

Maximal feature value across compounds, standardized by mock-treated cell population