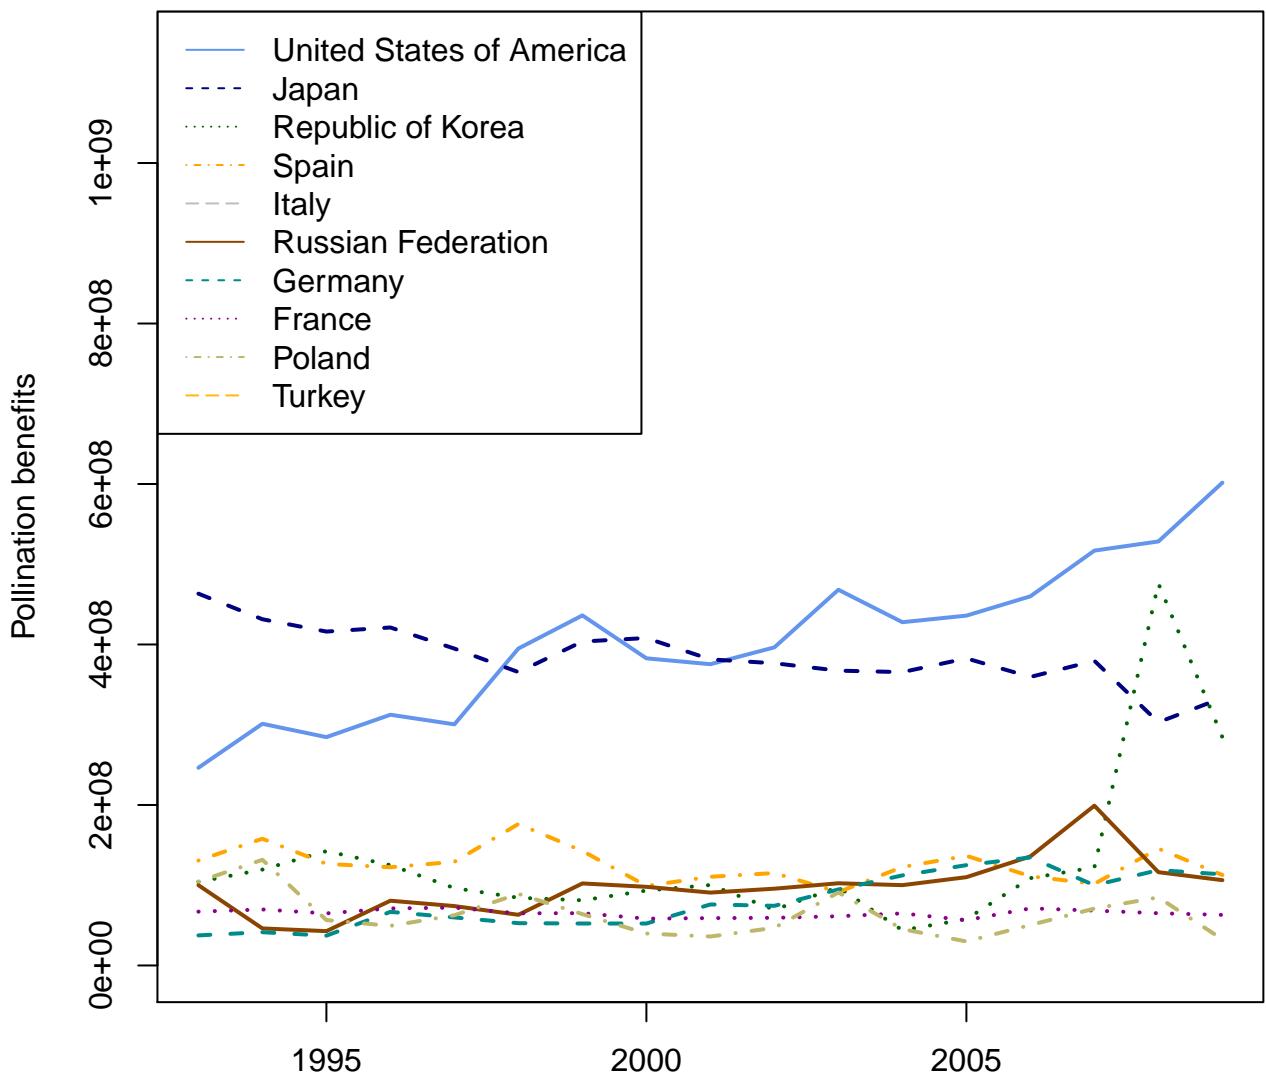

Sour cherries

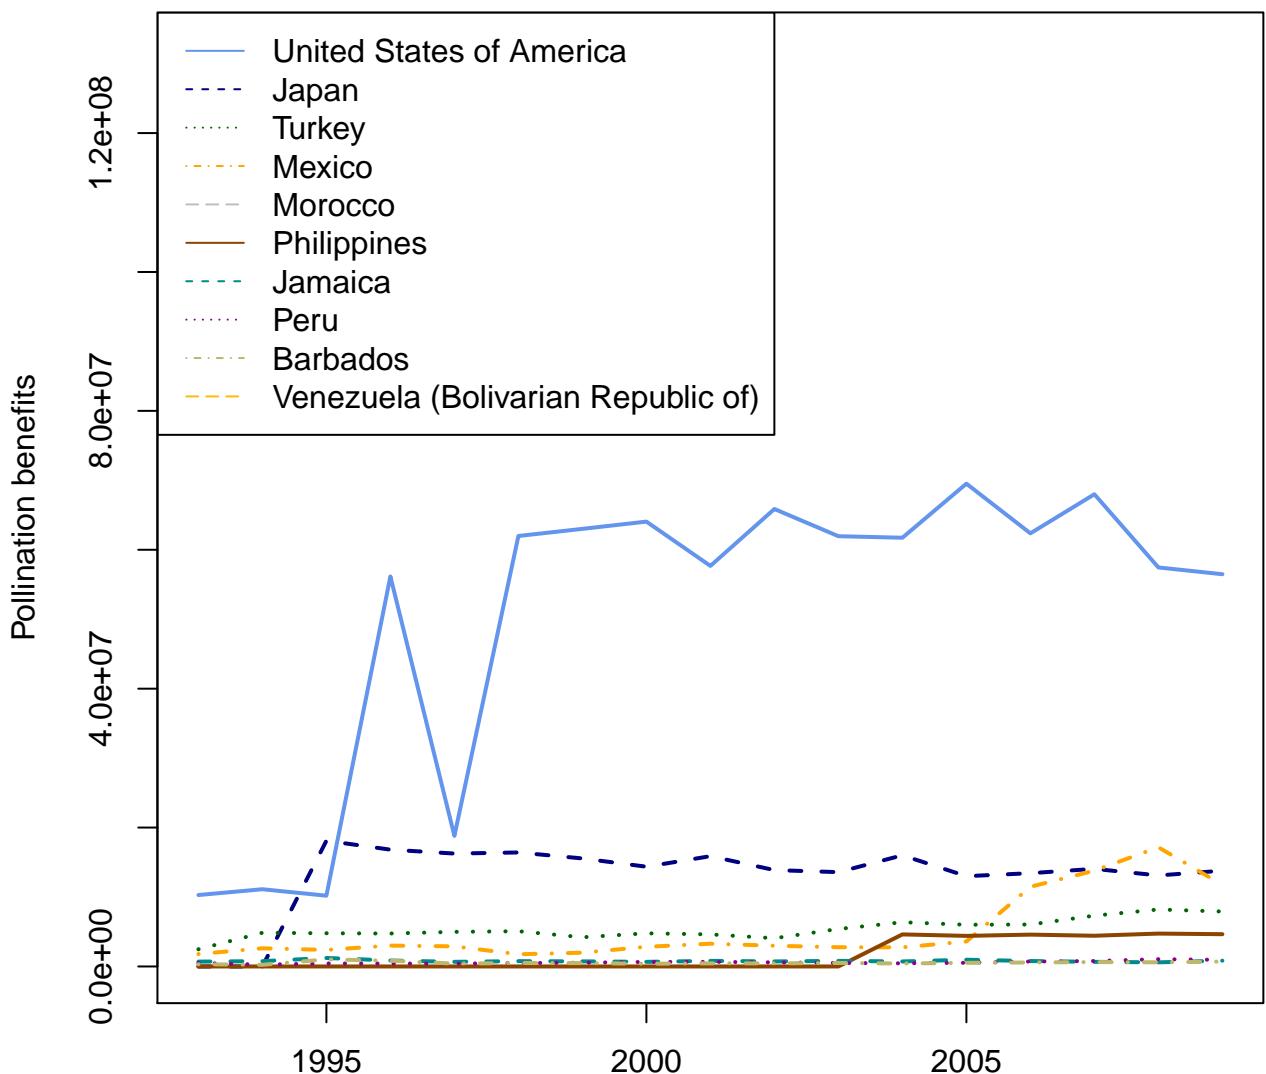

Soybeans

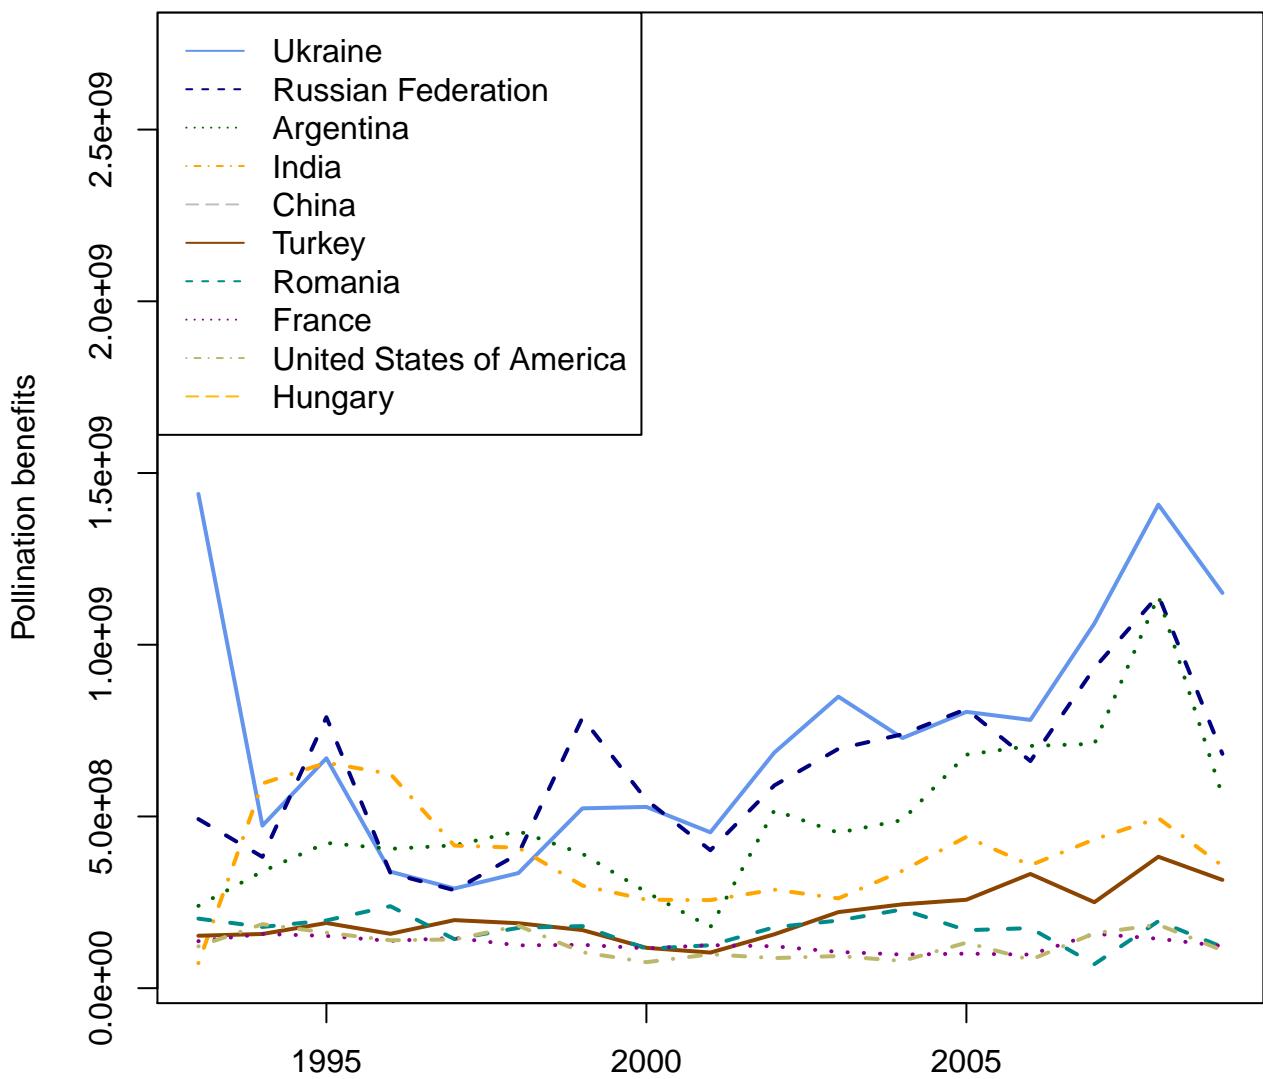

Strawberries

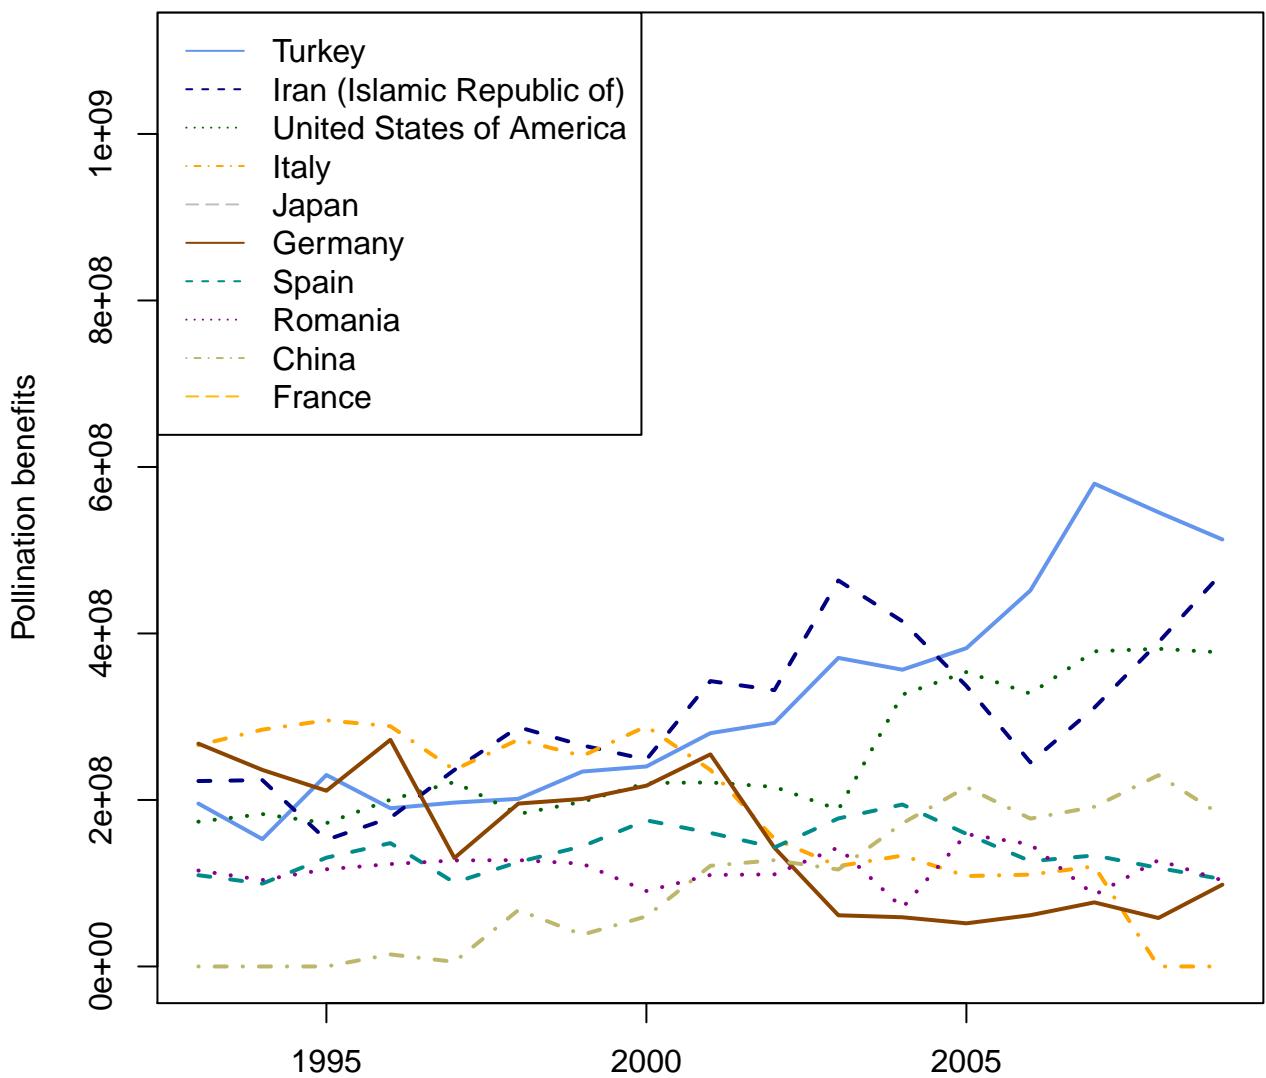

String beans

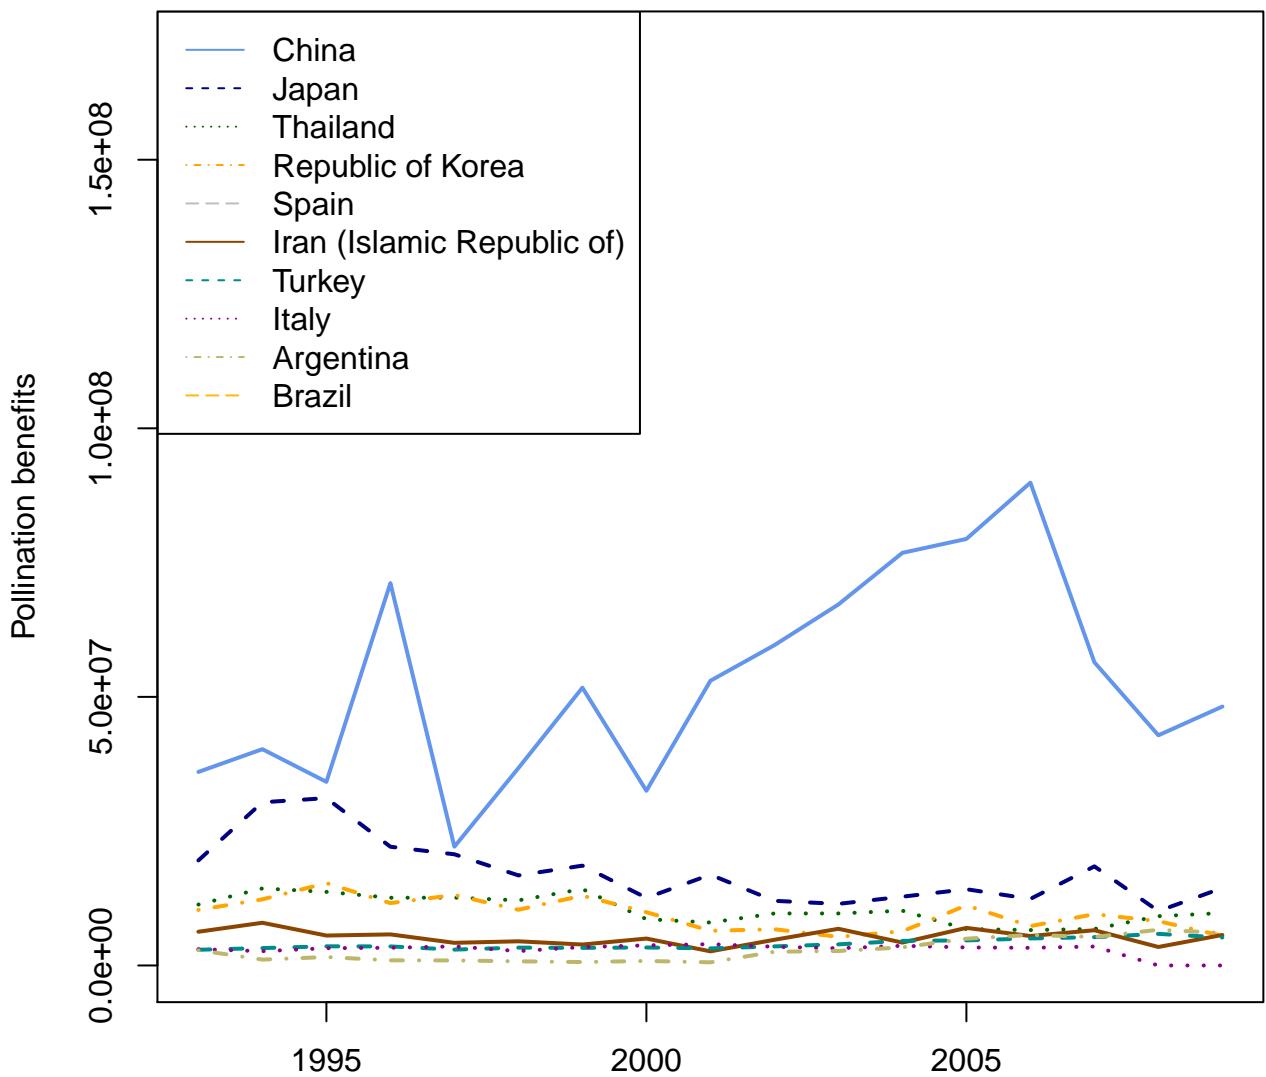

Sunflower seed

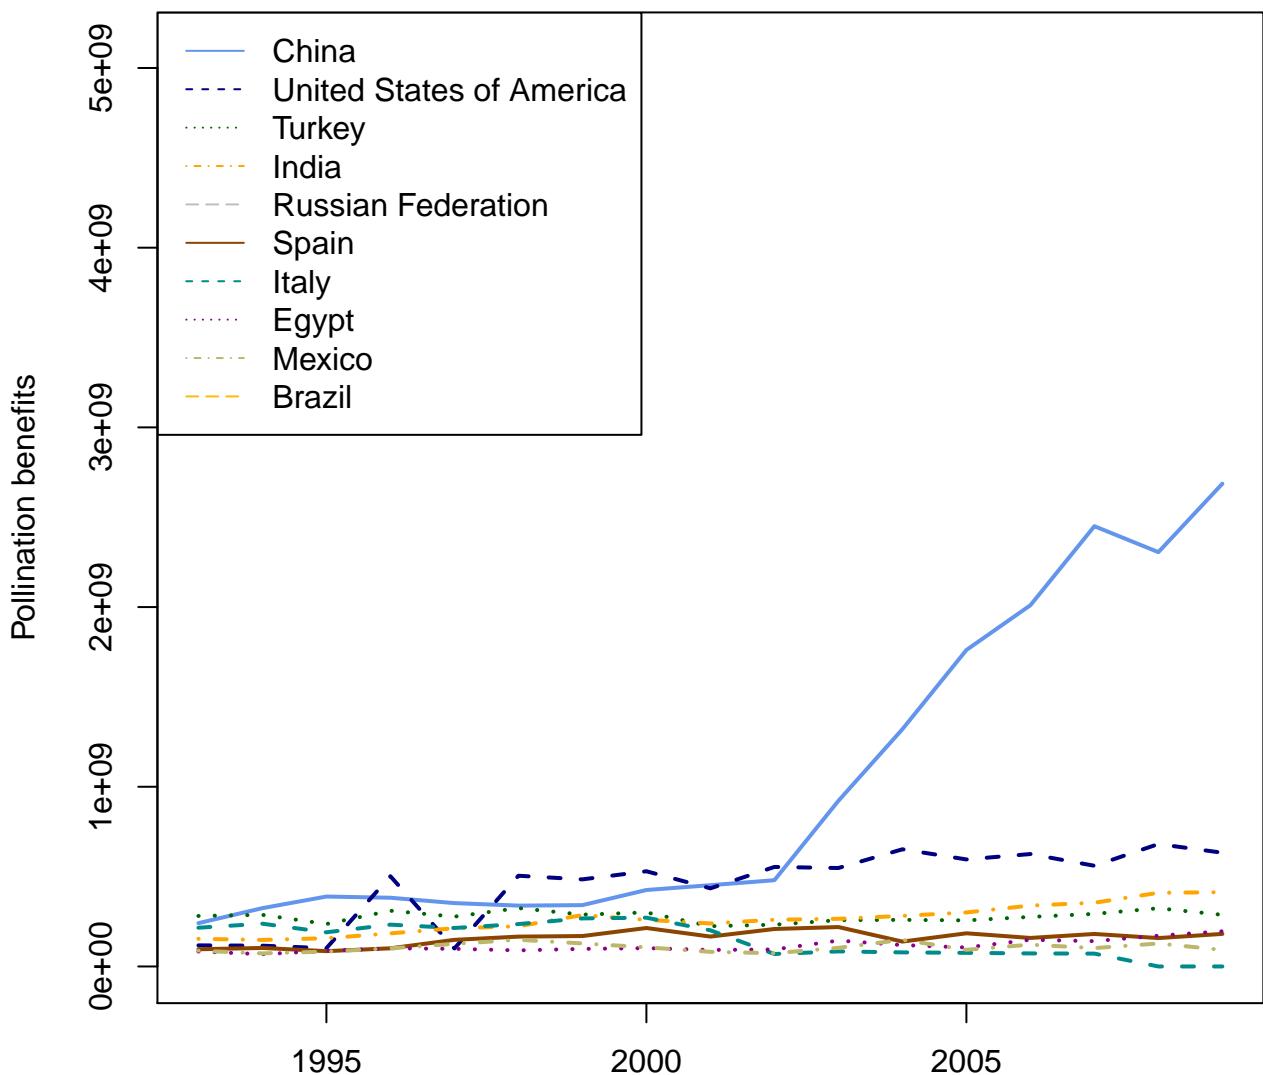

Sweet Cherries

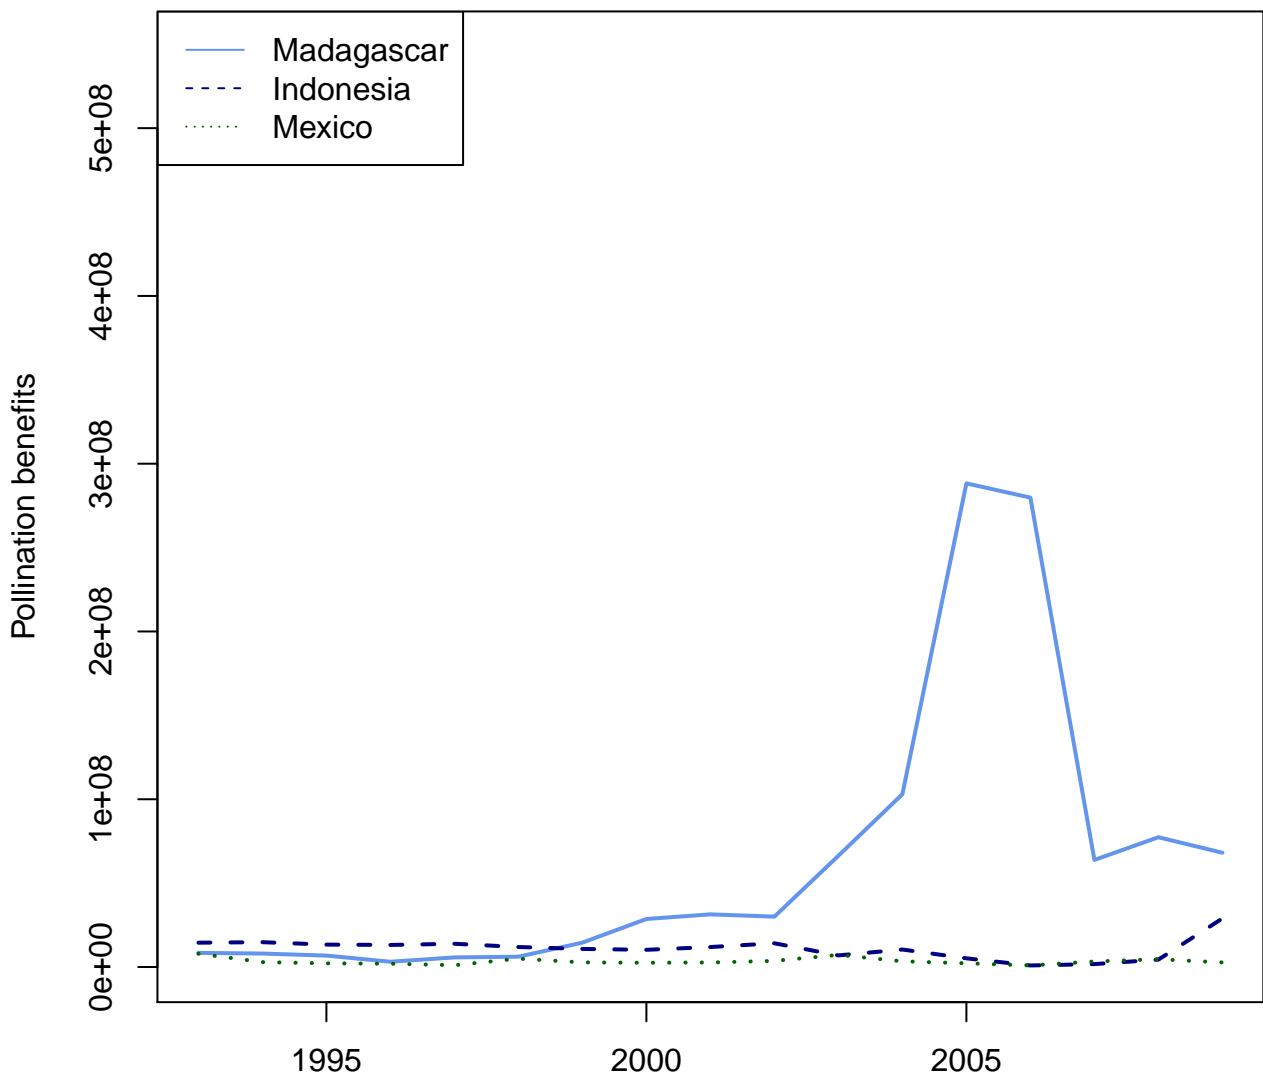

Tangerines, Manderines, Clementines*

Tomatoes

Vanilla

Watermelons

